29 April 2022

Dear Sir Oliver

Thank you for your letter dated 8 April 2022, inviting the Parliament to nominate two Members to attend as observers at the inaugural meeting of the UK-EU Parliamentary Partnership Assembly in Brussels on 12-13 May.

The Parliament will be pleased to send two Members to attend. The Members selected are Clare Adamson MSP and Donald Cameron MSP, who are, respectively, Convener and Deputy Convener of the Constitution, Europe, External Affairs and Culture Committee.

In the event that either Member is unable to attend, the Parliament has also selected two alternate Members, who are Alasdair Allan MSP and Sarah Boyack MSP, both of whom are also members of that same committee.

The Members attending will welcome early contact with the delegation staff on practical arrangements and will welcome your assurance that papers will be provided to them in advance of the meeting.

Clerks to the Constitution, Europe, External Affairs and Culture Committee will provide support to the Members attending. Your officials can contact the clerks at: ceeac.committee@parliament.scot

I look forward to hearing about the meeting and will be pleased to continue to be kept informed as the work of the Assembly progresses.

Yours sincerely

Rt Hon Alison Johnstone MSP
Presiding Officer
