Amendments to the Bill since the previous version are indicated by sidelining in the right margin. Wherever possible, provisions that were in the Bill as introduced retain the original numbering.

Child Poverty (Scotland) Bill

[AS AMENDED AT STAGE 2]

An Act of the Scottish Parliament to set targets relating to the eradication of child poverty; and to make provision about plans and reports relating to the targets.

Targets relating to child poverty

1 2030 targets

- 5 (1) The Scottish Ministers must ensure that the 2030 targets are met in the financial year beginning with 1 April 2030.
- (2) The 2030 targets are that, of children living in households in Scotland—
- 10 (a) less than 10% fall within section 2 (relative poverty),
- (b) less than 5% fall within section 3 (absolute poverty),
- (c) less than 5% fall within section 4 (combined low income and material deprivation),
- (d) less than 5% fall within section 5 (persistent poverty).

1A Interim targets

- 15 (1) The Scottish Ministers must ensure that the interim targets are met in the financial year beginning with 1 April 2023.
- (2) The interim targets are that, of children living in households in Scotland—
- (a) less than 18% fall within section 2 (relative poverty),
- (b) less than 14% fall within section 3 (absolute poverty),
- 20 (c) less than 8% fall within section 4 (combined low income and material deprivation),
- (d) less than 8% fall within section 5 (persistent poverty).

2 Relative poverty

- 25 A child falls within this section in a financial year if the child lives in a household whose equivalised net income for the year is less than 60% of median equivalised net household income for the year.

3 Absolute poverty

- (1) A child falls within this section in a financial year if the child lives in a household whose equivalised net income for the year is less than 60% of the amount of median equivalised net household income for the financial year beginning with 1 April 2010, adjusted to take account of changes in the value of money since that financial year.
- (2) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations substitute a different date for the date mentioned for the time being in subsection (1).
- (3) Regulations under subsection (2) are subject to the affirmative procedure.

4 Combined low income and material deprivation

A child falls within this section in a financial year if the child—

- (a) lives in a household whose equivalised net income for the year is less than 70% of median equivalised net household income for the year, and
- (b) experiences material deprivation in the year.

5 Persistent poverty

- (1) A child falls within this section in a financial year if the child has lived—
- (a) in each of the survey years, in a household in Scotland, and
- (b) in at least 3 of the survey years, in a household whose equivalised net income for the survey year was less than 60% of median equivalised net household income for the survey year.
- (2) The survey years are—
- (a) the calendar year that ends during the financial year, and
- (b) the 3 previous calendar years.

6 Calculation of net household income

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, the deductions to be made in calculating net household income include housing costs.
- (2) In this Act—
- “equivalised”, in relation to household income, means adjusted to take account of variations in household size and composition,
- “median equivalised net household income” means the median equivalised net household income for the United Kingdom.

*Poverty and Inequality Commission6A Poverty and Inequality Commission

- (1) The Poverty and Inequality Commission (in this Act, referred to as “the Commission”) is established.
- (1A) In addition to functions specified in this Act, the Commission may—
- (a) perform such other functions,
- (b) prepare and publish such reports,

as it considers appropriate in connection with ensuring that the child poverty targets are met.

- (2) The schedule makes further provision about the Commission.

Delivery plans and progress reports

5 7 Delivery plan

- (1) The Scottish Ministers must prepare a plan (a “delivery plan”) for each of the following periods—

(a) 1 April 2018 to 31 March 2022,

(b) 1 April 2022 to 31 March 2026,

10 (c) 1 April 2026 to 31 March 2031.

- (2) A delivery plan must set out—

(a) the measures that the Scottish Ministers propose to take during the period of the plan for the purpose of meeting the child poverty targets,

15 (b) an assessment of the contribution the proposed measures are expected to make to meeting the child poverty targets, and

(c) an explanation of how that assessment has been arrived at.

- (2A) In preparing a delivery plan, the Scottish Ministers must, in particular, consider what (if any) measures they ought to take in relation to—

(a) the provision of financial support for children and parents,

20 (aa) supporting local authorities to consider the automatic payment of benefits and support,

(b) the provision and accessibility of information, advice and assistance to parents in relation to—

(i) social security matters,

25 (ii) income maximisation,

(iii) financial support,

(c) education,

(d) the availability and affordability of housing,

(e) the availability and affordability of childcare,

30 (f) the facilitation of the employment, and of the development of the skills, of parents,

(g) physical and mental health,

(h) the exercising of any of the powers provided for in Part 3 of the Scotland Act 2016 (welfare benefits and employment support).

- 35 (2B) A delivery plan must, in particular, set out whether, during the period of the plan for the purpose of meeting the child poverty targets, the Scottish Ministers intend to bring forward legislation to exercise the power provided for in section 24 of the Scotland Act 2016 (discretionary payments: top-up of reserved benefits) in relation to the reserved benefits mentioned in subsection (2C).

