

Young Scot submission of 14 December 2022

PE1939/C: Amend the date of birth to allow wider accessibility to the HPV vaccination programme for boy

Young Scot does not have an organisational opinion on this matter, and we are not in a position to offer a detailed response.

If any members of the Citizen Participation and Public Petitions Committee would like to discuss engaging young people on this topic, then we would be delighted to have a discussion.