<Consultation by Ministers>

(1) Subsection (2) applies in relation to the exercise by the Scottish Ministers of their functions under Parts 2 and 3 or arising by virtue of Part 4.

(2) Where (and to the extent that) the Scottish Ministers consider it appropriate to do so in the case of an individual function, they must consult such persons or bodies as appear to them to have a significant interest in the particular subject-matter to which the exercise of the function relates.

(3) The general requirement to consult under subsection (2) has effect in conjunction with, or in the absence of, any particular consultation requirement to which the Scottish Ministers are subject in a specific (and relevant) context.>
Before section 5

Bill Butler

227 Before section 5, insert—

Licensed legal services providers

(1) For the purposes of this Part, a licensed legal services provider (a “licensed provider”) is a firm of solicitors or an incorporated practice which—

(a) is owned and managed to the extent of not more than 25% by a non-solicitor investor, but is otherwise owned and managed by legal professionals,

(b) provides (or offers to provide) legal services—

(i) to the general public or otherwise, and

(ii) for a fee, gain or reward, and

(c) does so under a licence issued by the Law Society in accordance with rules made by the Law Society under section 34 of the 1980 Act.

(2) In this Part—

a “non-solicitor investor” is an investor who is not entitled to practise—

(i) as a solicitor,

(ii) in England and Wales or Northern Ireland, as a solicitor (outwith the meaning for this Act), or

(iii) as a registered European lawyer,

“investor” is any person who has—

(i) ownership or control of the licensed provider, or

(ii) any other material interest in it,

“legal professional” means—

(i) a solicitor,

(ii) a firm of solicitors which is not a licensed provider, and

(iii) an incorporated practice which is not a licensed provider.>

Bill Butler

228 Before section 5, insert—

Pretending to be licensed

(1) A person commits an offence if the person—

(a) pretends to be a licensed provider or a licensed employment law services provider (or otherwise pretends to have the right to provide legal services or employment law services under this Part), or
(b) takes or uses any name, title, addition or description implying falsely that the person is a licensed provider or a licensed employment law services provider (or otherwise implying that the person has the right to provide legal services or employment law services under this Part).

(2) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.>

Bill Butler

229 Before section 5, insert—

<Consequential and ancillary amendments to the 1980 Act

(1) The 1980 Act is amended as follows.

(2) In section 34 (rules as to professional practice, conduct and discipline)—

(a) in subsection (1), after “practices” insert “and licensed legal services providers”, and

(b) in subsection (1B), after paragraph (b) insert—

“(c) prescribe the circumstances in which a licensed legal services provider may be licensed by the Council as being suitable to undertake the provision of any legal services;

(d) make provision as to persons who are suitable to be non-solicitor investors in a licensed legal services provider and as to the requirements to which they are subject;

(e) prescribe the conditions which (subject to any exceptions provided by the rules) must at all times be satisfied by licensed legal services providers if they are to remain so licensed;

(f) without prejudice to that generality, make it a condition on the licensed legal service provider that any reserved legal services provided by, or on behalf of, that provider are provided, or provided on behalf of that provider, only by a person or body entitled to do so under section 32;

(g) regulate the conduct of the affairs of licensed legal services providers; and

(h) make provision for—

(i) the manner and form in which applications for a licence under this section are to be made;

(ii) the payment of fees in connection with such applications;

(iii) the regulation of the names that may be used by licensed legal services providers;

(iv) the period within which any licence granted under this section shall (subject to the provisions of this Act) remain in force;

(v) the revocation of any such licence on the grounds that it was granted as a result of any error or fraud;
(vi) the keeping by the Society of a list containing the names and places of business of all licensed legal services providers and for the information contained in any such list to be available for inspection;

(vii) any enactment relating to solicitors (including this Act) and any rules made under such an enactment to have effect in relation to licensed legal services providers with such additions, omissions or other modifications as appear to the Council to be necessary or expedient;

(viii) the empowering of the Council to take such steps as they consider necessary or expedient to ascertain whether or not any rules applicable to licensed legal services providers by virtue of this section are being complied with.”

