Delegated Powers and Law Reform Committee

15th Report, 2015 (Session 4)

Welfare Funds (Scotland) Bill as amended at stage 2

The Committee reports to the Parliament as follows—

1. At its meeting on 24 February 2015, the Delegated Powers and Law Reform Committee considered the delegated powers provisions in the Welfare Funds (Scotland) Bill as amended at Stage 2 ("the Bill")¹. The Committee submits this report to the Parliament under Rule 9.7.9 of Standing Orders.

2. In outline, the Bill is designed to make provision for the establishment of welfare funds which will be maintained by local authorities. Welfare funds will operate on a discretionary basis, and are intended to (1) provide a safety net in an emergency when there is an immediate threat to health and safety and (2) enable people to live, or to continue to live, independently preventing the need for institutional care.

3. The Policy Memorandum notes that this Bill, together with associated regulations and guidance which will be produced in due course, are designed to set out arrangements which have been in place on an interim basis since April 2013 ("the interim scheme"). Following abolition by the Department for Work and Pensions of elements of its Discretionary Social Fund covering this type of relief, funding for Scotland was transferred to the Scottish Government to establish systems. This led to the establishment of the interim scheme, currently administered by local authorities under section 20 of the Local Government in Scotland Act 2003.

4. The Scottish Government now wishes to legislate to put the interim scheme on a permanent footing. The Scotland Act 1998 (Modification of Schedule 5) (No. 2) Order 2013 ("the Order") widened the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament to enable it to legislate on the provision of local welfare assistance.

5. The Scottish Government has provided the Parliament with a supplementary memorandum on the delegated powers provisions in the Bill, in advance of Stage 3 of the Bill (“the SDPM”).

6. The Committee reported on certain matters in relation to the delegated powers provisions in the Bill at Stage 1 in its 57th report of 2014.

DELEGATED POWERS PROVISIONS

7. The Committee considered each of the new or substantially amended delegated powers provisions in the Bill after Stage 2.

8. After Stage 2, the Committee reports that it does not need to draw the attention of the Parliament to the new or substantially amended delegated powers provisions listed below and that it is content with the Parliamentary procedure to which they are subject:

- Section 4(2C) and (5) – Review of decisions by local authority
- Section 5(1) – Further provision
- Section 7(3) – Commencement
- the powers of the Scottish Ministers to issue guidance contained in section 6 as amended
- the powers of the Ombudsman to make rules contained in new section 6D(5) to (7).

9. The Committee therefore reports that it is content with the provisions in the Bill which have been amended at Stage 2 to insert or substantially alter provisions conferring powers to make subordinate legislation and other delegated powers.
