Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Members' Business motions that have achieved cross party support

S5M-03808 Bruce Crawford: Bonnie Prince Charlie Trail—That the Parliament welcomes the news that a Bonnie Prince Charlie Trail has been launched, which will highlight key locations of the famous Jacobite across Scotland; notes that tourist interest in the Young Pretender has increased thanks to the TV programme, Outlander; congratulates Doune Castle, near Stirling, on its selection as a principal filming location for Outlander and for its place on the new Bonnie Prince Charlie Trail; acknowledges that, to mark the 229th anniversary of Bonnie Prince Charlie's death, VisitScotland is spending £40,000 on a campaign to support tourist interest; considers that, through online videos, social media promotions and blogging, VisitScotland's campaign to increase interest in the Young Pretender and reach a wider digital audience will contribute to the success of 2017 as the Year of History, Heritage and Archaeology, and wishes Outlander and all of the selected locations the best of luck in showcasing Scotland's history.

S5M-03808.1 Iain Gray: Bonnie Prince Charlie Trail—As an amendment to motion S5M-03808 in the name of Bruce Crawford (Bonnie Prince Charlie Trail), insert at end ", but regrets that what it sees as significant relevant key historical sites have been omitted from the trail, including the Battle of Prestonpans, arguably the Young Pretender's most famous victory."

Supported by: David Stewart*

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S5M-04229 Stuart McMillan: Johnson's Brexit as Liberation Remarks —That the Parliament denounces the words of Boris Johnson, who is reported to have likened the UK withdrawal from the EU to "liberation"; is mindful of the history of oppression and authoritarian regimes in Europe,

Motions Gluasadan

of which the UK and Scotland played a significant role in ending, and acknowledges Swedish MEP Anna Maria Corazza Bildt's objections with sympathy; reiterates that Scotland voted by 62% to 38% to remain in the EU; calls on the Foreign Secretary to retract what it considers his offensive comment, and urges him to consider his words carefully as the UK, it considers, is about to embark on tearing Scotland and the UK away from the EU.

S5M-04228 Rachael Hamilton: Young Architect of Year Award for North Berwick

Architect—That the Parliament congratulates Robin Sutherland, a North Berwick-based architect, on being shortlisted for the Young Architect of Year Award; notes that the award is open to practices throughout the UK and Europe and only to those that have been practising for 12 years or less; recognises what it sees as the huge achievement in itself to be nominated for this prestigious award, and wishes Robin and Sutherland & Co Architects the best of luck.

Supported by: Ross Thomson*

S5M-04227 Tavish Scott: Tingwall Students Win Euroquiz Heat—That the Parliament congratulates the P6 pupils from Tingwall School on their victory in Shetland's local Euroquiz heat; understands that these pupils will now go on to represent Shetland at the national final in May 2017, which are to be held at the Parliament; notes that the quiz consisted of four rounds of questions on geography, language, culture, history and general knowledge of Europe; further notes that the Tingwall team faced stiff competition from pupils from Aith in a tense final round before securing victory; applauds the participants from Dunrossness, Cunningsburgh, Mid Yell, Aith and Sandwick schools for their excellent efforts, and commends all participants for their admirable display of knowledge of Europe.

Supported by: Richard Lyle*, Jeremy Balfour*, Edward Mountain*, Liam McArthur*

S5M-04226 Angus MacDonald: Edinburgh to Glasgow Railway Line 175th

Anniversary—That the Parliament recognises the 175th anniversary of the Edinburgh to Glasgow railway line, which runs through Polmont in the Falkirk East constituency; understands that the line opened on 21 February 1842 and is now a vital link between the nation's capital and its largest city; considers that, as of 2016, seven million passenger journeys were completed on the line, an average of 62 services every weekday, which shows the progress made since the four services per day in each direction in 1842; further recognises that Scotland's rail network, as it stands today, is still based on the infrastructure put in place in the Victorian era; notes what it sees as the comprehensive plans put in place by the Scottish Government, including the electrification of the railway and the Edinburgh Glasgow Improvement Programme (EGIP), will see improvements to that infrastructure, giving Scotland a modern rail service for the 21st century, offering faster, more efficient services and major improvements for passengers, and commends the Scottish Government for providing what it considers are the improvements needed for passengers across the country.