(3) In section 43 (guarantee fund)—

(a) in subsection (2), after paragraph (b) insert—

“(c) any licensed legal services provider, or any director, partner, manager, secretary or other employee of such a provider, notwithstanding that subsequent to the commission of that act, it may have ceased to be licensed under subsection (1B)(c) or have been wound up or had its estates sequestrated.”

(b) in subsection (3), after paragraph (cc) insert—

“(cca) to a legal services provider or any director, partner or member of it in respect of any loss suffered by it or him by reason of dishonesty on the part of any director, partner, manager, secretary or other employee of the provider;”.

(4) In section 44 (professional indemnity), after any reference to “incorporated practices” or “incorporated practice” (wherever it appears) insert “licensed legal services providers” or, as the case may be, “licensed legal services provider”.

(5) In section 65(1) (interpretation), insert the following definitions in the appropriate places—

“the 2010 Act” means the Legal Services (Scotland) Act 2010 (asp 00);
“investor” and “non-solicitor investor” have the same meaning as in Part 2 of the 2010 Act;
“licensed legal services provider” or “licensed provider” have the same meaning as in Part 2 of the 2010 Act; and “reserved legal services” means the drawing or preparation of the documents mentioned in section 32(1)”.

Richard Baker

230 Before section 5, insert—

<Employment law services providers

(1) For the purposes of this Part, a licensed employment law services provider is a person or body (whether corporate or incorporate) who—

(a) provides (or offers to provide) employment law services—
(i) to the general public or otherwise, and
(ii) for a fee, gain or reward, and
(b) does so under a licence issued by the Society in accordance with the rules made by the Society under section 34 of the 1980 Act.

(2) For the purposes of this Part, employment law services are services which consist of or include those of offering advice or representation or both advice and representation in relation to matters of employment law.

(3) An employment law services provider does not include—
(a) a solicitor,
(b) a firm of solicitors or any partner of, or person employed within, such a firm,
(c) an incorporated practice or any director of, or person employed within, such a practice, and
(d) a licensed legal services provider or any director or partner of, or person employed within, such a provider.

(4) In subsection (1)(a)(ii) the expression “fee, gain or reward” does not include any money or income generated from general membership fees of Trade Unions.

Richard Baker

231 Before section 5, insert—

<\textit{Pretending to be licensed}\>

(1) A person commits an offence if the person—
(a) pretends to be a licensed employment law services provider (or otherwise pretends to have the right to provide employment law services under this Part), or (b) takes or uses any name, title, addition or description implying that the person is an employment law services provider (or otherwise implying that the person has the right to provide employment law services under this Part).

(2) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.

Richard Baker

232* Before section 5, insert—

<\textit{Consequential and ancillary amendments to the 1980 Act}\>

(1) The 1980 Act is amended as follows.

(2) Section 34 (rules as to professional practice, conduct and discipline)—
(a) in subsection (1), after “practices” insert “and licensed employment law services providers”, and
(b) in subsection (1B), after paragraph (b) insert—

“(i) prescribe the circumstances in which a licensed employment law services provider may be licensed by the Council as being suitable to undertake the provision of employment law services;
(j) prescribe the conditions which (subject to any exceptions provided by the rules) must at all times be satisfied by licensed employment law services providers if they are to remain so licensed;

(k) regulate the conduct of the affairs of licensed employment law services providers; and

(l) make provision for—

(i) the manner and form in which applications for a licence under this section are to be made;

(ii) the payment of fees in connection with such applications;

(iii) the regulation of the names that may be used by licensed employment law services providers;

(iv) the period within which any licence granted under this section shall (subject to the provisions of this Act) remain in force;

(v) the revocation of any such licence on the grounds that it was granted as a result of any error or fraud;

(vi) the keeping by the Society of a list containing the names and places of business of all licensed employment law services providers and for the information contained in any such list to be available for inspection;

(vii) any enactment relating to solicitors (including this Act) and any rules made under such an enactment to have effect in relation to licensed employment law services providers with such additions, omissions or other modifications as appear to the Council to be necessary or expedient;

(viii) the empowering of the Council to take such steps as it considers necessary or expedient to ascertain whether or not any rules applicable to licensed employment law services providers by virtue of this section are being complied with.”

