Good Food Nation (Scotland) Bill
[AS INTRODUCED]

An Act of the Scottish Parliament to require the Scottish Ministers to prepare and publish a national good food nation plan; to require certain authorities to prepare and publish their own good food nation plans; and to provide as to the effect of all of those plans.

National good food nation plan

5  1 Requirement to produce plan

   (1) The Scottish Ministers must—
       (a) publish, and
       (b) lay before the Scottish Parliament,
       a national good food nation plan.

   (2) Subsection (1) must be complied with before the end of the period of 12 months beginning with the day on which this section comes into force.

   (3) The national good food nation plan must set out—
       (a) the main outcomes in relation to food-related issues which the Scottish Ministers want to be achieved in relation to Scotland,
       (b) indicators or other measures by which progress in achieving the outcomes may be assessed, and
       (c) the policies which the Scottish Ministers intend to pursue in order to secure the achievement of the outcomes.

   (4) The national good food nation plan may include such other material in relation to food-related issues as the Scottish Ministers consider appropriate.

   (5) In determining the content of the national good food nation plan, the Scottish Ministers must have regard, among other things, to the scope for food-related issues to affect outcomes in relation to—
       (a) social and economic wellbeing,
       (b) the environment,
       (c) health, and
       (d) economic development.
2  Preparation of plan: consultation

(1) In preparing the national good food nation plan, the Scottish Ministers must—

(a) publish, and consult on, a draft of the plan, and

(b) have regard to any responses to the consultation.

(2) The persons consulted under subsection (1)(a) are to be those who the Scottish Ministers consider appropriate.

3  Preparation of plan: consideration of international instruments

(1) In preparing the national good food nation plan, the Scottish Ministers must have regard to the international instruments listed in subsection (2).

(2) Those instruments are—

(a) Article 11 (so far as it concerns adequate food) of the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights,

(b) Article 24(2)(c) (so far as it concerns the provision of adequate nutritious foods) of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child,

(c) Articles 27(1) and (3) (so far as they concern nutrition) of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child,

(d) Article 12(2) (so far as it as concerns adequate nutrition during pregnancy and lactation) of the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women.

(3) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations modify the list in subsection (2) so as to add, remove or vary a reference to an international instrument.

(4) The provision which may be made by regulations under subsection (3) includes—

(a) limiting the extent of an international instrument to a particular matter,

(b) providing that a reference to an international instrument is a reference to that instrument as it has effect—

(i) at a particular time, or

(ii) as amended from time to time.

4  Effect of plan

The Scottish Ministers must, when exercising a specified function or a function falling within a specified description, have regard to the national good food nation plan.

5  Reporting

(1) As soon as practicable after the end of each reporting period, the Scottish Ministers must—

(a) publish, and

(b) lay before the Scottish Parliament,

a report setting out progress made in the reporting period towards achieving the outcomes set out in the national good food nation plan, by reference to the indicators or other measures contained in the plan by virtue of section 1(3)(b).
The report may include such other material in relation to food-related issues as the Scottish Ministers consider appropriate.

In this section, “reporting period” means—

(a) the period of 2 years beginning with the day on which section 1(1) is complied with, and

(b) each subsequent period of 2 years.

6 Review and revision of plan

(1) Before the end of—

(a) the period of 5 years beginning with the day on which section 1(1) is complied with, and

(b) each subsequent period of 5 years,

the Scottish Ministers must review the national good food nation plan.

(2) Following a review, the Scottish Ministers may revise the plan as they consider appropriate.

(3) Sections 1(3) to (5), 2 and 3(1) apply in relation to revising the plan as they apply in relation to the preparation of the plan in the first place.

(4) As soon as practicable after revising the plan, the Scottish Ministers must—

(a) publish, and

(b) lay before the Scottish Parliament,

the plan as so revised.

Good food nation plans of public bodies

7 Requirements to produce plans

(1) Each relevant authority must publish a good food nation plan.

(2) In this Act, a “relevant authority” is—

(a) a health board,

(b) a local authority,

(c) a specified public authority.

(3) Subsection (1) must be complied with—

(a) in the case of a health board or local authority, before the end of the period of 12 months beginning with the day on which this section comes into force,

(b) otherwise, before the end of the period specified in relation to the authority concerned.

