How would you characterise your views on the Bill in general?
In support
I'm gay and I want the same human rights as heterosexual couples!

How would you characterise your views on the introduction of same sex marriage, so that same sex couples can marry each other?
In support
I should be allowed to marry my gf if I want. It's people's human rights!

How would you characterise your views on putting belief celebrants on the same footing as religious celebrants?
In support
I don't care what the church thinks about same sex marriage and the law should not be based on what the church thinks. If they don't want to marry us, it's fine by me.

How would you characterise your views on the arrangements for authorising celebrants to solemnise opposite sex and same sex marriage (including the opt-in procedures)?
Fine by me!

How would you characterise your views on civil partnerships changing to marriages?
In support
Human rights! Nothing else to be said!

How would you characterise your views on allowing civil marriage ceremonies to take place anywhere, other than religious premises, agreed between the couple and registrar?
In support
Sounds good to me

How would you characterise your views on allowing the religious and belief registration of civil partnerships?

How would you characterise your views on allowing transgender persons to stay married when obtaining a full Gender Recognition Certificate, which provides legal recognition in the acquired gender?

Would you like to comment on the wider issue of protections for those in society who may have concerns about same sex marriage?

It's human rights, you wouldn't like it if the tables were turned. Just cause we're gay isn't going to affect your marriage...and if it does there's a serious problem in your own relationship. Don't blame gays!

Would you like to comment on the wider issue of freedom of speech?

Would you like to comment on any other wider issues in relation to the Bill that are not mentioned above?