(3) In section 43 (guarantee fund)—

(a) in subsection (2), after paragraph (b) insert—

“(d) any licensed employment law services providers, or any director, partner, manager, secretary or other employee of such a provider, notwithstanding that subsequent to the commission of that act, it may have ceased to be licensed under subsection (1B)(i) or have been wound up or had its estates sequestrated.”

(b) in subsection (3), after paragraph (cc) insert—

“(ccb) to a licensed employment law services provider or any director, partner or member of it in respect of any loss suffered by it or him by reason of dishonesty on the part of any director, partner, manager, secretary or other employee of the provider;”.

(4) In section 44 (professional indemnity), after any reference to “incorporated practices” or “incorporated practice” (wherever it appears) insert “licensed employment law services providers” or, as the case may be, “licensed employment law services provider”.

(5) In section 65(1) (interpretation), insert the following definitions in the appropriate places—
“the 2010 Act” means the Legal Services (Scotland) Act 2010 (asp 00);
“investor” and “non-solicitor investor” have the same meaning as in Part 2 of the 2010 Act;
“licensed employment law services provider” or “licensed provider” have the same meaning as in Part 2 of the 2010 Act; and
“reserved legal services” means the drawing or preparation of the documents mentioned in section 32(1).”

After section 6

Fergus Ewing
13 After section 6, insert—

<Pre-approval consideration>
(1) Before deciding whether or not to approve the applicant as an approved regulator under section 6, the Scottish Ministers must consult—
(a) the Lord President,
(b) the OFT, and such other organisation (appearing to them to represent the interests of consumers in Scotland) as they consider appropriate,
(c) such other person or body as they consider appropriate.
(2) In consulting under subsection (1), the Scottish Ministers—
(a) must send a copy of the application to the consultees,
(b) may send a copy of any revised application to any (or all) of them.

(3) The Scottish Ministers must, with reasons, notify the applicant if they intend to—
(a) refuse to approve it as an approved regulator, or
(b) impose conditions under section 6(2).

(4) If notification is given to the applicant under subsection (3), it has 28 days beginning with the date of the notification (or such longer period as the Scottish Ministers may allow) to—
(a) make representations to the Scottish Ministers,
(b) take such steps as it may consider expedient.

Fergus Ewing
14 After section 6, insert—

<Lord President’s agreement

(1) Despite section 6(1), the Scottish Ministers must not approve the applicant as an approved regulator unless the Lord President agrees to its being approved as such.

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1), that agreement may be withheld only if the Lord President is not satisfied that the applicant has the expertise mentioned in section 6(1)(a)(i).

Choice of arrangements

(1) An approved regulator must proceed with either option A or option B as regards a fund (a compensation fund) for making good such relevant losses as may be suffered by reason of dishonesty on the part of its licensed legal services providers.

(2) Option A is for the approved regulator to maintain a compensation fund (of its own) in relation to its licensed providers.

(3) If option A is proceeded with, the compensation fund is to be—

(a) held by the approved regulator for such purpose as corresponds to the purpose for which the Guarantee Fund is held under section 43(2)(c) of the 1980 Act in relation to licensed providers,

(b) administered by it in such way as corresponds to the administration of the Guarantee Fund in accordance with section 43(3) to (7) of, and Part I of Schedule 3 to, the 1980 Act (so far as applicable in relation to licensed providers).