(4) A relevant authority’s good food nation plan must set out—

(a) the main outcomes in relation to food-related issues which the relevant authority wants to be achieved within the relevant authority’s areas of responsibility,

(b) indicators or other measures by which progress in achieving the outcomes may be assessed, and
(c) the policies which the relevant authority intends to pursue in order to secure the achievement of the outcomes.

(5) A relevant authority’s good food nation plan may include such other material in relation to food-related issues as the relevant authority considers appropriate.

(6) In determining the content of its good food nation plan, a relevant authority must have regard, among other things, to the scope for food-related issues to affect outcomes in relation to—

(a) social and economic wellbeing,

(b) the environment,

(c) health, and

(d) economic development.

8 Preparation of plans: consultation

(1) In preparing a good food nation plan under section 7, a relevant authority must—

(a) publish, and consult on, a draft of the plan, and

(b) have regard to any responses to the consultation.

(2) Those consulted under subsection (1)(a) are to be those who the relevant authority considers appropriate.

9 Preparation of plans: consideration of national plan

In preparing a good food nation plan under section 7, a relevant authority must have regard to the national good food nation plan.

10 Effect of plans

A relevant authority must, when exercising a specified function or a function falling within a specified description, have regard to the relevant authority’s good food nation plan.

11 Reporting

(1) As soon as practicable after the end of each reporting period, a relevant authority must publish a report setting out progress made in the reporting period towards achieving the outcomes set out in its good food nation plan, by reference to the indicators or other measures contained in its plan by virtue of section 7(4)(b).

(2) The report may include such other material in relation to food-related issues as the relevant authority considers appropriate.

(3) In this section, “reporting period” means—

(a) the period of 2 years beginning with the day on which section 7(1) is complied with by the relevant authority, and

(b) each subsequent period of 2 years.
12 Review and revision of plans

(1) Before the end of—

(a) the period of 5 years beginning with the day on which section 7(1) is complied with by it, and

(b) each subsequent period of 5 years,

a relevant authority must review its good food nation plan.

(2) Following a review, the relevant authority may revise the plan as the relevant authority considers appropriate.

(3) Sections 7(4) to (6), 8 and 9 apply in relation to revising the plan as they apply in relation to the preparation of the plan in the first place.

(4) As soon as practicable after revising the plan, a relevant authority must publish the plan as so revised.

Interpretation

13 Meaning of “food-related issue”

(1) In this Act, “food-related issue” means—

(a) a food matter, or

(b) any other matter connected with—

(i) the availability of food,

(ii) the production, processing or distribution of food,

(iii) the preparation or service of food for consumers.

(2) In subsection (1), “food” and “food matter” have the same meanings as in the Food (Scotland) Act 2015 (see, respectively, sections 53(1) and 54 of that Act).

14 Other defined expressions

(1) In this Act—

“the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women” means the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women adopted and opened for signature, ratification and accession by General Assembly resolution 34/180 of 18 December 1979,

“health board” means a board constituted under section 2(1)(a) of the National Health Service (Scotland) Act 1978,

“the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights” means the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights adopted and opened for signature, ratification and accession by General Assembly resolution 2200A (XXI) of 16 December 1966,

“international instrument”—

(a) means—

(i) any treaty, convention or other international legislative instrument, or

(ii) any document issued by an international organisation for the purpose of giving guidance to states, and
(b) includes any provision of such an instrument, “international organisation” means an organisation and its subordinate bodies governed by international law, or any other body which is set up by, or on the basis of, an agreement between two or more states, “public authority” means a person who is—
(a) a part of the Scottish Administration, or
(b) a Scottish public authority with mixed functions or no reserved functions
(within the meaning of the Scotland Act 1998),
“relevant authority” has the meaning given in section 7(2),
“specified” means specified in regulations made by the Scottish Ministers,
“the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child” means the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child adopted and opened for signature, ratification and accession by General Assembly resolution 44/25 of 20 November 1989.

(2) A reference in this Act to an international instrument is, unless the reference contains contrary provision, a reference to the instrument as it has effect when section 3 comes into force.

Ancillary provision

15 \textbf{Ancillary provision}
