How would you characterise your views on the Bill in general?
In support

How would you characterise your views on the introduction of same sex marriage, so that same sex couples can marry each other?
In support

I am in support because I consider it ridiculous that the state, the church or any other organisation should have the right to decide whether two people who love one another should be allowed to get married or not.

How would you characterise your views on putting belief celebrants on the same footing as religious celebrants?

How would you characterise your views on the arrangements for authorising celebrants to solemnise opposite sex and same sex marriage (including the opt-in procedures)?

How would you characterise your views on civil partnerships changing to marriages?
Neither
It should be up to the individuals concerned.

How would you characterise your views on allowing civil marriage ceremonies to take place anywhere, other than religious premises, agreed between the couple and registrar?
In support

How would you characterise your views on allowing the religious and belief registration of civil partnerships?

How would you characterise your views on allowing transgender persons to stay married when obtaining a full Gender Recognition Certificate, which provides legal recognition in the acquired gender?
In support
It is ridiculous that those who are already married to have to dissolve this in order to obtain a GRC.

Would you like to comment on the wider issue of protections for those in society who may have concerns about same sex marriage?

What concerns..? Why on earth should anyone have concerns..? I don't understand.

Would you like to comment on the wider issue of freedom of speech?

Would you like to comment on any other wider issues in relation to the Bill that are not mentioned above?

Are you responding as...

a private individual

Ria Elaine Jones
14 August 2013