Duty on Health Boards and Mental Welfare Commission to review certain criminal behaviour by mentally disordered persons

(1) The Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995 is amended as follows.

(2) After section 63 (appeal by prosecutor in case involving insanity), there is inserted—

“Duty on Health Boards and Mental Welfare Commission to review certain criminal behaviour by mentally disordered persons

63A Duty on Health Boards and Mental Welfare Commission to review certain criminal behaviour by mentally disordered persons

(1) Subsection (2) applies where a person—

(a) is charged with a relevant offence, and

(b) has prior to being charged with that relevant offence been—

(i) in receipt of care and treatment from a health board under the Mental Health (Treatment and Care) (Scotland) Act 2003 (“the 2003 Act”), or

(ii) referred to a Health Board for care and treatment under the 2003 Act.

(2) As soon as practicable after the person is charged with a relevant offence, the procurator fiscal must, where it appears to the procurator fiscal that the person meets the conditions specified in subsection (1), notify—

(a) the Health Board—

(i) which provided care and treatment to the mentally disordered person under the 2003 Act, or

(ii) to which the mentally disordered person was referred for care and treatment under the 2003 Act, and

(b) the Mental Welfare Commission, that the mentally disordered person has been charged with a relevant offence.

(3) A Health Board which has been notified under subsection (2) must—

(a) undertake an inquiry into the mentally disordered person’s interaction with the Health Board,

(b) prepare and publish a report setting out the findings of the inquiry, and
(c) as soon as practicable after the publication of a report under paragraph (b), prepare an action plan responding to the findings of the report.

(4) As soon as practicable after the publication of a report and action plan under subsection (3), the Health Board must provide the report and action plan to—
   (a) the Mental Welfare Commission,
   (b) any natural person against whom a relevant offence has been perpetrated, provided that the Health Board has ascertained that the person to be given the information wishes to receive it.

(5) The Mental Welfare Commission must, in accordance with directions given to it by the Scottish Ministers, from time to time, and not less than once in every parliamentary session, lay before the Parliament a report summarising the findings of the reports received since the laying of the last such report.

(6) Subsections (7) and (8) apply where—
   (a) the Parliament is dissolved before the period of 12 months has elapsed since the commencement of the session of Parliament, and
   (b) as at the date of dissolution a report under subsection (5) has not been published.

(7) The session in which the Parliament is so dissolved is not to be regarded as a session in which a report under subsection (5) is to be published.

(8) A report under subsection (5) must be published in the session of the Parliament which—
   (a) next follows the session in which the Parliament is so dissolved, and
   (b) is not itself a session in which the Parliament is so dissolved.

(9) Health Boards must, in exercising any function under this section, have regard to any guidance issued by the Scottish Ministers.

(10) The Scottish Ministers must publish any guidance they issue for the purposes of this section.

(11) The Scottish Ministers may revise and revoke such guidance.

(12) For the purposes of this section, “relevant offence” means the committing of the offence of—
   (a) murder,
   (b) culpable homicide,
   (c) such other offence as the Scottish Ministers may by regulations prescribe.

(13) For the purposes of this section, “referred” means referred to a Health Board by a medical practitioner, or such other person as the Scottish Ministers may by regulations prescribe.

(14) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations amend subsections (1) to (9), so as to—
   (a) incorporate within the meaning of this section persons charged with a relevant offence who have been in receipt of care and treatment under the 2003 Act from a body other than a Health Board,
(b) to require that body to be notified of the charging of that person and to be subject to the requirements of subsections (3) to (6).

(15) Regulations under subsections (12) and (14) are subject to the affirmative procedure.

(16) Regulations under subsection (13) are subject to the negative procedure.

Before section 41

Dr Richard Simpson

113 Before section 41, insert—

<Referral by Tribunal to High Court

(1) The Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 is amended as follows.

(2) After section 195 there is inserted—

‘Reference to High Court by Tribunal

195A Tribunal’s powers to make reference to High Court

(1) This section applies where—

(a) a person—

(i) was convicted in the High Court or the sheriff court of an offence punishable by imprisonment (other than an offence the sentence for which is fixed by law); or

(ii) was remitted to the High Court by the sheriff under any enactment for sentence for such an offence;

(b) the person is subject to—

(i) a compulsion order; or

(ii) a compulsion order and a restriction order; and

(c) a determination or order is made under this Act changing the category of the patient’s mental disorder.

(2) If the conditions in subsection (3) apply, the Tribunal may refer the matter to the High Court.

(3) Those conditions are that—

(a) the Tribunal is satisfied that the category of the patient’s mental disorder has changed from that specified at the time at which the court made the compulsion order or compulsion and restriction order, as the case may be;

(b) it appears to the Tribunal that, given the change in category, it is appropriate for the patient to be remitted to the High Court for sentence for the offence for which the person was convicted; and

(c) the Tribunal considers that it is in the interests of justice and consistent with the principles of this Act that such a reference should be made.

(4) In determining whether a reference is in the interests of justice, the Tribunal must have regard to the need for finality and certainty in the determination of criminal proceedings.
In considering whether or not to make a reference, the Tribunal may at any time refer to the High Court for the Court’s opinion on any point on which it desires the Court’s assistance; and on a reference under this subsection the High Court must consider the point referred and provide the Tribunal with its opinion on the point.

A reference under subsection (2) may be made by the Tribunal under this Act—

(a) on the Tribunal’s own initiative;
(b) on application to the Tribunal by;
   (i) the patient;
   (ii) the responsible medical officer;
   (iii) the Commission;
   (iv) any other person mentioned in subsection (8).

Before making a reference to the High Court under this section the Tribunal must—

(a) afford the persons mentioned in subsection (8) below the opportunity—
   (i) of making representations (whether orally or in writing); and
   (ii) of leading, or producing, evidence; and
(b) whether or not such representations are made, hold a hearing.

Those persons are—

(a) the patient;
(b) the patient’s named person;
(c) the patient’s primary carer;
(d) any guardian of the patient;
(e) any welfare attorney of the patient;
(f) any curator ad litem appointed by the Tribunal in respect of the patient;
(g) the Scottish Ministers;
(i) the mental health officer;
(j) any other person appearing to the Tribunal to have an interest.”

The Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995 is amended as follows.

After section 61 there is inserted—

“Reference by the Tribunal to the High Court

61A Reference by the Tribunal to the High Court

Where the Tribunal makes a reference to the High Court under section 195A of the Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003, the Tribunal must—

(a) give to the Court a statement of its reasons for making the reference; and
(b) send a copy of the statement to every person who appears to them to be likely to be a party to any proceedings arising from the reference.
(2) The High Court must hear and determine the case, subject to any directions the High Court may make, as if it were an appeal under Part VIII or, as the case may be, Part X of this Act.

61B Further provision on reference

(1) The High Court may reject the reference if the Court considers that it is not in the interests of justice that any proceedings arising from the reference should proceed.

(2) In determining whether or not it is in the interests of justice that any proceedings should proceed, the High Court must have regard to the need for finality and certainty in the determination of criminal proceedings.

(3) On rejecting a reference under this section, the High Court may make such order as it consider necessary or appropriate.

61C Supplementary provision

(1) The Scottish Ministers may by order make such incidental, consequential, transitional or supplementary provisions as may appear to them to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of bringing section 61A and 61B into operation.

(2) Regulations under subsection (1) are subject to the affirmative procedure.”.

Section 41