(4) Option B is for the approved regulator, by not maintaining a compensation fund as mentioned in option A, to cause the Guarantee Fund to be administered as respects its licensed providers.

(5) For the purpose of option B, see section 43(2)(c) to (8) of, and Part I of Schedule 3 to, the 1980 Act.
(6) As soon as it has decided which of options A and B to proceed with, the approved regulator must inform the Law Society of its decision.

Fergus Ewing

171 After section 19, insert—

<Compensation rules: general>

(1) For the purposes of this Part, the compensation rules are rules in pursuance of (as the case may be)—

(a) option A in section (Choice of arrangements), or

(b) option B in that section.

(2) In pursuance of option A, the rules must—

(a) state—

(i) the purpose of the approved regulator’s compensation fund,

(ii) as a minimum, the monetary amount to be contained in that fund,

(b) describe the way in which that fund is to be administered by the approved regulator,

(c) specify the criteria for qualifying for payment out of that fund,

(d) provide for the procedure for—

(i) making claims for such payment,

(ii) determining such claims,

(e) require the making of contributions to that fund by a licensed provider in accordance with the relevant scale of annual contributions fixed by virtue of section (Choice of arrangements)(3)(b),

(f) make provision for the destination (or distribution) of that fund in the event that the approved regulator ceases to operate.

(3) In pursuance of option B, the rules must require the making of contributions to the Guarantee Fund by a licensed provider in accordance with the relevant scale of annual contributions fixed under paragraph 1(3) of Schedule 3 to the 1980 Act.

Robert Brown

171A As an amendment to amendment 171, line 24, at end insert <but only if these have been approved by the Council of the Law Society after a report confirming the fairness of the arrangements has been obtained from an independent actuary.>

Fergus Ewing

172 After section 19, insert—

<More about compensation rules>

(1) Compensation rules may include such further compensation arrangements as to licensed providers for which provision is (in the approved regulator’s opinion) necessary or expedient.
(2) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make further provision about compensation arrangements as to licensed providers, including (in particular)—
   (a) for the content of compensation rules,
   (b) in connection with a compensation fund, for functions of approved regulators and licensed providers,
   (c) so far as concerning the relevant scale of annual contributions to the Guarantee Fund referred to in paragraph 1(3) of Schedule 3 to the 1980 Act, for functions of the Law Society.

(3) In sections (Choice of arrangements) and (Compensation rules: general) and this section, a reference to the Guarantee Fund is to the Scottish Solicitors Guarantee Fund (which is vested in the Law Society under section 43(1) of the 1980 Act).>

268 After section 19, insert—

<Compensation

Practice rules must—

(a) require licensed providers to keep in place sufficient arrangements for compensating persons who, in the opinion of the approved regulator, suffer pecuniary loss by reason of dishonesty on the part of that provider in providing legal services,

(b) include provision for ensuring that such persons may be compensated even although the licensed provider no longer provides such services or is no longer in existence.>

(3) The complaints levy arises as respects an approved regulator where—
   (a) the Scottish Ministers delegate to the Commission their function under section 64(1) in relation to a complaint made about the approved regulator, and
   (b) the Commission upholds the complaint.
(4) Before determining for a financial year the amount of the annual levy or complaints levy, the Commission must consult—
   (a) each approved regulator (with particular reference to the proposed amount to be payable by it),
   (b) the Scottish Ministers.>

   (b) provided (or offered)—
       (i) to members of the public, and
       (ii) for a fee, gain or reward.

(2) The services are those of drawing or preparing wills or other testamentary writings.

(3) For the purposes of this Part, a will writer is a person on whom, in accordance with an approving body’s regulatory scheme, the right to provide will writing services is conferred.

Fergus Ewing

185 After section 81, insert—

<Approving bodies>

(1) For the purposes of this Chapter, an approving body is a professional or other body which is certified as such by the Scottish Ministers under section (Certification of bodies).

(2) That is, following an application to them by the body under subsection (3).