Supported by: Stuart McMillan*, Clare Haughey*, Rona Mackay*, Richard Lyle*, John Mason*, Kenneth Gibson*, Sandra White*, Bill Kidd*, Ruth Maguire*

S5M-04225 Gail Ross: Tain Royal Academy—That the Parliament congratulates the pupils from Tain Royal Academy who won the Highland Hospice Young Apprentice competition, which was run by Highland Hospice and the Social Enterprise Academy; notes that 15 teams from 11 schools across the Highlands were tasked with developing a business for hospice that would deliver a 2:1 return, and understands that the Tain team won a £750 prize that will help boost the school's funds.

Supported by: Jeremy Balfour*, Richard Lyle*, Donald Cameron*, Bill Kidd*, Emma Harper*, Ruth Maguire*, Stuart McMillan*, Clare Haughey*, Sandra White*

S5M-04224 Gail Ross: Scrabster Harbour—That the Parliament notes with appreciation that Scrabster harbour is set to welcome a record number of cruise liners in 2017, with 13 vessels due to arrive, which is one more than the previous 12 months; understands that this could lead to more than 6,000 passengers visiting; welcomes the boost to the area's economy that this might bring, and congratulates everyone at the harbour on their continued success in attracting the liners to the port.

S5M-04223 Bob Doris: Land Fund's Boost for Royston Regeneration—That the Parliament congratulates Copperworks Housing Association on being awarded £419,000 from the Scottish Government's Scottish Land Fund; understands that this will be used toward a transformational community land project that aims to breathe new life into the urban landscape of Royston; believes that the association is seeking to purchase neglected land into community ownership for them to be developed as green space areas for leisure, recreation and wellbeing activities; understands that the neglect of this land at Millburn Street, which is known locally as the Triangle Site, and a smaller area opposite the Millburn Centre has given the community much concern over several years; considers that the case for community ownership was strongly made by several partners in the Royston Regeneration Forum; welcomes the partnership approach taken by association along with several organisations in the area, including the Spire View Housing Association, the Rosemount Development Trust and the Blochairn Housing Association, and believes that the people of Royston and the various community organisations should take real pride in developing a grassroots approach that is already showing signs of success.

S5M-04222 Peter Chapman: Inverurie Station, Full Steam Ahead for Autism Award—That the Parliament welcomes Inverurie railway station's progress in its aim to become the first autism-friendly station in the UK; understands that it aims to raise awareness and understanding of autism in Aberdeen and Aberdeenshire through activities such as inviting a group of autistic volunteers to the station to talk about the challenges that they can face when travelling and station staff attending an awareness-raising session delivered by the National Autistic Society Scotland; recognises the positive impact this will have on people with autism in the north east, and supports the station in joining Aberdeen FC, Peterhead FC and Sport Aberdeen in committing to achieve its Autism Friendly Award.

Supported by: Maurice Corry*, Ross Thomson*, Margaret Mitchell*, John Lamont*, Alexander Stewart*, Liam Kerr*, Jamie Greene*, Jeremy Balfour*, Alison Harris*, Miles Briggs*, Kenneth Gibson*, Liz Smith*, Richard Lyle*, Donald Cameron*

S5M-04221 Bob Doris: TSB Branch Closure in Maryhill—That the Parliament expresses its dismay and concern at the announcement of further main street bank branch closures throughout Scotland; understands that the TSB is to close 17 branches, including its premises on Maryhill Road in Glasgow; notes that this announcement follows similar recent decisions impacting on Maryhill and Springburn constituency, with the closure of the Clydesdale Bank in Springburn and RBS branches in both Possilpark and Maryhill, believes that it is a major worry that this latest proposed closure will now leave the constituency without a single high street bank; considers that such closures impact disproportionately on people in deprived communities who are more likely to be both financially and digitally excluded; condemns what it sees as the practice of a major bank, yet again, withdrawing from a community without any meaningful consultation; agrees that such closures have the greatest detrimental effect on disabled, poor and older people as well as fragile small businesses; calls on the TSB to urgently review its decision to close the Maryhill branch; believes that, despite reduced footfall in some branches, there is an imperative to find a way of offering continuity of mainstream banking service provision in the poorest communities, and calls on all tiers of government to work in partnership with the banking sector to identify such a model and to consider introducing regulations that will support banks in meeting what it sees as their obligations to society.

