Gross Domestic Product (GDP) 2nd Quarter 2016

This note gives an overview of the change in Scottish GDP by chained volume measures for the 2nd quarter of 2016. It provides a comparison with the UK and looks at how selected sectors are performing.

UK and Scotland comparison

The UK saw 0.7% growth over the 2nd quarter of 2016 while Scotland saw 0.4% growth over the same period.

Over the year Scotland saw an increase of 0.7% while the UK saw an increase of 2.1%. The figures for the 3rd quarter of 2016 for the UK are due to be released on 27 October 2016.