How would you characterise your views on the Bill in general?
In support

This Bill should have been introduced and passed a long time ago. It is ridiculous that this is even up for debate. The love between two human beings is not a political issue. It's a natural attraction.

How would you characterise your views on the introduction of same sex marriage, so that same sex couples can marry each other?
In support

It's about time. I'm hoping that this Bill is passed.

How would you characterise your views on putting belief celebrants on the same footing as religious celebrants?
Neither

Here's this thing: not every religion is against Homosexuality. Everyone's only focusing on what the Christians say. What about the other religions? Paganism is not against Homosexuality.

How would you characterise your views on the arrangements for authorising celebrants to solemnise opposite sex and same sex marriage (including the opt-in procedures)?

How would you characterise your views on civil partnerships changing to marriages?

How would you characterise your views on allowing civil marriage ceremonies to take place anywhere, other than religious premises, agreed between the couple and registrar?
In support

How would you characterise your views on allowing the religious and belief registration of civil partnerships?
How would you characterise your views on allowing transgender persons to stay married when obtaining a full Gender Recognition Certificate, which provides legal recognition in the acquired gender?

Would you like to comment on the wider issue of protections for those in society who may have concerns about same sex marriage?

Protections from what? Same-sex marriage isn't going to harm or affect anyone else in the slightest. Legalising Equal Marriage won't cause the world to implode or bestiality to commence.

Would you like to comment on the wider issue of freedom of speech?

Would you like to comment on any other wider issues in relation to the Bill that are not mentioned above?
