16 (1) Section 100 of the 2005 Act (notices, applications etc.) is modified as follows.

(2) After subsection (5), insert—

5 “(5A) Subsection (5B) applies where OSCR has cause to believe that giving or making a formal communication to a charity by the means specified in subsection (4)(b) or (5)(b) will not cause it to be received by the charity or, as the case may be, the charity trustee whose name is set out in the charity’s entry in the Register.

10 (5B) The communication may also be given or made by OSCR sending it by post in a prepaid registered letter, or by the recorded delivery service, addressed to the charity at such address or addresses as OSCR considers is likely to cause it to be received by the charity or a charity trustee of the charity.”.
