REVIEW OR APPEAL OF DECISIONS

CHAPTER 1

TRIBUNAL DECISIONS

38 Review of decisions

(1) Each of the First-tier Tribunal and the Upper Tribunal may review a decision made by it in any matter in a case before it.

(2) A decision is reviewable—

   (a) at the Tribunal’s own instance, or

   (b) at the request of a party in the case.

(3) But—

   (a) there can be no review under this section of an excluded decision,

   (b) Tribunal Rules may make provision—

       (i) excluding other decisions from a review under this section,

       (ii) otherwise restricting the availability of a review under this section (including by specifying grounds for a review).

(4) The exercise of discretion whether a decision should be reviewed under this section cannot give rise to a review under this section or to an appeal under section 41 or 43.

(5) A right of appeal under section 41 or 43 is not affected by the availability or otherwise of a review under this section.

39 Actions on review

(1) In a review by the First-tier Tribunal or the Upper Tribunal under section 38, the Tribunal may—

   (a) take no action,

   (b) set the decision aside, or

   (c) correct a minor or accidental error contained in the decision.

(3) If a decision set aside by the First-tier Tribunal in a review is referred to the Upper Tribunal, the Upper Tribunal—

(a) a decision set aside under section 39(1)(b),
(b) a decision made by virtue of section 39(2)(a), (3)(a) or (4).
(3) Nothing in this section prevents the taking, after a review in which the decision concerned is not set aside, of administrative steps by the First-tier or Upper Tribunal to correct a minor or accidental error made in disposing of the review.

41  Appeal from the Tribunal
(1) A decision of the First-tier Tribunal in any matter in a case before the Tribunal may be appealed to the Upper Tribunal.
(2) An appeal under this section is to be made—
(a) by a party in the case,
(b) on a point of law only.
(3) An appeal under this section requires the permission of—
(a) the First-tier Tribunal, or
(b) if the First-tier Tribunal refuses its permission, the Upper Tribunal.
(4) Such permission may be given in relation to an appeal under this section only if the First-tier Tribunal or (as the case may be) the Upper Tribunal is satisfied that there are arguable grounds for the appeal.
(5) This section—
(a) is subject to sections 38(4) and 50(2),
(b) does not apply in relation to an excluded decision.
42 Disposal of an appeal

(1) In an appeal under section 41, the Upper Tribunal may uphold or quash the decision on the point of law in question.

(c) make such other order as the Upper Tribunal considers appropriate.

(3) In re-making the decision, the Upper Tribunal may—

(a) do anything that the First-tier Tribunal could do if re-making the decision,

(b) reach such findings in fact as the Upper Tribunal considers appropriate.

(4) In remitting the case, the Upper Tribunal may give directions for the First-tier Tribunal’s reconsideration of the case.

(5) Such directions may relate to—

(a) issues of law or fact (including the Upper Tribunal’s opinion on any relevant point),

(b) procedural issues (including as to the members to be chosen to reconsider the case).

Appeal from Upper Tribunal

43 Appeal from the Tribunal

(1) A decision of the Upper Tribunal in any matter in a case before the Tribunal may be appealed to the Court of Session.

(2) An appeal under this section is to be made—

(a) by a party in the case,

(b) on a point of law only.

(3) An appeal under this section requires the permission of—

(a) the Upper Tribunal, or

(4) Such permission may be given in relation to an appeal under this section only if the Upper Tribunal or (as the case may be) the Court of Session is satisfied that there are arguable grounds for the appeal.

(5) This section—

(a) is subject to sections 38(4) and 50(2),

(b) does not apply in relation to an excluded decision.

(2) Section 44 is subject to subsections (5) and (6) as regards a second appeal.

(3) For the purpose of subsection (1), the Upper Tribunal or (as the case may be) the Court of Session may not give its permission to the making of a second appeal unless also satisfied that subsection (4) applies.

(4) This subsection applies where, in relation to the matter in question—
   (a) a second appeal would raise an important issue of principle or practice, or
   (b) there is another compelling reason for allowing a second appeal to proceed.

(5) For the purpose of subsection (2), subsections (2)(b) and (3)(a) of section 44 have effect in relation to a second appeal as if the references in them to the Upper Tribunal include, as alternative references, references to the First-tier Tribunal.

