Submission from Gillian Ramsay

I wish to object to the proposed HEG Bill for the following reasons

- the problem that the bill is designed to solve has not been adequately identified
- it increases the risk of government control over Scottish Universities and risks the loss of freedoms to innovate and form productive partnerships
- far from improving governance it is actually a retrograde step for Councils and Courts.