6. Civic Licensing – Sexual Entertainment Venues

You may respond to all questions or only those you have a specific interest in. (Text boxes have no word limit, they will increase in size accordingly).

50. What are the consequences of operating the new licensing regime using the definitions set out at section 68 of the Bill?

- 'sexual entertainment venue'
- 'audience'
- 'financial gain'
- 'organiser'
- 'premises'
- 'sexual entertainment', and
- 'display of nudity'

51. The Bill specifies that a venue hosting sexual entertainment on three occasions or less within a 12 month period would not be treated as a sexual entertainment venue: does this have any unintended consequences?

52. Local licensing authorities will be able to set the number of sexual entertainment venues in their area to below the existing level, or zero: are there any advantages or disadvantages to this approach?

This could cause clubs to be closed even if they are well ran and popular with customers, taking the choice away from people who choose to visit them

53. The Bill relies mainly on the existing licensing regime for sex shops as set out in section 44 and Schedule 2 of the Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982 (application, notification, objections and representations, revocation of licences etc., enforcement and appeals): is this mechanism adequate for the licensing of sexual entertainment venues - if not, please explain why?

54. Are there any barriers to licensing authorities operating the new licensing regime?

Yes if they are deciding on what type of entertainment should be offered to the public, to force lap dancing out of business is unrelated to the sale of alcohol. They wouldn't do this with other forms of entertainment comedy clubs for example often have very adult language in certain late night shows yet no one from licensing picks what type of comedy is suitable nor what type of music can be played in a club or what tricks a magician can perform. As long as the entertainment is legal it should be allowed for the public all over Scotland to choose if they wish to view it

55. Civic Licensing

Do you have any other comments to make on the civic licensing aspects of the Bill?

It seems rather odd that if this Bill goes through that Lap dancing in Glasgow will by the councils own admission be closed down and its topless only but the clubs that offer full nude in Edinburgh will be left open.

It's the same country and surely the people in Glasgow are as able as those in other parts of the country to decide if they wish to visit a lap dancing bar?
