Senior Assistant Clerk

Ref: 580466
Salary range: £41,649 - £51,144
Location: Holyrood, Edinburgh
Working pattern: Full time (although applications on a part-time/flexible basis are welcome)

Closing date: Midnight Monday 17 April 2017

The Scottish Parliament represents the people of Scotland by debating issues of national importance, passing legislation and holding the Scottish Government to account. The business of the Scottish Parliament is conducted in the Chamber and in Committees. The Chamber is where MSPs meet to debate topical issues and decide on new laws. The Parliament’s committees scrutinise the work of the Scottish Government, examine legislation, conduct inquiries and make recommendations on subjects within their remit.

In both the Chamber and Committees, Clerks play a vital role in ensuring that parliamentary business is conducted in accordance with guidance and procedures, that MSPs have access to the information they need to scrutinise, discuss, debate and decide on a wide range of public policy issues and that parliamentary business is conducted in a manner that is accessible to the people it affects.

The role of Senior Assistant Clerk is wide-ranging, challenging and extremely rewarding. You don't need to be an expert in parliamentary process to succeed in your application. Instead, you need to bring a passion for the democratic process and an interest in understanding how it operates in Scotland along with a desire to work in an environment where impartiality is key and sound judgement is vital. As a Senior Assistant Clerk, you will use your skills to communicate complex information in an understandable way, investigate current political issues, gather evidence, assist members of the public to have their voice heard in the Parliament and provide advice on procedure and protocol. You will be responsible for managing staff and you may be required to lead a team.

You don’t need to have worked in a similar role before but you should only consider applying if you are able to operate impartially in a political and/or public policy environment and would enjoy working in a role in which you would be required to demonstrate the following:

- The ability to write concisely, convincingly and accurately, including writing informative papers on current political issues;
- The ability to understand complex rules and procedures and to assist a wide range of audiences to understand them so that the Parliament is accessible to them;
- The ability to provide clear, consistent, accurate and coherent advice, both verbally and in writing, typically in formal environments and sometimes under intense pressure;
- The ability to build and maintain strong working relationships with a wide-range of people, both within and out with the Parliament;
- The confidence to advise, guide and, often, to persuade others to adopt approaches they don’t, at first, agree with;
- The confidence to provide leadership to others by setting a positive example;
- The ability to work under minimal direction, exercising judgement to decide what to prioritise and how best to do your job.

Other Information

Hours

The way the Parliament works means that different groups of staff work varying hours and patterns. You may have to work longer hours when Parliament is sitting and reduced hours during recess periods. For this reason, we have very progressive flexible working hours (FWH) arrangements. You will be required to work within these arrangements.

Notwithstanding your individual working pattern, if you are employed on a full time basis, you will be contracted to work 1,631 hours per year. This is the equivalent to a 37-hour week, excluding breaks, annual leave and public and privilege holidays. If you work on a part-time basis, you will be required to work the number of hours specified in your appointment letter.

Bandwidths are the hours within which staff may work and accrue time under the FWH arrangements. The bandwidth is from 7:00am to 8:00pm for all work areas and from 7:00am to 10:00pm for Sub Editors, the Deputy Editor and the Editor in the Official Report.

Annual Leave

Your annual leave allowance will be 30 days. Our annual leave year runs from 1 September to 31 August. If you take up your appointment during the course of the leave year, your annual leave allowance will be proportional.
In addition, you will also receive 10.5 days public and privilege holidays (increasing to 11.5 days in the 2017/18 leave year. They are normally taken at fixed times of the year. If you are required to work on a public or privilege holiday overtime arrangements will apply.

If you work on a part-time basis, your annual leave and public and privilege holiday entitlement will be pro-rated.

As with working hours, there may be restrictions on annual leave when Parliament is sitting. In any event, you may not take annual leave unless it has been agreed, normally in advance, with your line manager.

Pension

Unless you choose otherwise we offer the opportunity to join the Civil Service pension arrangements, which include a valuable range of benefits. We will make substantial employer contributions towards your Civil Service pension. More information can be found on the Civil Service Pensions website at www.civilservice.gov.uk/pensions

Age

The SPCB does not operate a retirement age policy. This means that there is no upper age limit beyond which you would be automatically retired and you are free to continue in employment for as long as you wish subject to the normal rules concerning Performance, Attendance and Conduct.

Travelling and Other Expenses

We pay travelling and other expenses if you incur them whilst on official duty. However, we will not reimburse the cost of normal daily travel between home and office.

Probation

You will be on probation for six months. Confirmation of your appointment is dependent on the satisfactory completion of this probation period, taking into account your job performance, conduct and attendance.

Outside and Political Activities

As an employee of the SPCB, you may not take part in any activity that would in any way conflict with the interests of the Parliament or be inconsistent with your duties and responsibilities.

You may not take part in national political activities, although you may seek permission to take part in local political activities. If permission is granted, it will be subject to the observance of general rules relating to possible conflicts between your official responsibilities and your political activities.

Health and Safety

The SPCB is committed to promoting health and safety as a priority issue. Its aim is to take appropriate and reasonable steps to ensure that it conducts its business in such a way that employees and other people who may be affected by its work are not exposed to risks to their health and safety.
Data Protection

Under the terms of the Data Protection Act 1998, information provided by you will be processed and stored to provide management information for recruitment and equal opportunities monitoring purposes. We will also use this information to form the basis of your personnel record if you are successful for the job. Otherwise, we will not retain this information for any longer than it is needed and we would normally dispose of paper records after 6 months. You will have the right of access to any information held about you.

Suggestions

We want all applicants to feel that they have been treated fairly, even if they are not appointed. If you have any comments or suggestions about the way in which this recruitment campaign has been handled, we would really like to hear from you.

Referees

Please do not send references or testimonials with your form. If you are successful, we will approach previous and/or current employers for a reference. We can only make a formal offer of employment once we have received these references. If you have no employment history we may approach any school, college or university you have attended.

Health Assessment and Security Clearance

If you are successful at interview, you will be asked to complete a health assessment form. If necessary, we may ask you to attend a medical assessment. Assessments are carried out by our occupational health supplier in the Parliament building. The reason why we carry out a health assessment is to make sure that the job you have applied for is suitable for you. It is also to find out if we need to carry out any adjustments to help you do the job.

Security clearance is required for this post. If you are successful, we will ask you to complete a security questionnaire. This form will explain our security vetting policy. We can only make a formal offer of employment once the security clearance process is complete.

Visa and Work Permits

There are no nationality restrictions on who the SPCB employs. You must however check whether there are any restrictions on your stay or your freedom to take or change employment in the United Kingdom before you apply for a post. If you are successful at interview, we will make a complete enquiry into your eligibility to work in the United Kingdom.
