Protection of Children (Scotland) Bill

[AS INTRODUCED]

An Act of the Scottish Parliament to require the Scottish Ministers to keep a list of individuals whom they consider to be unsuitable to work with children; to prohibit individuals included in the list, and individuals who are similarly regarded in other jurisdictions, from doing certain work relating to children; to make further provision in relation to that list; and for connected purposes.

1 Duty of Scottish Ministers to keep list

(1) The Scottish Ministers shall keep a list of individuals whom they consider to be unsuitable to work with children.

(2) An individual may be included in the list only in accordance with section 5, 6 or 9 below.

(3) The Scottish Ministers may at any time remove an individual from the list if they are satisfied that the individual should not have been included in it.

2 Reference following disciplinary action etc.

(1) A child care organisation shall, and any other organisation may, refer to the Scottish Ministers the case of an individual who is or has been working in a child care position if—

(a) any of the circumstances mentioned in subsection (2) below; or

(b) the circumstance mentioned in subsection (3) below,

has arisen.

(2) The circumstances referred to in subsection (1)(a) above are—

(a) that the organisation has dismissed the individual on the ground that the individual has (whether or not in the course of the individual’s work) harmed a child or placed a child at risk of harm;

(b) that the individual has resigned, retired or been made redundant in circumstances such that the organisation would have dismissed the individual, or would have considered dismissing the individual, on such ground if the individual had not resigned, retired or been made redundant;
(c) that the organisation has, on such ground, transferred the individual to a position within the organisation which is not a child care position;

(d) that the organisation has, on such ground, provisionally transferred the individual as mentioned in paragraph (c) above, but has not decided whether to dismiss the individual or to confirm the transfer.

Reference by employment agency etc.

(1) Section 2 above (as it applies to an organisation other than a child care organisation) has effect in relation to an organisation which carries on an employment agency or an agency for the supply of nurses as if—

(a) for paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) and the words “has arisen” which follow those paragraphs there were substituted—

“(a) the organisation has decided not to do any further business with the individual on the ground that the individual has (whether or not in the course of the individual’s work) harmed a child or placed a child at risk of harm; or

(b) the organisation has decided on such ground not to find the individual further work, or to offer or supply the individual for further work, in a child care position.”; and

(b) subsections (2) and (3) were omitted.

(2) Section 2 above (as it applies to an organisation other than a child care organisation) has effect in relation to an organisation which carries on an employment business as if—

(a) in subsection (1)—

(i) for “is or has been working” there were substituted “has been offered or supplied by the organisation for work”; and

(ii) paragraph (b) and the word “or” preceding it were omitted;
(b) for paragraphs (c) and (d) of subsection (2) there were substituted—

“(c) that the organisation has, on such ground, decided not to offer or supply the individual for further work in a child care position.”; and

(c) subsection (3) were omitted.

4 Reference by certain other persons

(1) A person to whom this section applies may refer to the Scottish Ministers the case of an individual who is or has been working in a child care position if—

(a) on the basis of evidence obtained by the person in the exercise of relevant functions, the person considers that the individual has (whether or not in the course of the individual’s work and whether before or after this section comes into force) harmed a child or placed a child at risk of harm; and

(b) that case has not been referred to the Scottish Ministers under section 2 above in respect of the act which harmed a child or placed a child at risk of harm.

(2) This section applies to—

(a) the Scottish Commission for the Regulation of Care;

(b) the Scottish Social Services Council; and

(c) any other person specified for the purposes of this section in an order made by the Scottish Ministers.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a) above, “relevant functions” means—

(a) in relation to the Scottish Commission for the Regulation of Care and the Scottish Social Services Council, such functions as are conferred on the Commission or, as the case may be, the Council by the 2001 Act or any other enactment; and

(b) in relation to a person specified in an order made under subsection (2)(c) above, such functions as are specified for the purposes of this section by the order.

5 Inclusion in list following referral under section 2(1) or 4(1)

(1) The Scottish Ministers, on being satisfied as to the matters set out in subsection (2) below in relation to a reference to them under section 2(1) or 4(1) above, shall, subject to subsection (7) below, proceed in accordance with subsections (3) to (6) below.

(2) Those matters are—

(a) that the reference is not vexatious or frivolous; and

(b) that the information submitted to the Scottish Ministers with the reference indicates that it may be appropriate for an individual to be included in the list kept under section 1(1) above.

(3) The Scottish Ministers shall—

(a) invite observations from the individual—

(i) on the information submitted with the reference; and

(ii) if the Scottish Ministers think fit, on any observations made in response to an invitation under paragraph (b) below; and
(b) invite observations from the organisation which, or person who, made the reference—

(i) on any observations made by the individual on the information submitted with the reference; and

(ii) if the Scottish Ministers think fit, on any other observations made in response to an invitation under paragraph (a) above.