Supported by: Clare Haughey*, Bill Kidd*, David Torrance*, Colin Beattie*, James Dornan*, Stuart McMillan*, Ash Denham*, Kenneth Gibson*, Richard Lyle*, John Mason*, Gillian Martin*, Sandra White*

S5M-04220 Jamie Greene: Commending the Charitable Efforts of Gary Pettigrew—That the Parliament applauds the charitable efforts of Gary Pettigrew of Port Glasgow who, in addition to his work as a personal trainer, has raised and donated £3,000 to the charity, Children in Poverty Inverclyde; underlines that these funds will help a great deal in tackling the child poverty in Inverclyde that unfortunately still exists, and recognises the selfless efforts of Gary, and others across the country who fundraise, as being in the true spirit of Scotland.

Supported by: Margaret Mitchell*, Jeremy Balfour*, Miles Briggs*, Stuart McMillan*, Donald Cameron*, John Lamont*, Peter Chapman*, Alexander Stewart*, Ross Thomson*

S5M-04219 Jamie Greene: Congratulating Port Glasgow Students—That the Parliament congratulates the students of Port Glasgow High School on winning the largest number of awards ever by a single school at the Inverclyde Music Festival; acknowledges that it was awarded 18 first-place victories and 14 second-places in various music and drama competitions at the festival, and applauds the guidance of staff and dedication and participation of students as contributing to the growth and future of Scottish culture.

Supported by: Richard Lyle*, Alexander Stewart*, Miles Briggs*, Margaret Mitchell*, Gordon Lindhurst*, John Lamont*, Colin Beattie*, Stuart McMillan*, David Torrance*, Jeremy Balfour*, Alison Harris*, Donald Cameron*, Liz Smith*, Ross Thomson*

S5M-04218 Jamie Greene: Congratulating React Basketball—That the Parliament congratulates React Basketball on receiving a £50,000 grant from the Young Start programme; recognises the work that it does in the community; notes that the grant will help to deliver a programme of basketball playing and coaching opportunities for up to 1,000 young people aged between 16 and 25 in Inverclyde; further notes that it provides youngsters with the chance to get involved in a range of volunteering opportunities for the group, and wishes all at React Basketball the best in its future endeavours.

Supported by: Maurice Corry*, Peter Chapman*, Miles Briggs*, Richard Lyle*, Liz Smith*, Alexander Stewart*, John Lamont*, Colin Beattie*, David Torrance*, Jeremy Balfour*, Alison Harris*, Donald Cameron*, Ross Thomson*

S5M-04217 Jamie Greene: Commending Step into Employment—That the Parliament commends the initiative by Step into Employment in Kilwinning, which sees students giving community groups a boost by filming a number of interviews to be screened on Town Centre TV; underlines that this not only offers valuable production skills to students across Ayrshire but also provides valuable experience of day-to-day work, which is transferable across industries, and welcomes similar employment training and experiences that help young people into work across Scotland.

S5M-04216 Jamie Greene: Congratulating Iona Duncan, Agnieszka Dudko and Katarzyna Hospodarewska—That the Parliament congratulates Iona Duncan, Agnieszka Dudko and Katarzyna Hospodarewska from Ayrshire College, who have recently made it through to the Country Range Student Chef Challenge after getting through the semi-final on 10 February 2017; recognises the great achievement shown by these talented individuals; underlines the fantastic guidance that their tutor, Ann-Marie Farr, has given them throughout the challenges, and wishes them luck in the final as they take on seven other teams on 15 March 2017 at the SECC in Glasgow.

Supported by: Liz Smith*, Maurice Corry*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Margaret Mitchell*, John Lamont*, Alexander Stewart*, Miles Briggs*, David Torrance*, Jeremy Balfour*, Alison Harris*, Donald Cameron*, Ross Thomson*

S5M-04215 Gil Paterson: Clydebank FC Tackles Refugee Integration—That the Parliament commends the work of Clydebank FC for helping to integrate Syrian refugees into the community; understands that the club has been inviting the "new Scots" along to regular football games to both spectate or play, with a view to helping them adapt to their new surroundings; acknowledges the community spirit of Davie McAleer, Clydebank FC Director, along with Eric Makhem, Giffnock Soccer Centre, who have spearheaded the move to help out the refugees who have settled in Clydebank; understands that the effort has been well received by both the Syrian refugees and local football players, and acknowledges Clydebank Co-operative and its chief executive, Fiona McInnes, for sponsoring the kit/equipment, along with Giffnock Soccer Centre and support from members of the local community.

S5M-04214 Jamie Greene: Congratulating John McGeehan—That the Parliament congratulates John McGeehan, who is a former pupil of St Mary's and Largs Academy in Largs, on his recent appointment as Professor of Structural Biology at the University of Portsmouth; recognises that his work, which is funded by the UK's Biotechnology and Biological Research Council and United States' National Science Foundation, will help develop sustainable fuel sources, and believes that this work will contribute to the long-term goal of greener energy sources.

