Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Members' Business motions that have achieved cross party support

S5M-01369 Ross Thomson: Abertay Shortlisted for University of the Year—That the Parliament congratulates the staff and students of Abertay University on it being shortlisted for University of the Year in the Times Higher Education Awards 2016; commends the staff and students on the hard work and effort that has gone into making Abertay University a truly world-class institution; notes that it is one of just six universities in the UK to be nominated for what it considers is the university sector's most prestigious award, and wishes it the very best at the awards ceremony on 24 November 2016 and for continued success in the future.

Supported by: Jeremy Balfour*, Bill Kidd*, Murdo Fraser*, Oliver Mundell*, Alison Harris*, Peter Chapman*, Richard Lyle*, Miles Briggs*, Jackie Baillie*, Donald Cameron*, Margaret Mitchell*, Douglas Ross*, John Lamont*, Liam Kerr*, Alexander Burnett*, Annie Wells*, Liz Smith*

S5M-01340 Ross Thomson: Ferryhill Railway Heritage Trust—That the Parliament congratulates Ferryhill Railway Heritage Trust (FRHT) on being awarded a total of £32,000 from the Railway Heritage Trust and Historic Environment Scotland to carry out restoration work on the A-listed steel turntable at the former Ferryhill power depot; notes that the turntable, which dates back to 1907, is one of only three remaining in Scotland; believes that, when it is brought back into operation, it will enable more steam trains to visit the north east and provide a potential boost for tourism in the area, and acknowledges the work and effort of the volunteers who, through the FRHT, have so far raised 80% of the funding needed to meet what it considers their ambitious plans.

S5M-01290 Margaret Mitchell: The Standing Safe Campaign—That the Parliament welcomes the campaign Standing Safe, which is being launched by the University of the West of Scotland on 14 September 2016; understands that the campaign is a student-staff partnership initiative raising awareness about and warning against sexual violence on campus; notes that the campaign states that incidents of sexual violence have seen an upward trend in Scotland since records began in 1971; acknowledges that the campaign, which will be led by students across the university's different schools and supported by the university's senior management, the Dean of Students, Student Services, SAUWS and Student Ambassadors, aims to address peer-on-peer violence in universities; recognises that it has established a number of external links, including with Lanarkshire Rape Crisis Scotland and NHS Lanarkshire, with the purpose of working collaboratively through focus groups and student-led workshops to tackle sexual violence on campuses and the harmful attitudes that underpin it; further understands that a collaboration with local artists as a means of providing the students with learning experiences is planned; wishes all those involved in the campaign success across all the university's campuses, including the campus in Hamilton, and notes the view that other university campuses across Scotland would benefit from a similar campaign.

Members' Business motions that have not achieved cross party support

S5M-01367 Iain Gray: Fifth Anniversary of Leuchie House—That the Parliament notes that the national respite centre, Leuchie House in North Berwick, celebrated five years as an independent charity on 4 July 2016; congratulates Leuchie on five years of providing essential short respite breaks to people and their families from across Scotland who are living with multiple sclerosis, Parkinson's disease and other long-term neurological conditions; notes that Leuchie provides an average of 6,100 respite days each year and over 700 anticipatory interventions, significantly reducing the need for crisis care and improving the health and wellbeing of people with long-term conditions; considers that everyone with a long-term condition, and the people who care for them, should have access to regular short breaks, and notes calls for the Scottish Government to ensure that adequate funding is made available for respite breaks as part of the integration of Scotland's health and social care services and the implementation of the Carers (Scotland) Act 2016.

S5M-01360 Sandra White: Welfare Conditionality Study—That the Parliament notes with concern the first wave findings of the welfare conditionality study that was carried out by researchers from several leading universities, including the University of Glasgow and was presented to MSPs on 7 September 2016; understands that it found universally-negative experiences of conditionality, which it reported as creating both "widespread anxiety and feelings of disempowerment" among service users and leading some people to turn to crime in order to survive because of the sanctions that they faced; recognises the report's conclusion that the common thread linking stories of successful transition to work was the availability of individual support rather than the threat of sanctions; notes that the report includes what it considers to be deeply disturbing service users' accounts of the conditionality; understands that some described the system as "intimidating, dehumanising and disempowering"; congratulates the University of Glasgow and the other researchers on what it considers to be its important work, and looks forward to the next wave of findings being published.

Supported by: Ben Macpherson*, Joan McAlpine*, Richard Lyle*, John Finnie*, Tom Arthur*, Ash Denham*, David Torrance*, Stuart McMillan*, Jenny Gilruth*

S5M-01360.1 Alison Johnstone: Welfare Conditionality Study—As an amendment to motion S5M-01360 in the name of Sandra White (Welfare Conditionality Study) after "important work," insert "recognises that the devolution of employment programmes from April 2017 offers opportunities for the number of benefit sanctions to be reduced,"

S5M-01348 Alex Johnstone: Stolen Valour—That the Parliament acknowledges and honours the continuing contribution made to communities by armed forces veterans in the north east of Scotland and across the country; notes with grave concern however, that some individuals have chosen to fraudulently claim that they have served in the armed forces and have been found to wear military regalia and medals to which they are not entitled and includes making false claims to have been involved in specific theatres of conflict and incidents; notes that those making such claims are known among genuine veterans as "Walter Mittys", and expresses serious concern that the activities of these individuals may have a negative impact on those who have genuinely served their country in the armed forces, as well as the many excellent charities and organisations that work tirelessly to help and support the many thousands of real heroes in Scotland.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S5M-01378 Joan McAlpine: Dr G Bernard Worrell Jr—That the Parliament notes with great sadness the death of Bernie Worrell, who co-wrote the 1985 hit, Over the Sea, with the Scottish musician, Jesse Rae; acknowledges that Bernie was celebrated for his talent as a keyboardist, was a Rock and Roll Hall of Fame inductee and Grammy-nominated artist; recognises Bernie's influence and contribution to the music industry in the United States, particularly the genres of funk, classical, rock and hip-hop; understands that Bernie first came to prominence as a founding member and musical director of Parliament/Funkadelic, was later a keyboardist with Talking Heads and produced many solo albums; further understands that Bernie featured in the music video for Over the Sea, which is credited by his contemporaries for inspiring scenes in the movies, Highlander and Braveheart; recognises the contribution that Bernie has made to the culture and musical heritage of Scotland, and honours him in this respect.