(4) The Scottish Ministers, having considered the information submitted with the reference, any observations submitted to them and any other information which they consider relevant, shall—

(a) where they are satisfied as to the matters set out in subsection (5) below, include the individual in the list by—

(i) where the individual is provisionally included under section 7(1) below in the list, amending the list so as to indicate that the individual’s inclusion is no longer provisional; or

(ii) where the individual has been removed under section 7(4) below from the list, restoring the individual to the list; or

(b) where they are not so satisfied, remove or, as the case may be, confirm the removal of the individual from the list.

(5) Those matters are—

(a) that the organisation which, or person who, made the reference reasonably considered the individual to have (whether or not in the course of the individual’s work) harmed a child or placed a child at risk of harm; and

(b) that the individual is unsuitable to work with children.

(6) Where the Scottish Ministers have made a determination under subsection (4)(a) above they shall—

(a) provide the individual in respect of whom the determination is made with notice specifying whether the individual is to be included in the list; and

(b) if they are aware that the individual is working in a child care position for an organisation at the time of the determination, provide the organisation with such notice.

(7) In the case of a reference under section 2(2)(d) above, the Scottish Ministers may not do anything under subsections (3) to (6) above in relation the reference unless the organisation has dismissed the individual or, as the case may be, has confirmed the individual’s transfer on such ground as is there referred to.

(8) The reference in subsection (7) above to the organisation dismissing the individual on such ground as is referred to in section 2(2)(d) above includes—

(a) a reference to the individual resigning, retiring or being made redundant in circumstances such that the organisation would have dismissed the individual, or would have considered dismissing the individual, on such ground if the individual had not resigned, retired or been made redundant; and

(b) a reference to the organisation transferring the individual, on such ground, to a position within the organisation which is not a child care position.
6 Individuals named in the findings of certain inquiries

(1) Where—

(a) a relevant inquiry has been held;
(b) the report of the person who held the inquiry names an individual who is or has been working in a child care position; and
(c) it appears to the Scottish Ministers from the report—

(i) that the person who held the inquiry found that the individual has, at a time when the individual was working in a child care position (whether or not in the course of the individual’s work and whether before or after this section comes into force), harmed a child or placed a child at risk of harm; and

(ii) that the individual is unsuitable to work with children,

the Scottish Ministers may proceed in accordance with subsections (2) to (4) below in order to determine whether the individual should be included in the list kept under section 1(1) above.

(i) on the report, so far as relating to the individual; and

(ii) if the Scottish Ministers think fit, on any observations submitted under paragraph (b) below; and

(b) invite observations from the person for whom the individual, at the time of the act or omission which gave rise to the finding that the individual harmed a child or placed a child at risk of harm, worked—

(i) on any observations made by the individual on the report; and

(ii) if the Scottish Ministers think fit, on any other observations made in response to the invitation under paragraph (a) above.

(3) The Scottish Ministers, having considered the report, any observations submitted to them and any other information which they consider relevant, shall—

(a) where they are satisfied as to the matters set out in subsection (4) below, include the individual in the list by—

(i) where the individual is provisionally included under section 7(1) below in the list, amending the list so as to indicate that the individual’s inclusion is no longer provisional; or

(ii) where the individual has been removed under section 7(4) below from the list, restoring the individual to the list; or

(b) where they are not so satisfied, remove or, as the case may be, confirm the removal of the individual from the list.

(4) Those matters are—

(a) that the person who held the inquiry reasonably considered that the individual has, at a time when the individual was working in a child care position (whether or not in the course of the individual’s work), harmed a child or placed a child at risk of harm; and

(b) that the individual is unsuitable to work with children.
Protection of Children (Scotland) Bill

(1) Where the Scottish Ministers—

(a) are to determine, under section 5(4) above, a reference under section 2(1) or 4(1) above; or

(b) decide to make a determination under section 6 above,

they shall provisionally include the individual in respect of whom the determination is to be made in the list kept under section 1(1) above.

(2) The list shall indicate whether an individual’s inclusion in it is provisional upon such a determination.

(3) The Scottish Ministers shall—

(a) provide an individual who is provisionally included in the list with notice of that fact; and

(b) if they are aware that the individual is working in a child care position for an organisation at the time when the individual is provisionally included in the list, provide the organisation with such notice.

(4) If the Scottish Ministers have not made a determination under section 5 or 6 above within the relevant period they shall remove the individual from the list pending their determination.

(5) The “relevant period” is—

(3) Where an individual convicted of an offence against a child was 18 years of age or over when the offence was committed, the court shall not propose to refer the case if it is satisfied that the individual is unlikely to commit a further offence against a child.

(4) The court shall, subject to subsection (5) below, make the proposed reference to the Scottish Ministers.

(5) The court shall not make the proposed reference unless—

(a) the time limit for applications for leave to appeal against the proposed reference expires without leave being granted; or