S5M-04213 Richard Lochhead: Janis Thomson Receives British Citizen's Award—That the Parliament congratulates Janis Thomson from Kinloss in Moray, who was one of 29 people who were honoured with a British Citizen's Award at the Palace of Westminster during a ceremony in February 2017; understands that the awards scheme launched in 2015, with the aim of recognising exceptional "everyday" people, who work tirelessly and selflessly to make a positive impact on society and their local community and whose efforts may be overlooked; notes the vast amount of work that Janis has undertaken in the local community, including being Moray's Duke of Edinburgh officer, and her involvement with the community hall project at Kinloss Church, as well as her wider work, which has included hosting overseas students, swimming with disabled children every week, giving holidays to disadvantaged children for over 11 and supporting three boys through their education in Bangladesh; commends Janis for her efforts in supporting a host of different community groups and organisations, as well as her positive attitude and determination to help others, and wishes her all the best in her future community work.

Supported by: James Dornan*, Richard Lyle*, Douglas Ross*, Kenneth Gibson*, Joan McAlpine*, Colin Beattie*, David Torrance*, Gillian Martin*, Jeremy Balfour*

S5M-04212 Ross Greer: FIFA's Commitment to Human Rights—That the Parliament welcomes FIFA's commitment to human rights in Article 3 of its Statutes; eagerly awaits the outcome of the first meeting of the FIFA Human Rights Advisory Board in March 2017; considers that this new human rights commitment should lead to swift action to remedy human rights abuses associated with football, including what it sees as the horrendous abuse of migrant workers in preparations for the 2022 World Cup in Qatar and the participation in FIFA of the six Israeli football clubs based in illegal settlements in the occupied West Bank, Palestine; commends the Scottish football fans who boycotted the Scotland v Qatar game in protest at these human rights abuses, and calls on the Scottish Football Association and Scottish football clubs to boycott football clubs based in illegal settlements.

Supported by: Andy Wightman*, Anas Sarwar*

S5M-04211 Clare Haughey: Carewatch South Lanarkshire—That the Parliament congratulates the domiciliary care provider, Carewatch South Lanarkshire, on its quality of care, support and staffing being graded "Excellent" in a recent Care Inspectorate report; understands that it supports older or vulnerable people with conditions including dementia, learning disabilities, mental health problems and physical disabilities; welcomes the extremely positive feedback that was provided by its clients; understands that the service users commended it for including them in the staff selection process and care planning and for the various improvements to the service, and wishes Carewatch South Lanarkshire continued success and progress.

Supported by: Margaret Mitchell*, Alison Harris*, Joan McAlpine*, Richard Lyle*, Sandra White*, Bill Kidd*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Colin Beattie*, David Torrance*, Clare Adamson*

S5M-04210 Angus MacDonald: Revive Falkirk—That the Parliament congratulates Revive Falkirk on it being awarded £97,633 from round 3 of the Climate Challenge Fund; recognises that the fund in 2017-18 is made up from £9.09 million from the Scottish Government and £880,000 from the European Regional Development Fund; understands that Revive Falkirk, which is an initiative run by Forth Environment Link, aims to develop a new community reuse space in the town centre to breathe new life into old or unwanted items; understands that it will put carbon savings at the forefront of delivering innovation in reuse and retailing by transforming items that would otherwise be condemned to landfill, and wishes everyone involved in the project success.

Supported by: James Dornan*, Richard Lyle*, Graeme Dey*, Clare Haughey*, Emma Harper*, Ruth Maguire*, Elaine Smith*, Kenneth Gibson*, Sandra White*, Bill Kidd*, Colin Beattie*, David Torrance*, Clare Adamson*, Stuart McMillan*

S5M-04209 Angus MacDonald: Re-Union Canal Boats—That the Parliament congratulates the Falkirk-based canal-side social enterprise, Re-Union Canal Boats, on it being awarded £62,215 from round 3 of the Climate Challenge Fund; recognises the importance of the Scottish Government working together with the European Regional Development Fund to provide opportunities for groups seeking to tackle climate change in innovative and unconventional projects; understands that it will use the funding to run activities on and off the water, offer education on the impacts of climate change and the ways to reduce carbon emissions and deliver activities through the Re-Cycling with Re-Union Canal Boats project, which will include extensive

Bills

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
