1. The King of Scots at the meeting of Parliament in 1293
2. Where the Parliament met on 9 February 1293
3. King James II tried to ban this sport in 1457
4. This happened in 1707
5. One of these took place on 1 March 1979 and on 11 September 1997
6. The second question in the 1997 referendum was about this
7. The type of Parliament set up after the 1997 referendum
8. The month the Parliament first met in 1999
What the Scottish Parliament can do

The Scottish Parliament makes decisions that affect our everyday lives and can pass laws on different things. These are called _________________ matters.

Some of these matters are:

The Scottish Parliament cannot make laws on reserved matters. These are dealt with by the ________________.

Some examples of reserved matters are:

The Honours of Scotland

The 'Honours of Scotland' sculpture was created by silversmith ____________________________.

The sculpture was presented to the Scottish Parliament by HM the ____________ to mark the opening of the Scottish Parliament building on Saturday 9 October 200__.

The new sculpture is a reminder of the original three Honours of Scotland or the Crown Jewels – the Crown, the Sword and the Sceptre.

Label the picture to show the three parts of the 'Honours'.

1 ________________________________
2 ________________________________
3 ________________________________
Passing laws in the Scottish Parliament

New laws start as a proposal called a B_____.

Stage 1
A committee considers the Bill’s g______ p_________. Parliament debates and votes.

Stage 2
The committee considers the details of the Bill and can make a_________ (changes).

Stage 3
The whole Parliament __________ the Bill then ______ to decide whether it should pass.

MSPs can vote: ____, __ or _________.

Royal Assent
The Bill becomes an A__ of ___ S________ P_________ (a law) after the Queen has given Royal Assent.

The Mace
Finish the drawing below with the words and the thistle design that are engraved on the Mace.
How can you have your say in the Scottish Parliament?

Try to find at least 5 ways you can let the Scottish Parliament know what you think.

Design of the building

The Scottish Parliament building was designed by the architects ______________________ from Barcelona in Spain and RMJM, an Edinburgh-based company.

What materials have been used in the building?

Where can you see this shape? Does it remind you of anything?