Supported by: Ruth Maguire*, Bill Kidd*, Sandra White*, Graeme Dey*

S5M-01376 Rona Mackay: Martin Hickman's Paralympic Debut—That the Parliament congratulates Martin Hickman from Lennoxton on being selected to play 7-a-side football for Team GB at the Paralympic Games; notes that he has represented Scotland on the international stage for nearly four years and is now set to make his Paralympic debut at Rio 2016; acknowledges that Martin, who has cerebral palsy, is an inspiration to other people with the condition, and wishes him and other Paralympians the best of luck over the coming weeks.

Supported by: Bill Kidd*, Joan McAlpine*, Miles Briggs*, Richard Lyle*, Ben Macpherson*, Alexander Burnett*, Bruce Crawford*, Margaret Mitchell*, Sandra White*, Alison Harris*

S5M-01375 Ben Macpherson: 10th Anniversary of Edinburgh Crisis Centre—That the Parliament recognises the 10th anniversary of the Leith based charity, the Edinburgh Crisis Centre, which held a celebratory event on 6 September 2016; understands that the charity provides community-based, emotional and practical support at times of crisis to people who are using or have used mental health services and are resident in Edinburgh; notes that the centre works in partnership with NHS Lothian, the City of Edinburgh Council, Edinburgh Carers Council, Edinburgh Crisis Centre Users and Penumbra; welcomes the services that the centre provides, which include a freefone helpline, face-to-face support and access to a wide range of information; acknowledges that the centre aims to give people an alternative to hospital and works in a preventative way with people facing an acute crisis; thanks all the staff and volunteers at the centre for their hard work over the last 10 years, and welcomes the support that the centre will continue to provide to people across Edinburgh.

Supported by: Kenneth Gibson*, Bill Kidd*, Joan McAlpine*, Jeremy Balfour*, Richard Lyle*, Bruce Crawford*, Sandra White*

S5M-01374 Christine Grahame: Paws on the Prom—That the Parliament recognises the sterling work of the Edinburgh Dog and Cat Home, which was founded in 1883 and will celebrate its 60th anniversary on its current site in 2017; congratulates all responsible for its recent event, Paws on the Prom, which took place in brilliant sunshine, was attended by over 500 people and provided an opportunity for potential pet owners to view some of the lovely cats and dogs needing rehomed; notes that, in 2015, it found new homes for 341 dogs and reunited 378 with worried families, as well as rehoming 121 cats and reuniting 10; further notes that it does all this with funding only from donations and the support of the community, and congratulates all of its volunteers and staff for the day and night commitment to cats and dogs in need.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Kenneth Gibson*, John Finnie*, Ben Macpherson*

S5M-01373 Gillian Martin: Aberdeenshire Council Calculates Cost of Brexit—That the Parliament recognises the statement made on 9 September 2016 by Aberdeenshire Council regarding the potential loss of £11 million in secured European funding due to the Brexit vote and a potential negative impact on key projects for the region that are beneficial to the fishing and food and drink sectors, help tackle poverty and that support local businesses.

S5M-01371 Iain Gray: Scottish School Cook of the Year 2016—That the Parliament congratulates Maria Millar of East Lothian Council, who works at Knox Academy in Haddington, on being named Scottish School Cook of the Year 2016; notes that she beat off strong competition from six other school cooks from all over Scotland in the final, which took place at the Cook School Scotland in Crosshouse and challenged each cook to create a main dish and dessert in under 90 minutes for a maximum cost of £1.60; understands that her winning menu consisted of a chicken enchilada with coleslaw and strawberry cheesecake made with various locally-sourced ingredients, and praises all of East Lothian Council's school cookery staff for the nutritious and healthy school meals they produce for local children.

S5M-01370 Ben Macpherson: Edinburgh Direct Aid Renews Call to Help Syrian Refugees—That the Parliament congratulates Edinburgh Direct Aid (EDA), which is a charity based in the Edinburgh Northern and Leith constituency, on its work in the last 24 years delivering aid to people in other countries; notes that its current work is helping more than 70,000 Syrian refugees in Lebanon; welcomes Qatar Red Crescent's (QRC) agreement to cover shipping costs, which will allow EDA to send a greater amount of vital clothing and equipment to the refugee camp in Arsal; understands that, by covering the transportation fee, this has allowed EDA to send its seventh shipping container, weighing ten tonnes, to the camp on 5 September 2016; welcomes the support from QRC that has also allowed EDA to renew its call for additional warm winter clothing, as those in the camp prepare for temperatures of -10 C in winter; appreciates that EDA

The following instrument was laid before the Parliament on 9 September 2016 and is not subject to any parliamentary procedure—

Smoking Prohibition (Children in Motor Vehicles) (Scotland) Act 2016 (Commencement) Regulations 2016 (SSI 2016/259 (C.24))
laid under section 30(2) of the Interpretation and Legislative Reform (Scotland) Act 2010

Progress of Legislation

Bills

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Thursday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
