How would you characterise your views on the Bill in general?

How would you characterise your views on the introduction of same sex marriage, so that same sex couples can marry each other?
In opposition
Marriage is between a man and a woman.

How would you characterise your views on putting belief celebrants on the same footing as religious celebrants?
In opposition
There is no authority in the Bible for anything other than marriage between a man and a woman.

How would you characterise your views on the arrangements for authorising celebrants to solemnise opposite sex and same sex marriage (including the opt-in procedures)?
In opposition
Marriage is between a man and a woman, anything else is a perversion

How would you characterise your views on civil partnerships changing to marriages?
In opposition
Marriage is not a civil partnership. This move would make me feel abused and defiles. My marriage would be dragged down to the same level of this evil act.

How would you characterise your views on allowing civil marriage ceremonies to take place anywhere, other than religious premises, agreed between the couple and registrar?
Neither

How would you characterise your views on allowing the religious and belief registration of civil partnerships?
In opposition
I feel as if I am repeating myself here. marriage is between a man and a woman
How would you characterise your views on allowing transgender persons to stay married when obtaining a full Gender Recognition Certificate, which provides legal recognition in the acquired gender?

In opposition

What sort of abomination will you think up next?

Would you like to comment on the wider issue of protections for those in society who may have concerns about same sex marriage?

Yes, those of us in society who disagree should be protected and in a free society be allowed to disagree without fear or favour. There are signs that this is not happening as we speak and this awful law is not yet on the statute book. Disagreeing with homosexuals should be allowed. Plus why are you making provision for people outside of Scotland to speak and have influence on this matter?

Would you like to comment on the wider issue of freedom of speech?

Would you like to comment on any other wider issues in relation to the Bill that are not mentioned above?

Are you responding as...