(3) An application to become an approving body must include—
   (a) a copy of the applicant’s proposed regulatory scheme (see section (Certification of bodies)(1)(b)),
   (b) a description of—
       (i) the applicant’s constitution and composition (including internal structure),
       (ii) its activities.

(4) The applicant—
   (a) must provide the Scottish Ministers with such other information as they may reasonably require for their consideration of its application,
   (b) may withdraw its application at any time by giving them written notice to that effect.

(5) There is no restriction on the number of approving bodies that may exist at any time.

(6) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations prescribe fees that they may charge an applicant to become an approving body.
<Certification of bodies

(1) The Scottish Ministers may certify the applicant as an approving body if they are satisfied that—
   (a) the applicant is suitable to be an approving body,
   (b) the applicant’s proposed regulatory scheme is adequate (as determined with particular reference to section (Regulatory schemes)).

(2) The Scottish Ministers may certify the applicant as an approving body—
   (a) either—
      (i) without limit of time, or
      (ii) for a fixed period,
   (b) with reference to a specified date from which the approving body may exercise its functions in relation to its regulatory scheme,
   (c) subject to conditions (any of which may be removed or varied by the Scottish Ministers after consulting the approving body).

(3) Before deciding whether or not to certify the applicant as an approving body, the Scottish Ministers must consult—
   (a) the OFT, and such other organisation (appearing to them to represent the interests of consumers in Scotland) as they consider appropriate,
   (b) such other person or body as they consider appropriate.

(4) In consulting under subsection (3), the Scottish Ministers—
   (a) must send a copy of the application to the OFT,
   (b) may send—
      (i) to any other consultee, a copy of the application,
      (ii) to the OFT or any other consultee, a copy of any revised application.

(5) The Scottish Ministers must, with reasons, notify the applicant if they intend to—
   (a) refuse to certify it as an approving body, or
   (b) certify it as such subject to conditions.

(6) If notification is given to the applicant under subsection (5), it has 28 days beginning with the date of the notification (or such longer period as the Scottish Ministers may allow) to—
   (a) make representations to the Scottish Ministers,
   (b) take such steps as it may consider expedient.

(7) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make further provision about certification under this section, including (in particular)—
   (a) the process for seeking their certification,
   (b) in relation to capability to act as an approving body, the criteria for their certification (including things that applicants must be able to demonstrate).>

Fergus Ewing

187 After section 81, insert—
<Regulatory schemes

(1) An approving body must—

(a) make a regulatory scheme for—

(i) conferring on any of the individual persons within its membership the right to provide will writing services, and

(ii) regulating the provision of will writing services by the persons on whom (in accordance with the scheme) that right is conferred, and

(b) apply the scheme in relation to them.

(2) The regulatory scheme is to—

(a) describe the training requirements to be met by a prospective will writer,

(b) incorporate a code of practice to which a will writer (and anyone acting on behalf of the will writer in relation to will writing services) is subject,

(c) require that a will writer keep in place sufficient arrangements for professional indemnity,

(d) include rules about—

(i) the making and handling of any complaint about a will writer,

(ii) the measures that may be taken by the approving body, in relation to a will writer, if a conduct complaint (as construed by reference to section 2(1)(a) of the 2007 Act (and as if the will writer were a practitioner to whom that section relates)) about the will writer is upheld,

(e) allow a will writer to make representations to the approving body before it takes any of the measures available to it by virtue of paragraph (d)(ii),

(f) cover such other regulatory matters as the Scottish Ministers may by regulations specify (and in such manner as they may so specify).

