How would you characterise your views on the Bill in general?

In support

How would you characterise your views on the introduction of same sex marriage, so that same sex couples can marry each other?

In support

How would you characterise your views on putting belief celebrants on the same footing as religious celebrants?

In support

How would you characterise your views on the arrangements for authorising celebrants to solemnise opposite sex and same sex marriage (including the opt-in procedures)?

In support

How would you characterise your views on civil partnerships changing to marriages?

In opposition

There should be the option for a non-denominational partnership

How would you characterise your views on allowing civil marriage ceremonies to take place anywhere, other than religious premises, agreed between the couple and registrar?

In support

How would you characterise your views on allowing the religious and belief registration of civil partnerships?

In support

How would you characterise your views on allowing transgender persons to stay married when obtaining a full Gender Recognition Certificate, which provides legal recognition in the acquired gender?

In opposition

Would you like to comment on the wider issue of protections for those in society who may have concerns about same sex marriage?
They are unfounded and unfair, the recognition of love between two people should be acceptable to all. Britney Spear's 24 hour flings does worse!

Would you like to comment on the wider issue of freedom of speech?

There is no greater right in a democratic world!

Would you like to comment on any other wider issues in relation to the Bill that are not mentioned above?

Are you responding as...

an academic

Stephen James McKelvie
St Andrews Aquarium
15 August 2013