6. Civic Licensing – Sexual Entertainment Venues

You may respond to all questions or only those you have a specific interest in. (Text boxes have no word limit, they will increase in size accordingly).

50. What are the consequences of operating the new licensing regime using the definitions set out at section 68 of the Bill?

- 'sexual entertainment venue'
- 'audience'
- 'financial gain'
- 'organiser'
- 'premises'
- 'sexual entertainment', and
- 'display of nudity'

We believe the definition as currently composed runs the risk of both vexatious complaint and potential self-censorship of artists for fear of falling within the scope of the legislation. We would propose the removal of the word ‘any’ from the definition as this leaves open the potential for vexatious complaint and the removal of the word ‘verbal’ which might then include any dialogue of a sexual nature.

We would also like to see included in the Bill an explicit statement that this is not intended to include ‘artistic performances whose primary purpose is artistic, creative or educational’ and an exemption for ‘arts venues and venues taking part in an arts festival.’

We would also expect any accompanying guidance to local authorities to emphasise the intention of the act not to limit or censor artistic performance so that local authorities, venue programmers and artists are clear about the purpose and scope of the legislation.

51. The Bill specifies that a venue hosting sexual entertainment on three occasions or less within a 12 month period would not be treated as a sexual entertainment venue: does this have any unintended consequences?

No comment

52. Local licensing authorities will be able to set the number of sexual entertainment venues in their area to below the existing level, or zero: are there any advantages or disadvantages to this approach?

No comment

53. The Bill relies mainly on the existing licensing regime for sex shops as set out in section 44 and Schedule 2 of the Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982 (application, notification, objections and representations, revocation of licences etc., enforcement and appeals): is this mechanism adequate for the licensing of sexual entertainment venues - if not, please explain why?

54. Are there any barriers to licensing authorities operating the new licensing regime?