(3) The code of practice mentioned in subsection (2)(b) must—

(a) set out the standards to be met by will writers (and persons acting on their behalf in relation to will writing services),

(b) except in such circumstances as the approving body considers appropriate, prohibit the drawing or preparation of a will or other testamentary writing by a will writer which provides for the writer to be a beneficiary,

(c) require a will writer who provides the service of storing wills or other testamentary writings to keep in place sufficient arrangements for the storage of such documents (including arrangements in the event of the writer ceasing to provide will writing services),

(d) make such further arrangements as to the professional practice, conduct or discipline of will writers for which provision is (in the approving body’s opinion) necessary or expedient,

(e) provide that it is a breach of the code of practice for a will writer to fail to comply with the writer’s duties under any enactment specified in the code,

(f) provide that a breach of the code of practice by a person acting on behalf of a will writer in relation to will writing services constitutes a breach of the code of practice by the writer,
(g) allow for—

(i) the rescission or suspension of, or attaching of conditions to the exercise of, the right of a will writer to provide will writing services if the writer contravenes the code of practice,

(ii) the suspension of that right of a will writer if a complaint, suggesting that the writer is guilty of professional misconduct in relation to the provision of will writing services, is made about the writer.

(4) A will writer may appeal against a decision taken under the regulatory scheme to rescind or suspend, or attach conditions to the exercise of, the writer’s right to provide will writing services—

(a) to the sheriff,

(b) within the period of 3 months beginning with the date on which that decision is intimated to the writer.

(5) An approving body must, so far as practicable when exercising its functions under this Chapter, observe the regulatory objectives.

Fergus Ewing

188 After section 81, insert—

<Financial sanctions

(1) Rules included in a regulatory scheme in pursuance of section (Regulatory schemes)(2)(d)(ii) may provide for the imposition of a financial penalty.

(2) A financial penalty provided for by virtue of subsection (1) must not exceed the maximum amount permitted by the Scottish Ministers when giving their certification under section (Certification of bodies).

(3) A financial penalty imposed by virtue of this section is payable to the Scottish Ministers (but the approving body may collect it on their behalf).

(4) A will writer may appeal against a financial penalty (or the amount of a financial penalty) imposed on the writer by virtue of this section—

(a) to the sheriff,

(b) within the period of 3 months beginning with the date on which the penalty is intimated to the writer.

(5) Where an appeal is made under subsection (4), no part of the penalty requires to be paid before the appeal is determined or withdrawn.

Fergus Ewing

189 After section 81, insert—

<Review of own performance

(1) An approving body must review annually its performance.

(2) In particular, a review is to cover the following matters—

(a) the approving body’s compliance with section (Regulatory schemes)(5),

(b) the exercise of its functions in relation to its regulatory scheme,
(c) its compliance with any measures applying to it by virtue of section (Ministerial intervention)(3).

(3) The approving body must send a report on the review to the Scottish Ministers.

(4) The report must contain a copy of the approving body’s annual accounts (but only so far as they are relevant in connection with its functions under this Chapter).

(5) The Scottish Ministers must lay a copy of the report before the Scottish Parliament.

(6) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make further provision about—
   (a) the review of approved bodies’ performance,
   (b) reports on reviews of their performance.

Fergus Ewing

190 After section 81, insert—

Pretending to be authorised

(1) A person commits an offence if the person—
   (a) pretends to be a will writer (or otherwise pretends to have the right to provide will writing services under this Part), or
   (b) takes or uses any name, title, addition or description implying falsely that the person is a will writer (or otherwise so implying that the person has the right to provide will writing services under this Part).

(2) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.

Fergus Ewing

191 After section 81, insert—

Other regulatory matters

Revocation of certification

(1) Subsection (2) applies where the Scottish Ministers are satisfied that an approving body has failed to comply with a direction under section (Ministerial intervention)(3).

(2) The Scottish Ministers may—
   (a) revoke the certification given to the approving body under section (Certification of bodies),
   (b) require the approving body to take specified action (or refrain from doing something) if they consider that to be necessary or expedient in connection with the revocation.

(3) The revocation under subsection (2) of the certification of an approving body has the effect, from the date on which the revocation becomes effective, of rescinding the right of each of its will writers to provide will writing services (so far as that right is conferred by the approving body in question).