(6) Where, in exercising the choice arising by virtue of subsection (5) (and instead of re-making the decision in question), the Court of Session remits the case to the Upper Tribunal rather than the First-tier Tribunal—
   (a) the Upper Tribunal, instead of reconsidering the case itself, may remit the case to the First-tier Tribunal,
   (b) if the Upper Tribunal does so, it must send to the First-tier Tribunal any directions accompanying the Court’s remittal of the case to the Upper Tribunal.

(7) In this section, “second appeal” means appeal under section 43 against a decision in an appeal under section 41.
Excluded decisions

46 Excluded decisions
A decision falling within any of sections 47 to 49 is an excluded decision for the purposes of—

(a) a review under section 38,
(b) an appeal under section 41 or 43.

47 Decisions on review
(1) Falling within this section is—

(a) a decision set aside in a review under section 38 (see section 39(1)(b)),
(b) a decision in such a review, except a decision of the kind mentioned in subsection (2).

(2) That is, a decision made by virtue of section 39(2)(a), (3)(a) or (4) (and accordingly a decision so made is not an excluded decision).

48 Other appeal rights

(2) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make provision to which subsection (1) is subject (for example, by specifying an exception to what falls within this section).

49 Position on transfer-in
(1) Where any functions are transferred to the First-tier Tribunal or Upper Tribunal by virtue of regulations made under section 27(2), a decision made in the exercise of the functions falls within this section if it is specified in regulations made by the Scottish Ministers under this subsection.

Miscellaneous procedure

50 Process for permission
(1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations specify a time limit within which the permission required by section 41(3) or 43(3) must be sought.

CHAPTER 2
SPECIAL JURISDICTION

52 Judicial review cases

(2) The Court may by order remit the petition to the Upper Tribunal if—

(a) both of Conditions A and B are met, and

(b) having regard to the functions and expertise of the Tribunal in relation to the subject-matter of the petition, the Court considers that it is appropriate to do so.

(3) Condition A is that the petition does not seek anything other than the exercise of the Court’s judicial review function.

(4) Condition B is that the petition falls within a category specified by an act of sederunt made by the Court for the purpose of this subsection.

53 Decision on remittal

(1) The Upper Tribunal is to determine the issues raised in each petition remitted to it under section 52.

(2) In relation to a petition so remitted, the Upper Tribunal—

(a) has the same powers as the Court of Session has on a petition to it for judicial review,

(b) is to apply the same principles as the Court applies in the exercise of its judicial review function.

(3) An order made by the Upper Tribunal on a petition so remitted has the same effect as an order made by the Court of Session on a petition for judicial review (and the order is therefore enforceable accordingly).

(4) Subsection (3) does not limit the operation of section 43 in connection with a determination under subsection (1).

54 Additional matters

(1) Where a petition is remitted to the Upper Tribunal under section 52, any order made or step taken by the Court of Session in relation to the petition is to be treated as if made or taken by the Tribunal (except the order by which the petition is so remitted (or an associated step)).

(2) Tribunal Rules may make further provision with respect to the exercise by the Upper Tribunal of its functions under this Chapter.
55 Meaning of judicial review

In this Chapter—

(a) a reference to a petition to the Court of Session for judicial review is to an application to the supervisory jurisdiction of the Court,

(b) a reference to the exercise of the Court of Session’s judicial review function is to the exercise of the Court’s supervisory jurisdiction (and includes the making of any order in connection with or in consequence of the exercise of that function).

PART 1

TRANSGITIONAL AND OTHER MATTERS

Exercise of functions

1 (1) Sub-paragraph (2) applies for the purposes of—
   (a) the exercise of functions by a member of the Scottish Tribunals by virtue of this Act, and
   (b) the operation of provisions in or under this Act to which such a member is subject.

(2) Except where the context otherwise requires, it is immaterial whether a person who is, or who is acting as, such a member is in place by virtue of appointment, assignment, transfer-in or other means under this Act.
Rules of listed tribunals

2 (1) Sub-paragraph (2) applies where some or all of the functions of a listed tribunal have been, or are to be, transferred by regulations under section 27(2).