- (2C) For the purpose of subsection (2B), the reserved benefits are benefits—
- (a) in respect of which entitlement is based in whole or in part on the claimant or the claimant's partner having responsibility for a child,
 - (b) in which an additional amount may be included where the claimant's household includes a child.
- (2D) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (2C), the benefits mentioned include—
- (a) child benefit paid under section 141 of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992,
 - (b) child tax credit paid under Part 1 of the Tax Credits Act 2002,
 - (c) universal credit paid under Part 1 of the Welfare Reform Act 2012.
- (2E) A delivery plan must, in particular, set out—
- (a) whether the Scottish Ministers intend to bring forward legislation to exercise—
 - (i) the power provided for in section 24 of the Scotland Act 2016 to top up social security powers in relation to providing a top-up for child benefit paid under section 141 of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992,
 - (ii) any other power provided for in Part 3 of the Scotland Act 2016 (welfare benefits and employment support), and
 - (b) the measures that the Scottish Ministers intend to take—
 - (i) to ensure the provision of information, advice and assistance to parents and carers in relation to entitlements to social security benefits and other provision to ensure maximisation of income,
 - (ii) to ensure availability of suitable and affordable housing,
 - (iii) to ensure the availability of childcare, and
 - (iv) to facilitate the ability of parents and carers to take up employment that pays at least the Scottish living wage,
- during the period of the plan for the purpose of meeting the child poverty targets.
- (2F) In subsection (2E)(b)(iv) “Scottish living wage” means remuneration which is sufficient to ensure an acceptable standard of living.
- (2G) A delivery plan must set out, in particular, the measures the Scottish Ministers propose to take, for the purpose of contributing to the meeting of the child poverty targets, during the period of the plan in relation to households that comprise—
- (a) a person who not a member of a couple, and
 - (b) one or more children for whom that person is responsible.
- (2H) A delivery plan must set out, in particular, the steps the Scottish Ministers propose to take during the period of the plan to modify arrangements for setting the amount of the revenue support grant payable to each local authority in order to ensure that resources are directed for the purpose of contributing to meeting the child poverty targets.
- (3) A delivery plan may include such other information about child poverty as the Scottish Ministers consider appropriate.

- (3A) In preparing a delivery plan, the Scottish Ministers must—
- (a) consult the Commission on the measures they propose to include in the delivery plan,
 - (b) have regard to any recommendations made by the Commission,
 - 5 (c) set out in the delivery plan the changes, if any, they have made in the delivery plan as a result of any such recommendations.
- (4) As soon as reasonably practicable after preparing a delivery plan, and before the beginning of the period of the plan, the Scottish Ministers must—
- (a) lay the plan before the Scottish Parliament,
 - 10 (aa) make a statement, and
 - (b) publish the plan.
- (5) In preparing a delivery plan, the Scottish Ministers must consult—
- (a) such local authorities or associations of local authorities as they consider appropriate,
 - 15 (b) such persons and organisations working with or representing children as they consider appropriate,
 - (c) such persons and organisations working with or representing parents as they consider appropriate,
 - (ca) the Scottish Parliament, and
 - 20 (d) such persons who have experience of living in poverty and such other persons as they consider appropriate.
- (6) In this section, “parent” includes an individual with whom a child resides and who has care of the child.

8 Progress report

- 25 (1) The Scottish Ministers must, before the end of the period of 3 months beginning with the last day of each reporting year, prepare a report (a “progress report”) on the progress made during the year—
- (a) towards meeting the child poverty targets, and
 - (b) in implementing the relevant delivery plan.
- 30 (2) A progress report must, in particular—
- (a) describe the measures taken by the Scottish Ministers in accordance with that delivery plan,
 - (b) describe the effect of those measures on progress towards meeting the child poverty targets, and
 - 35 (c) describe the effects of those measures on progress towards meeting the child poverty targets in respect of children living in households that include a person who—
 - (i) is not a member of a couple, and
 - (ii) is responsible for, and a member of the same household as, a child.

(2A) If, in preparing a progress report, the Scottish Ministers consider that the measures taken in accordance with the relevant delivery plan do not appear to be ensuring sufficient progress towards meeting the child poverty targets, the progress report must set out how the Scottish Ministers propose to rectify this.

5 (2B) In preparing a progress report, the Scottish Ministers must consult the Commission on—
 (a) the progress made during the year towards meeting the child poverty targets,
 (b) whether it appears that progress is sufficient to meet the child poverty targets,
 (c) further progress that is required to meet the child poverty targets.

10 (2C) A progress report must include any comments or recommendations made by the Commission on the matters in paragraphs (a) to (c) of subsection (2B).

(2D) In subsection (2B), references to progress towards meeting the child poverty targets include progress towards reducing inequality for the purpose of meeting those targets.

(3) As soon as reasonably practicable after preparing a progress report, the Scottish Ministers must—

15 (a) lay the report before the Scottish Parliament,
 (aa) make a statement, and
 (b) publish the report.

(4) In this section—

20 “relevant delivery plan”, in relation to a progress report, means the plan prepared under section 7(1) for a period that includes the reporting year for which the progress report is prepared,

“reporting year” means a financial year falling within the period of a plan prepared under section 7(1).

