Lobbying (Scotland) Bill

[AS INTRODUCED]

An Act of the Scottish Parliament to make provision about lobbying, including provision for establishing and maintaining a lobbying register and the publication of a code of conduct.

PART 1

CORE CONCEPTS

- 5 1 Regulated lobbying
- (1) For the purposes of this Act, a person engages in regulated lobbying if—
- (a) the person makes a communication which—
- (i) is made orally and in person to a member of the Scottish Parliament, a member of the Scottish Government or a junior Scottish Minister,
- 10 (ii) is made in relation to Government or parliamentary functions, and
- (iii) is not a communication of a kind mentioned in the schedule, or
- (b) in the course of a business or other activity carried on by the person, an individual makes such a communication as an employee, director (including shadow director), partner or member of the person.
- 15 (2) Where a person engages in regulated lobbying by virtue of paragraph (b) of subsection (1), the individual mentioned in that paragraph is not to be regarded as engaging in regulated lobbying.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1), it does not matter whether the communication occurs in or outwith Scotland.
- 20 2 Government or parliamentary functions
- (1) Government or parliamentary functions are—
- (a) the development, adoption or modification of any proposal to make or amend primary legislation in the Parliament,
- (b) the development, adoption or modification of any proposal to make a Scottish
- 25 statutory instrument,
- (c) the development, adoption or modification of any policy of the Scottish Ministers or other office-holder in the Scottish Administration,

(d) the making, giving or issuing by the Scottish Ministers or other office-holder in the Scottish Administration of, or the taking of any other steps by the Scottish Ministers or office-holder in relation to—

- (i) any contract or other agreement,
- (ii) any grant or other financial assistance, or
- (iii) any licence or other authorisation,

(e) speaking, lodging a motion, voting or taking any other step in relation to a matter raised in proceedings of the Parliament,

(f) representing as a member of the Parliament the interests of persons other than in proceedings of the Parliament,

(g) any other function of—

- (i) the Scottish Ministers,
- (ii) an office-holder in the Scottish Administration other than the Scottish Ministers, or
- (iii) a member of the Parliament.

(2) But the retained functions of the Lord Advocate (within the meaning of section 52(6) of the Scotland Act 1998) are not Government or parliamentary functions for the purposes of this Act.

PART 2

THE LOBBYING REGISTER

The register

3 Lobbying register

(1) The Clerk must establish and maintain a lobbying register (the “register”), containing information about active registrants, inactive registrants and voluntary registrants.

(2) The Clerk must publish, by such means as the Clerk considers appropriate, the information about active registrants which is contained in the register.

(3) But the Clerk may withhold from publication information relating to an individual if the Clerk considers that it would be inappropriate to make that information publicly available.

(4) The Clerk may publish, by such means as the Clerk considers appropriate, such information as the Clerk considers appropriate about—

- (a) inactive registrants, and
- (b) voluntary registrants.

(5) In exercising functions under this Part, the Clerk must have regard to the parliamentary guidance (see section 43).

(6) In this Part—

“active registrant” means a person entered in the register under section 10,

“inactive registrant” means a person entered in the register as an inactive registrant under section 12 or 13,

“voluntary registrant” means a person entered in the register as a voluntary registrant under section 14.

4 Content of register

7 Additional information

The additional information provided by the registrant is—

- (10) In dismissing a complaint, the Commissioner must inform the individual who made the complaint and the person who is the subject of the complaint of the dismissal together with the reasons why the complaint is inadmissible.
- 35 (11) Subsections (2), (8) and (10) apply only to the extent that they are capable of applying where—