Fergus Ewing

192 After section 81, insert—
<Surrender of certification>

(1) An approving body may, with the prior agreement of the Scottish Ministers, surrender the certification given to it under section (Certification of bodies).

(2) The approving body must—
   (a) take all reasonable steps to mitigate such disruption to the clients of its will writers as is likely to result from the surrender,
   (b) in particular, take steps for ensuring that any relevant work is—
      (i) completed, or
      (ii) taken over by a suitably qualified person,
   before the date from which subsection (5) is operative.

(3) The Scottish Ministers may direct the approving body to take specified action (or refrain from doing something) if they consider that to be necessary or expedient—
   (a) for the purpose of subsection (2), or
   (b) otherwise in connection with the surrender.

(4) Before the Scottish Ministers may agree to the surrender, they must be satisfied that the approving body has complied (or will comply) with—
   (a) subsection (2), and
   (b) any direction given to it under subsection (3).

(5) The surrender of an approving body’s certification under subsection (1) has, from the date on which the surrender becomes effective, the effect of extinguishing the right of each of its will writers to provide will writing services (so far as that right is conferred by the approving body in question).

Fergus Ewing

193 After section 81, insert—

<Register and list>

(1) The Scottish Ministers—
   (a) must keep and publish a register of approving bodies,
   (b) may do so in such manner as they consider appropriate.

(2) The register is to include the following information in relation to each approving body—
   (a) its contact details (including its address, website and telephone number),
   (b) the date on which it was given the relevant certification under section (Certification of bodies).

(3) An approving body must—
   (a) keep a list of its will writers,
   (b) give the Scottish Ministers a copy of the list whenever they request it.

(4) An approving body must give the Scottish Ministers such information about its will writers as the Scottish Ministers may reasonably request.>
Fergus Ewing

194 After section 81, insert—

Ministerial intervention

(1) An approving body must—
   (a) provide such information about its performance in relation to its regulatory scheme as the Scottish Ministers may reasonably request,
   (b) do so within 21 days beginning with the date of the request (or such longer period as the Scottish Ministers may allow).

(2) An approving body—
   (a) if directed to do so by the Scottish Ministers, must—
      (i) review its regulatory scheme (or any relevant part of it), and
      (ii) report to them its findings and (if appropriate) inform them of any proposed amendments to the scheme,
   (b) may amend its regulatory scheme so as to give effect to the proposed amendment, but—
      (i) any material amendment is invalid unless it has the prior approval of the Scottish Ministers,
      (ii) the Scottish Ministers may not give their approval before they have consulted such person or body as they consider appropriate.

(3) The Scottish Ministers may—
   (a) if, after consulting such person or body as they consider appropriate, they consider that an approving body’s regulatory scheme is not (or is no longer) adequate, direct the approving body to amend the regulatory scheme in such manner as they may specify,
   (b) if they are satisfied that an approving body has not complied with a requirement imposed on it by or under this Chapter, direct the approving body to take specified remedial action (or refrain from doing something).

(4) An approving body must—
   (a) review annually the performance of its will writers,
   (b) prepare a report on the review,
   (c) send a copy of the report to the Scottish Ministers.

(5) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make further provision—
   (a) about the review of will writers,
   (b) so far as it appears to them to be necessary for safeguarding the interests of clients of will writers—
      (i) concerning the functions of approving bodies,
      (ii) relating to will writers.>
Step-in by Ministers

(1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make provision which establishes a body with a view to its becoming an approving body.

(2) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make provision which allows them to act as an approving body in such circumstances as the regulations may prescribe.

(3) Regulations under subsection (2) may provide for this Chapter to apply with or subject to such modifications as the regulations may specify.

(4) No regulations are to be made under subsection (1) or (2) unless the Scottish Ministers believe that their intervention under this section is necessary, as a last resort, in order to ensure that the provision of will writing services by will writers is regulated effectively.
