(2) In this Part, a “national islands plan” is a plan setting out the main objectives and strategy of the Scottish Ministers in relation to improving outcomes for island communities that result from, or are contributed to by, the carrying out of functions of a public nature.

4 Preparation and scrutiny of plan

(1) In preparing the national islands plan, the Scottish Ministers must—

(a) consult—

(i) such persons as they consider represent the interests of island communities, and

(ii) such persons as they consider likely to be affected by the proposals contained in the plan, and

(b) have regard to the distinctive geographical and cultural characteristics of each of the areas inhabited by island communities.

(2) The Scottish Ministers must lay the proposed national islands plan before the Scottish Parliament—

(a) in the case of the first plan, before the end of the period of one year beginning with the day on which this section comes into force,

(b) in any other case, following a review under section 6(1).

(3) The Scottish Ministers must complete their preparation of the national islands plan after the expiry of the period of 40 days beginning with the day on which the plan is laid before the Scottish Parliament (taking no account of any time during which the Parliament is dissolved or in recess for more than 4 days).

(4) As soon as reasonably practicable after the end of the period mentioned in subsection (3), the Scottish Ministers must publish the plan.

Report on plan

5 Report on plan

(1) The Scottish Ministers must prepare a report for each reporting year, containing information—

(a) about the extent to which the outcomes identified in the national islands plan have improved in the reporting year,

(2) In this section, “reporting year” means the period of one year beginning—

6 Review of plan
(1) The Scottish Ministers—
(a) must review the national islands plan before the end of the period of 5 years beginning with the day on which the plan was last published, and
(b) may from time to time review the plan.

(2) Following a review under subsection (1), the Scottish Ministers may revise the plan as they consider appropriate.

(3) Subsections (1), (3) and (4) of section 4 apply to a review of the plan under subsection (1) as they apply to the preparation of the plan under that section.

(2) In subsection (1), “legislation” means—

(a) a Bill for an Act of the Scottish Parliament which the Scottish Ministers intend to introduce in the Parliament, and
