The undernoted are comments from North East Scotland College:

- SQA is a highly professional organisation
- SQA helps actualise the Scottish Government’s educational aspirations very successfully
- SQA is very responsive to the needs of colleges and other stakeholders
- SQA provides a system of high quality qualifications that are essential to the college sector (as well as to the school sector)
- SQA promotes equality of opportunity in education very successfully
- SQA has been instrumental in embedding soft transferable skills into educational programmes