8A Report on interim targets

25 (1) This section applies to the report prepared under section 8(1) for the financial year beginning with 1 April 2024.

(2) The report must include a statement of the percentage of children living in households in Scotland in the financial year beginning with 1 April 2023—

30 (a) who fell within section 2 (relative poverty),
 (b) who fell within section 3 (absolute poverty),
 (c) who fell within section 4 (combined low income and material deprivation),
 (d) who fell within section 5 (persistent poverty).

(3) Whether the interim targets have been met in the financial year beginning with 1 April 2023 is to be determined by reference to the percentages given in the report.

35 (4) If any of the interim targets has not been met, the report must explain why it has not been met.

9 Final report

(1) This section applies to the report prepared under section 8(1) for the financial year beginning with 1 April 2030.

- (2) The report must include a statement of the percentage of children living in households in Scotland that year—
- (a) who fell within section 2 (relative poverty),
 - (b) who fell within section 3 (absolute poverty),
 - 5 (c) who fell within section 4 (combined low income and material deprivation),
 - (d) who fell within section 5 (persistent poverty).
- (3) Whether the 2030 targets have been met in the financial year beginning with 1 April 2030 is to be determined by reference to the percentages given in the report.
- 10 (4) If any of the 2030 targets has not been met, the report must explain why it has not been met.

Local child poverty action report

10 Local child poverty action report

- 15 (1) A local authority and each relevant Health Board must, as soon as reasonably practicable after the end of each reporting year, jointly prepare and publish a report (a “local child poverty action report”).
- (2) A local child poverty action report must describe any measures taken in the area of the local authority during the reporting year by—
- (a) the local authority,
 - (b) each relevant Health Board,
- 20 for the purpose of contributing to the meeting of the child poverty targets.
- (2A) A local child poverty action report must also describe any measures that—
- (a) the local authority,
 - (b) each relevant Health Board,
- 25 proposes to take for the purpose of contributing to the meeting of the child poverty targets.
- (2B) Subsection (2A) does not apply in relation to a local child poverty action report prepared for the reporting year beginning with 1 April 2030.
- (2C) A local child poverty action report prepared under subsection (2) must, in particular, describe income maximisation measures taken in the area of the local authority during the reporting year to provide pregnant women and families with children—
- 30 (a) information, advice and assistance about eligibility for financial support, and
 - (b) assistance to apply for financial support.
- (3) In this section—
- 35 “relevant Health Board”, in relation to a local authority, means a Health Board constituted under section 2(1)(a) of the National Health Service (Scotland) Act 1978 whose area—
- (a) is the same as the area of the local authority, or
 - (b) includes all or part of the area of the local authority,

“reporting year” means a financial year falling within the period of a plan prepared under section 7(1).

- 30 (e) is or has been disqualified under any disqualification provision analogous to either of those mentioned in sub-paragraphs (c) and (d), anywhere in the world.
- (2) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1)(b), a person is or has been insolvent if—
- (a) the person's estate is or has been sequestrated,
- 35 (b) the person has granted a trust deed for creditors or has made a composition or arrangement with creditors,

- (c) the person is or has been the subject of any other kind of arrangement analogous to either of those described in sub-paragraphs (a) and (b), anywhere in the world.

Period and terms of appointment

- 5 6 (1) A member is appointed for such period not exceeding 5 years as the Scottish Ministers may determine.
- (2) A person may be reappointed as a member if—
- (a) the person—
- 10 (i) is a member at the time of reappointment, or
- (ii) ceased to be a member not more than 3 months before the date of reappointment, and
- (b) the person has not previously been reappointed.
- (3) The Scottish Ministers may determine other terms of an appointment, so far as not provided for by this Act.

Disqualification after appointment

- 15 7 (1) A person's appointment as a member ceases if the person becomes disqualified as a member after appointment.
- (2) A person becomes disqualified as a member after appointment if, during the person's period of appointment as a member, any of sub-paragraphs (a) to (e) of paragraph 5(1) applies to the person.

Resignation

- 20 8 A member may resign by giving notice in writing to—
- (a) the Scottish Ministers, and
- (b) the Presiding Officer of the Scottish Parliament.

Removal

- 25 9 (1) The Scottish Ministers may remove a member, by giving the member notice in writing, if the Scottish Ministers consider that the member is —
- (a) unable to perform the member's functions, or
- (b) otherwise unfit to continue to be a member.
- 30 (2) The Scottish Ministers may remove a member under sub-paragraph (1) only with the approval of the Scottish Parliament.

Remuneration, expenses and resources

- 10 (1) Members of the Commission, and any members of committees established by the Commission under paragraph 12 who are not members of the Commission, are entitled to such remuneration and expenses as the Scottish Ministers may determine.
- 35 (2) The Scottish Ministers are to provide the Commission with such staff and other resources as it requires to carry out its functions.

General

11 The Commission may regulate its own procedure (including quorum).

12 (1) The Commission may establish committees.

5 (2) The membership of a committee may include (but may not consist entirely of) persons who are not members of the Commission but those persons are not entitled to vote at meetings.
