How would you characterise your views on the Bill in general?
In support
I believe everyone should have the right to marry if they want to.

How would you characterise your views on the introduction of same sex marriage, so that same sex couples can marry each other?
In support
It's the correct way to go about this issue, it's about time gay people were recognised in society.

How would you characterise your views on putting belief celebrants on the same footing as religious celebrants?
In opposition

How would you characterise your views on the arrangements for authorising celebrants to solemnise opposite sex and same sex marriage (including the opt-in procedures)?
In opposition

How would you characterise your views on civil partnerships changing to marriages?
In support

How would you characterise your views on allowing civil marriage ceremonies to take place anywhere, other than religious premises, agreed between the couple and registrar?
In support

How would you characterise your views on allowing the religious and belief registration of civil partnerships?
In support

How would you characterise your views on allowing transgender persons to stay married when obtaining a full Gender Recognition Certificate, which provides legal recognition in the acquired gender?
In support
Would you like to comment on the wider issue of protections for those in society who may have concerns about same sex marriage?

There should be none as everyone should recognise that being gay is part of who a person is and they are in all walks of life.

Would you like to comment on the wider issue of freedom of speech?

Would you like to comment on any other wider issues in relation to the Bill that are not mentioned above?

Are you responding as...

a private individual

Lee Martin
15 July 2013