REMOVING BARRIERS: RACE, ETHNICITY AND EMPLOYMENT

SUBMISSION FROM ANONYMOUS AFRICAN CHALLENGE SCOTLAND MEMBER

Just take a look at this and for people to see what is going on in our community, I was refused a position I applied for through a company I worked for nearly 6 years, after going through all the interview stages I was successful and was asked to resume in the new position since I don't belong to a negative group in the company, the position was taken off me. On the baseline, I have to put in a letter of resignation. I was off work for many months depending on my wife's wages.

After some months there was an internal job vacancy in her place of work, she applied for it, and got the permanent position, some days to her resuming the new position she was asked to live the job without any reason of whatsoever, life became unbearable for me and my family, no one to run to, unable to pay our bills with little children until after some months we got another.
