How would you characterise your views on the Bill in general?
In support
Flawed but basically promising

How would you characterise your views on the introduction of same sex marriage, so that same sex couples can marry each other?
In support

How would you characterise your views on putting belief celebrants on the same footing as religious celebrants?
In support

How would you characterise your views on the arrangements for authorising celebrants to solemnise opposite sex and same sex marriage (including the opt-in procedures)?
In support
There should also be an option for gender free marriage ceremonies for all.

How would you characterise your views on civil partnerships changing to marriages?
In support
Should be optional but uncomplicated for any who wish including those already in civil partnerships whether registered in Scotland or otherwise.

How would you characterise your views on allowing civil marriage ceremonies to take place anywhere, other than religious premises, agreed between the couple and registrar?
In support

How would you characterise your views on allowing the religious and belief registration of civil partnerships?
In support

How would you characterise your views on allowing transgender persons to stay married when obtaining a full Gender Recognition Certificate, which provides legal recognition in the acquired gender?
In support
I don't honestly see how anyone can object to this.

Would you like to comment on the wider issue of protections for those in society who may have concerns about same sex marriage?

As long as no one is actually forcing them to marry a person of the same sex, I don't see why it's any of their business.

Would you like to comment on the wider issue of freedom of speech?

Would you like to comment on any other wider issues in relation to the Bill that are not mentioned above?

Are you responding as...

a private individual

Emma Coleman
23 August 2013