How would you characterise your views on the Bill in general?
In support

How would you characterise your views on the introduction of same sex marriage, so that same sex couples can marry each other?
In support

Everyone should be allowed to get married. Marriage is between two people it should not matter what gender or sexuality they are it is between those two people not the nation

How would you characterise your views on putting belief celebrants on the same footing as religious celebrants?
Neither

I don't understand the question

How would you characterise your views on the arrangements for authorising celebrants to solemnise opposite sex and same sex marriage (including the opt-in procedures)?
Neither

Don't understand

How would you characterise your views on civil partnerships changing to marriages?
In support

It is A good Idea

How would you characterise your views on allowing civil marriage ceremonies to take place anywhere, other than religious premises, agreed between the couple and registrar?
Neither

Don't Understand

How would you characterise your views on allowing the religious and belief registration of civil partnerships?
How would you characterise your views on allowing transgender persons to stay married when obtaining a full Gender Recognition Certificate, which provides legal recognition in the acquired gender?

In support

It should be up to those people in the marriage

Would you like to comment on the wider issue of protections for those in society who may have concerns about same sex marriage?

Marriage these days is seen as a joke it is not taking serious like it used to be. I believe that if two people still believe in the sanctity of marriage it should not matter what there sexuality they are. Marriage is about love of two people.

Would you like to comment on the wider issue of freedom of speech?

Would you like to comment on any other wider issues in relation to the Bill that are not mentioned above?

I would like to point out that I'am a roman catholic who also believes in same sex marriage I'am sick of hearing about people who say that being gay is not right and that the bible says it is a sin what i think people forget that the bible was written when it was still illegal to be gay times have changed since then and we have to start moving on. I'am a 72 year old woman and can't believe that in 2013 same-sex marriage is still illegal. I hate hearing about people who have been bullied because they are gay I think that legalising same-sex marriage it will show bullys that scottish parliament will not stand for it.

Are you responding as...

a private individual

Agnes Mooney
14 August 2013