How would you characterise your views on the Bill in general?

In support

I hate the old order, where women are chattles, white men are always right and anyone who doesn't fit into their tiny boxes is deemed lesser. Yes, we have been fighting against this for decades, but there is still some to go. I celebrate difference, individuality and freedom of choice for all.

How would you characterise your views on the introduction of same sex marriage, so that same sex couples can marry each other?

In support

Its not anyone else's business, who we sleep with or choose to live with. I truly do not understand the sickness behind prejudice.

How would you characterise your views on putting belief celebrants on the same footing as religious celebrants?

In support

They are the same!!!!! the only problem with religion is that almost all of them are based upon manipulating the 'flock' with fear of death and judgement. How sick is that!!??

How would you characterise your views on the arrangements for authorising celebrants to solemnise opposite sex and same sex marriage (including the opt-in procedures)?

Neither

Don't think its the governments' business to outline the hows and wheres and who can celebrate - for any union, whether you call it marriage, hand-fasting or whatever. Its time this whole subject leapt forward about two millenia!

How would you characterise your views on civil partnerships changing to marriages?

Neither

Don't care, as I have no particular respect for the government having control over us versus the church - neither is very reliable.

How would you characterise your views on allowing civil marriage ceremonies to take place anywhere, other than religious premises, agreed between the couple and registrar?
In support

I think any personal celebration should be only in the hands of those who wish to make the promises. Where it happens is their choice, as it only affects their lives.

How would you characterise your views on allowing the religious and belief registration of civil partnerships?

In support

I still think the difference between civil and religious joining is simply a result of the prejudice, ignorance and archaic attitudes our society. We need big changes in attitudes.

How would you characterise your views on allowing transgender persons to stay married when obtaining a full Gender Recognition Certificate, which provides legal recognition in the acquired gender?

In support

Not our business, anyone who is brave enough and unhappy in their gender enough to change it should be respected and understood.

Would you like to comment on the wider issue of protections for those in society who may have concerns about same sex marriage?

educate them!!!!!!!!

Would you like to comment on the wider issue of freedom of speech?

What a wonderful idea!

Would you like to comment on any other wider issues in relation to the Bill that are not mentioned above?

Are you responding as...

a private individual
