How would you characterise your views on the Bill in general?

In support

Marriage shouldn't be about gender. If two people love each other and are committed to each it should be a sign of that commitment that heterosexual couples get the pleasure of doing.

How would you characterise your views on the introduction of same sex marriage, so that same sex couples can marry each other?

In support

In full support, I don't see why LGBT couples can't marry each other!

How would you characterise your views on putting belief celebrants on the same footing as religious celebrants?

Neither

How would you characterise your views on the arrangements for authorising celebrants to solemnise opposite sex and same sex marriage (including the opt-in procedures)?

Neither

How would you characterise your views on civil partnerships changing to marriages?

In support

I believe it should be a marriage because it isn't any different to heterosexual marriage.

How would you characterise your views on allowing civil marriage ceremonies to take place anywhere, other than religious premises, agreed between the couple and registrar?

In support

I believe they should be entitled to get married wherever they wish.

How would you characterise your views on allowing the religious and belief registration of civil partnerships?

How would you characterise your views on allowing transgender persons to stay married when obtaining a full Gender Recognition Certificate, which provides legal recognition in the acquired gender?

In support

Gender doesn't define sexuality. It should be perfectly okay.

Would you like to comment on the wider issue of protections for those in society who may have concerns about same sex marriage?

Think about more about your own lives than worrying about other people's! We need more love and acceptance in the world regardless of gender or sex!

Would you like to comment on the wider issue of freedom of speech?

Would you like to comment on any other wider issues in relation to the Bill that are not mentioned above?

Are you responding as...
