About the Parliament

The Scottish Parliamentary Corporate Body (SPCB) ensures that the Parliament has the property, staff and services it needs. The SPCB is made up of the Presiding Officer and four MSPs who are appointed by the Parliament. It makes decisions on a wide range of issues to do with running the Parliament. It also employs the staff who work for the Parliament.

Parliamentary staff are not civil servants. They are independent of the Government and provide an impartial service to MSPs of all political parties. There are many groups of staff performing a variety of tasks. These roles range from clerks who advise MSPs on detailed matters of parliamentary procedure, to security and IT staff. The Clerk/Chief Executive is the Parliament’s most senior official. The Chief Executive has the ultimate responsibility for ensuring the Parliament runs smoothly and efficiently. You can find out more about the Parliament on our website.

About the Post

The Facilities Management (FM) office provides a full range of building and estate management services aimed at ensuring the Parliament has sufficient and appropriate accommodation to meet its needs.

- Monitoring and updating all financial information relating to projects, including raising, updating and receipting purchase orders and ensuring that invoices are paid within the internal performance target limits.

- Management of the governance processes around project delivery including financial management, risk management, progress reporting and change management.

- Management of the project prioritisation model used by the FM project team.

- Management of any allocate projects including stakeholder engagement, appointment and management of consultancy teams and contractors.

Qualifications and Experience

Ideally the post holder will be qualified or working towards an HNC level or equivalent in a project management or facilities management discipline and or have relevant practical experience.

Skills and Knowledge

You must also be able to demonstrate:

1. Project Management
   - A knowledge of project management within a building environment
   - A strong understanding of the project delivery lifecycle.
   - Demonstrable organisational, planning, scheduling and reporting skills.
   - Good knowledge of programme and project management methods (MS Project and/or PRINCE 2.)

2. Financial Management
   - Experience of managing a budget effectively
   - Financial management knowledge, awareness and ability to interpret and update financial information
   - Financial reporting tracking expenditure and committed spend through formal budgeting processes.
   - An understanding of budget build processes

3. Communication and interpersonal skills
   - Ability to convey project management information clearly and concisely
• Effective interpersonal and communications skills with a range stakeholders, colleagues, consultants and suppliers
• Excellent working knowledge of Microsoft Office tools (SharePoint, Excel, PowerPoint, and Visio).
• Experience of or the ability to use MS Project

4. Records Management
• Knowledge and experience of managing a document storage system in a logical and effective manner
• Knowledge/experience of managing and distributing controlled documentation in a secure manner

Use section 5 of the application form to provide evidence of these qualities.

You will progress at the rate of one scale point per year provided you are performing your duties to the required standard. Your progression date will be the anniversary of taking up the appointment in the grade. You will be paid monthly in arrears by Bank Credit Transfer directly into your bank or building society account on the last banking day of the month.

Working pattern

This is a full-time post. Our normal working week is 37 hours but we currently operate a wide variety of work patterns, successfully balancing lifestyle choices with business requirements. All requests for part time or flexible working hours will be seriously considered.

Interviews

You will be interviewed by a panel of 3 interview board members. Your interview will last about 60 minutes.

Other Information

Hours

The way the Parliament works means that different groups of staff work varying hours and patterns. You may have to work longer hours when Parliament is sitting and reduced hours during recess periods. For this reason we have very progressive flexible working hours (FWH) arrangements. You will be required to work within these arrangements.
Notwithstanding your individual working pattern, if you are employed on a full time basis, you will be contracted to work 1,623.6 hours per year. This is the equivalent to a 37 hour week, excluding breaks, annual leave and public and privilege holidays. If you work on a part-time basis, you will be required to work the number of hours specified in your appointment letter.

Bandwidths are the hours within which staff may work and accrue time under the FWH arrangements. The bandwidth is from 7:00am to 8:00pm for all work areas and from 7:00am to 10:00pm for Sub Editors, the Deputy Editor and the Editor in the Official Report.

Annual Leave

Your annual leave allowance will be 30 days. Our annual leave year runs from 1 September to 31 August. If you take up your appointment during the course of the leave year, your annual leave allowance will be proportional.

In addition, you will also receive 11½ days public and privilege holidays. They are normally taken at fixed times of the year. If you are required to work on a public or privilege holiday overtime arrangements will apply.

If you work on a part-time basis, your annual leave and public and privilege holiday entitlement will be pro-rated.

As with working hours, there may be restrictions on annual leave when Parliament is sitting. In any event you may not take annual leave unless it has been agreed, normally in advance, with your line manager.

Pension

Unless you choose otherwise we offer the opportunity to join the Civil Service pension arrangements, which include a valuable range of benefits. We will make substantial employer contributions towards your Civil Service pension. More information can be found on the Civil Service Pensions website at www.civilservice.gov.uk/pensions

Age

The SPCB does not operate a retirement age policy. This means that there is no upper age limit beyond which you would be automatically retired and you are free to continue in employment for as long as you wish subject to the normal rules concerning Performance, Attendance and Conduct.

Travelling and Other Expenses

We pay travelling and other expenses if you incur them whilst on official duty. However, we will not reimburse the cost of normal daily travel between home and office.

Probation

You will be on probation for six months. Confirmation of your appointment is dependent on the satisfactory completion of this probation period, taking into account your job performance, conduct and attendance.

Outside and Political Activities
As an employee of the SPCB, you may not take part in any activity that would in any way conflict with the interests of the Parliament or be inconsistent with your duties and responsibilities.

You may not take part in national political activities, although you may seek permission to take part in local political activities. If permission is granted, it will be subject to the observance of general rules relating to possible conflicts between your official responsibilities and your political activities.

Health and Safety

The SPCB is committed to promoting health and safety as a priority issue. Its aim is to take appropriate and reasonable steps to ensure that it conducts its business in such a way that employees and other people who may be affected by its work are not exposed to risks to their health and safety.

General Data Protection Regulation

For further details on how we will process your personal data please refer to the HR Workers Privacy Notice and SPCB Recruitment Privacy Notice.

The Application and Selection Process

Our recruitment policy is based on the principle of fair and open competition and selection on merit. Each application is assessed in the same way, against the same, agreed criteria for the vacancy in question.

Short-listing

Each application is given a score and a final short-list is agreed by the selection panel. The applicants that receive the highest scores will be invited to interview (with the exception of candidates who apply under the Disability Symbol Scheme who may be invited if they receive the minimum acceptable score

Will you pay interview or assessment expenses?

Unless we have stated otherwise in the advert, we do not reimburse travel or other expenses you incur in attending an interview or assessment with us. We are happy to explore alternative arrangements if this causes you difficulty.
