<( ) In section 24, after subsection (2), insert—

“(2A) Regulations under subsection (2) may not make provision which would result in the rates payable in respect of lands and heritages which are being structurally repaired, improved or reconstructed being the rates mentioned in subsection (3) at any time during which the lands and heritages are incapable of occupation due to such repair, improvement or reconstruction.”>.

Anne McTaggart

16* In section 1, page 1, line 12, after <90%> insert <(or, in relation to lands and heritages the rates in respect of which are payable by a local authority or health board, 50%)>

Margaret Mitchell

11 In section 1, page 1, line 13, at end insert—

<( ) In section 24, after subsection (3), insert—

“(3A) The Scottish Ministers may not exercise their power under subsection (3) to prescribe a percentage above 50% except in relation to lands and heritages (which fall within a class prescribed by regulations under subsection (2)) which have been wilfully left unoccupied for a period exceeding 10 years.

(3B) If, by virtue of subsections (3) and (3A), a percentage above 50% has been prescribed, the following factors are to be taken into account in determining whether particular lands and heritages are to be regarded as having been wilfully left unoccupied—

(a) how often the lands and heritages have been advertised for sale or let;

(b) how often offers to buy or let the lands and heritages have been made and the reasons why such offers have not resulted in the lands and heritages being occupied;
(c) the state of repair of the lands and heritages; and

(d) any other steps taken by the person entitled to possession of the lands and heritages to encourage occupation of the lands and heritages.”.>

John Pentland

Margaret Mitchell

12 In section 1, page 1, line 13, at end insert—

<( ) In section 24, after subsection (5), insert—

“(6) Any regulations under subsection (2) which—

(a) provide for the rates payable in respect of retail lands and heritages at any time to be the rates mentioned in subsection (3); but

(b) do not so provide in relation to industrial lands and heritages, must be accompanied when laid before the Scottish Parliament by an explanation for this difference in treatment.”.>

John Pentland

<( ) In section 24A—

(a) in subsection (6), at the beginning insert “Subject to subsection (7),”,

<( ) After section 24A insert—

“24AA Consultation on certain regulations

Before making the first regulations under each of section 24(3) or 24A(4)(b), the Scottish Ministers must—

(a) consult—
(i) such persons as appear to them to be representative of the interests of persons likely to be affected by the proposed regulations about the likely impact on those interests of the proposed regulations being made, and

(ii) such other persons (if any) as they consider appropriate, and

(b) lay before the Scottish Parliament a report summarising the outcome of that consultation.”.

Derek Mackay

“( ) In section 24B (certain lands and heritages to be treated as unoccupied), after subsection (2) insert—

“(3) The Scottish Ministers may provide by regulations that lands and heritages falling within a class prescribed by the regulations are to continue to be treated as unoccupied, for the purposes of section 24 (apart from subsection (4) of that section), for such period after becoming occupied as the regulations specify.

(4) Regulations under subsection (3) are subject to the negative procedure.”.

Margaret Mitchell
13 In section 2, page 2, line 5, at end insert—
   <( ) After subsection (1) insert—
       “(1A) The Scottish Ministers may not exercise their power under subsection (1) to increase the amount of council tax payable in respect of a chargeable dwelling and any day above the amount that would be payable if, on that day, there was a resident of the dwelling except in relation to dwellings which have been wilfully left unoccupied for a period exceeding 10 years.”.

Anne McTaggart
21 In section 2, page 2, line 5, at end insert—
   <( ) After subsection (1) insert—
       “(1A) A variation provided under subsection (1) may not increase the amount of council tax payable in respect of a chargeable dwelling and a day by more than half of the amount calculated in respect of the dwelling and the day in accordance with section 78 of the Local Government Finance Act 1992 (basic amounts payable).”.

Margaret Mitchell
22 In section 2, page 2, line 5, at end insert—
   <( ) After subsection (2) insert—
       “(2A) Regulations under subsection (1) may not provide (or allow provision to be made by local authorities) for unoccupied dwellings owned by a local authority or a registered social landlord to be treated more favourably than other unoccupied dwellings solely on the ground of that ownership.”.

Derek Mackay

Margaret Mitchell

14 In section 2, page 2, line 8, at end insert—

< ( ) Afters subsection (4) insert—

“(4A) A power conferred under subsection (2)(b)(ii) may not permit local authorities to modify regulations under this section so as to increase the amount of council tax payable in respect of a chargeable dwelling and any day above the amount that would be payable if, on that day, there was a resident of the dwelling except in relation to dwellings which have been wilfully left unoccupied for a period exceeding 10 years.

(4B) If, by virtue of subsection (1) and either subsection (1A) or (2)(b)(ii) (read with subsection (4A)), the council tax payable in respect of a chargeable dwelling in an area and any day is permitted to be higher than the amount that would be payable if, on that day, there was a resident of the dwelling, the following factors are to be taken into account in determining whether particular dwellings in that area are to be regarded as having been wilfully left unoccupied—

(a) how often the dwelling has been advertised for sale or let;

(b) how often offers to buy or let the dwelling have been made and the reasons why such offers have not resulted in the dwelling being occupied;

(c) the state of repair of the dwelling; and

(d) any other steps taken by the owner of the dwelling to encourage occupation of the lands and heritages.”.