(2) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations provide for the procedural rules of a listed tribunal that are in force immediately before the transfer to have effect for the purposes of either or both of the First-tier Tribunal and the Upper Tribunal.

(3) Regulations under sub-paragraph (2) may provide for the procedural rules to which the regulations relate to have such effect subject to such modifications as appear to the Scottish Ministers to be necessary or expedient with respect to the purposes mentioned in that sub-paragraph.

(4) In this paragraph—

“listed tribunal” is to be construed in accordance with Part 3 (see section 26(1)),

“procedural rules” means provision for the purposes of a listed tribunal (whether or not contained in an enactment and irrespective of whether called rules)—

(a) regulating the practice or procedure to be followed in proceedings at a listed tribunal, or

(b) otherwise applying in relation to the exercise by a listed tribunal of its functions.

3 (1) Regulations under paragraph 2(2) may—

(a) make different provision for different purposes,

(b) include supplemental, incidental, consequential, transitional, transitory or saving provision.

(2) Regulations under paragraph 2(2) are subject to the negative procedure.

(a) section 62(3) is of no effect,

(b) instead of that section, sub-paragraph (2) applies for the purpose of making rules regulating the practice and procedure to be followed in proceedings at the Scottish Tribunals.

(2) The function of making such rules is exercisable by the Scottish Ministers by setting them out in regulations.

(3) Before making regulations under sub-paragraph (2), the Scottish Ministers must consult—

(a) the President of Tribunals, and

(b) such other persons as they consider appropriate.

5 (1) Regulations under paragraph 4(2) may—

(a) modify rules having effect for the purposes mentioned in paragraph 2(2) (that is, by virtue of regulations made under that paragraph),

(including the making of different provision for different purposes).

(2) Regulations under paragraph 4(2) are subject to the negative procedure.

6 (1) Sub-paragraph (2) applies to—

(a) rules having effect as mentioned in paragraph 2(2) (by virtue of regulations made under that paragraph),

(b) rules set out in regulations made by virtue of paragraph 4(2).

(2) Once the Scottish Civil Justice Council and the Court of Session are involved in the making of Tribunal Rules by virtue of the coming into force of paragraph 12(2) to (5)—

(a) all rules to which this sub-paragraph applies are to be regarded as if made as Tribunal Rules under Chapter 2 of Part 7,

(b) all such rules have effect accordingly (and may therefore be revoked, amended or remade by Tribunal Rules under Chapter 2 of Part 7).

Chambers and divisions

7 (1) For as long as it appears to the Scottish Ministers that the acquisition of functions by the First-Tier Tribunal for the time being is such that there is justification for not organising it into a number of chambers as required by section 19(1), regulations under section 19(2)—

(a) need not be made, or

(b) may provide for the Tribunal to have a single chamber only.

(2) For as long as it appears to the Scottish Ministers that the acquisition of functions by the Upper Tribunal for the time being is such that there is justification for not organising it into a number of divisions as required by section 22(1), regulations under section 22(2)—

(a) need not be made, or

(b) may provide for the Tribunal to have a single division only.

8 (1) Sections 19(1) and (2) and 22(1) and (2) are subject to paragraph 7(1) and (2) (until it appears to the Scottish Ministers that the relevant justification no longer exists).

(2) Any provision of this Act (apart from this schedule Part) that mentions a chamber or more than one chamber of the First-tier Tribunal is, for as long as by virtue of paragraph 7(1) the First-tier Tribunal has no chambers or a single chamber, to be read with such modifications as are necessary for the effective operation of the provision while the Tribunal is not organised into a number of chambers.

(3) Any provision of this Act (apart from this schedule Part) that mentions a division or more than one division of the Upper Tribunal is, for as long as by virtue of paragraph 7(2) the Upper Tribunal has no divisions or a single division, to be read with such modifications as are necessary for the effective operation of the provision while the Tribunal is not organised into a number of divisions.
9  For the purposes of paragraph 7(1) and (2), the Scottish Ministers must have regard to the following matters so far as relevant for the time being—

(a) the different subject-matters falling within the jurisdiction of the First-tier Tribunal or (as the case may be) the Upper Tribunal, and
