Agenda item1

Welcome

- Foyso! Choudhury MSP welcomed CPG Members and set out purpose of meeting i.e planning for the year ahead and ways of moving forward as a group; setting out how many meetings CPG should aim to have for the year ahead, topics to cover; encouraging presentations to be done in person if possible; reminded purpose of CPG and clarified some aspects of the CPG operation.
- Previous minutes agreed

Agenda item 2: Update from CPG Convenor

- Foyso! provided updates on recent hate crime report Tell Mama Report 2025 Tell Mama report
- Convenor reminded CPG members that group was open to any organisation, individuals who wish to talk on issues impacting communities whether racial or religious by nature; further noting we need to tackle issues of prejudice together.
- Foyso! further emphasised the door is open to all organisations who would like to cover a topic and do a presentation with advice that any press release should ensure information provided is correct to any misinformation in public domain; CPG cannot endorse reports as such but is there to listen and support any research findings.
- Reminded group that this is a non-political group.

Agenda item 3: Discussion

- Ephraim noted that focus of CPG meeting was on Hindu community in Scotland – unfortunate that Ghandi Foundation were not able to attend and provide an update.
- Hinduphobia item scheduled for this meeting to be postponed at later date when organisation is able to lead on it.
- Noted need to fix items of business for rest of the year
- Members noted good work of Scottish Hindu Foundation – which acts as umbrella body for smaller organisations.
- CPG members emphasised importance of listening to all with the CPG open to anyone who wished to contribute and importance of respecting each other's opinions.
- Convenor noted need to recognise that various community groups will have common experiences they face – need to set common grounds and build on how to best tackle these issues in unison as a group.
- Issues should not be compartmentalised but rather complement one another – to be in line with purpose of CPG.

- Ephraim noted that issues can be presented from various religious groups so that Non-Muslim Communities have an accurate picture of islamophobia, for non-Hindus to know issues regarding Hinduphobia and non-Jewish be aware of issues within Jewish communities – to create community integration, harmony and understanding of each other's experiences.
- Need to understand each other's issues and tackle them collectively

Agenda item 4: CPG Priorities/Roadmap for 2025

- New Secretariat: Peter Hopkins stepped down, looking to secure a New Secretariat – To be confirmed as soon as possible.
- New members can get in touch with Convenor to join the CPG
- Bring unheard voices from communities who are facing similar abuse and discrimination
- CPG to invite Sikh communities – one or two Gurdwaras
- Work in unison and establish common themes to tackle prejudice as a CPG.
- Intersectional approach: Member noted need to discuss issue of discrimination in a more intersectional way. Issue of discrimination against people seeking asylum raised – with need to address underrepresented people who do not have agency.
- Academic from Aberdeen University noted growing number of asylum seekers in Aberdeenshire - who are facing daily discrimination, noting rise of Police harassment and systematic discrimination against minority groups. Currently publishing an article. – issue to be considered on the Agenda at next meetings.
- Ongoing Israeli Gaza conflict and rise of Anti-Semitism and Islamophobia raised.
- Edinburgh University Equality Representation noted good initiative taken by Edinburgh University sending out email to staff with guidelines on how to support Muslim colleagues during Ramadan –
- Noted issue of mainstream media representations and wording used -what action is the Scottish Government taking?

Actions/Follow-ups
