I believe that everyone has the right to marry the person they love and want to support and share the same civil rights as heterosexual couples. There should be no differentiation.

How would you characterise your views on the introduction of same sex marriage, so that same sex couples can marry each other?

How would you characterise your views on putting belief celebrants on the same footing as religious celebrants?

In support

I feel that everyone who has a religious belief whatever that may be should be able to celebrate their commitment within the realms of that belief. However I believe that any religious organisation who feels that gay/same sex marriage is not supportable in their premises then they should have the freedom to opt out, it will never stop those believing in what they feel is important to them.

How would you characterise your views on the arrangements for authorising celebrants to solemnise opposite sex and same sex marriage (including the opt-in procedures)?

How would you characterise your views on civil partnerships changing to marriages?

In support

I am in support however I think those already in Civil Partnership should be given the choice to change their partnership to marriage.

How would you characterise your views on allowing civil marriage ceremonies to take place anywhere, other than religious premises, agreed between the couple and registrar?

Would you like to comment on the wider issue of protections for those in society who may have concerns about same sex marriage?

No! There should be no concern about anyone wishing to recognise their love and commitment for another.

Would you like to comment on the wider issue of freedom of speech?
