On the matter of the two questions asked of everyone who took part in the consultation I personally think if it is only a matter of money i.e. cost cutting by the Government in their many avenues of so called deficit reduction it is a "No Brainer" it would only remain to be seen the obvious detrimental effect it would have to all concerned in the matter.

I sincerely hope the so called powers that be reconsider this very serious matter before they "repent at leisure".

Garry Wheelan
9 May 2013