Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Motions for Debate

S5M-03761 Angela Constance: Prevention and Eradication of Female Genital Mutilation and all Other Forms of so-called Honour-based Violence—That the Parliament recognises 6 February as the International Day of Zero Tolerance for Female Genital Mutilation (FGM); is clear that FGM, along with all other forms of violence perpetrated against women under the guise of gender, culture or religion, so-called honour-based violence, is a violation of the human rights of women and girls; acknowledges that a preventative, supportive and legislative approach is crucial to tackling, preventing and eradicating FGM; recognises that communities and individuals affected by honour-based violence must be at the heart of work to effect significant social, cultural and attitudinal change over the long term, and welcomes the positive engagement and ongoing partnership approach across the police, NHS, education, social services, third sector and community-based organisations, in taking forward the actions from Scotland's National Action Plan to Prevent and Eradicate FGM.

Supported by: Kevin Stewart*, Jeane Freeman*

S5M-03748 Fiona Hyslop: Celebrating Our Past: Scotland's Year of History, Heritage and Archaeology—That the Parliament recognises the contribution that Scotland's Themed Years play in celebrating and promoting some of its greatest assets; welcomes the 2017 Year of History, Heritage and Archaeology and the opportunities that it provides to celebrate Scotland's rich and vibrant history and heritage with the people of Scotland and visitors alike, and acknowledges the social, cultural and economic benefits that can be realised by harnessing the opportunities offered by the Year of History, Heritage and Archaeology to raise the profile of Scotland, both nationally and internationally, as a world-class tourism destination.

Government to ensure that tourism and development agencies are adequately funded and resourced."

S5M-03748.1 Lewis Macdonald: Celebrating Our Past: Scotland's Year of History, Heritage and Archaeology—As an amendment to motion S5M-03748 in the name of Fiona Hyslop (Celebrating Our Past: Scotland's Year of History, Heritage and Archaeology), insert at end ", and considers that adequate funding of local authorities, Historic Environment Scotland and other relevant agencies will be essential to maintain the quality and accessibility of museums, galleries and heritage sites in 2017 and beyond."

Members' Business motions that have not achieved cross party support

S5M-03760 Brian Whittle: New Recruits at WG13—That the Parliament recognises the latest group of recruits to begin their training at WG13 in Kilmarnock; understands that WG13 is a social enterprise café/restaurant operated by CVO East Ayrshire (CVOEA), and is designed to address the lack of employment and training opportunities for young people by giving them experience of working in a commercial environment and the opportunity to gain accredited qualifications provided by Ayrshire College, with the aim of moving these young people into permanent employment in the hospitality and leisure sector; believes that the co-operation between CVOEA and Ayrshire College to provide training and support to young people, who might have struggled in traditional education, can drastically improve life prospects, and highlights the value of public and private organisations working in partnership with the third sector; thanks the staff of WG13 and CVOEA for their efforts to support these young people; commends the latest group of recruits for signing up to the training course, and wishes them every success for their futures.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Jamie Greene*, Jeremy Balfour*, Maurice Corry*, Margaret Mitchell*, Liz Smith*, Murdo Fraser*, Ross Thomson*, Peter Chapman*, John Lamont*, Alexander Stewart*

S5M-03750 John Lamont: Congratulations to Rotary District 1020 and Other Champions of Change Winners—That the Parliament praises the excellent work of Rotary clubs across Scotland in delivering projects to improve their local area and beyond, as well as providing friendship and support for their members; congratulates Rotary District 1020 on being awarded two out of 12 Rotary Champions of Change awards in 2016 for humanitarian service; understands that Grant Stephen of the Rotary Club of Duns was commended for setting up and running the Dementia Café in Duns and Robin Hamilton of the Rotary Club of Dunbar received an award for his project in India providing sanitation at schools in the Kalimpong district; notes that the 2017 Champions of Change awards ceremony will be taking place in April and will once again recognise unsung heroes in domestic and international categories; further notes that the Rotary Club of Galashiels has recently delivered 15 analogue breast screening lorries to India, in partnership with Indian Rotaries and led by local Rotarians, Patricia Paterson and Peter Croan; believes that the fantastic work of groups such as District 1020 and other Rotarians across Scotland makes a huge difference to local communities across Scotland and worldwide, and congratulates Rotary International, which is celebrating its 112th anniversary in 2017.

Supported by: Liam Kerr*, Miles Briggs*, Jeremy Balfour*, Jamie Greene*, Rachael Hamilton*, Liz Smith*, Donald Cameron*, Ross Thomson*, Alexander Stewart*, Margaret Mitchell*, Edward Mountain*, Liam McArthur*, Oliver Mundell*, Murdo Fraser*

S5M-03763 Murdo Fraser: Pitlochry Dam Visitor Centre Opening—That the Parliament welcomes the opening of the new Pitlochry Dam Visitor Centre on 6 February 2017; understands that the new £4 million centre has been in construction for over a year and will showcase SSE's history in hydro power; notes that there will be interactive displays, family-friendly activities, a café and boardroom; believes that the facility could give the local economy a significant boost and will add to the tourist offering in Highland Perthshire, and recognises that the new facility aims to attract around 88,000 visitors annually and will overlook the historic Pitlochry Dam and River Tummel.

S5M-03762 Richard Lyle: Uddingston Community Centre, Scottish Poppy Appeal 2016—That the Parliament congratulates the chair of Uddingston Community Centre, Sandra Smith, and the centre's management team on their fundraising efforts for the Scottish Poppy Appeal 2016; understands that their efforts in late 2016 resulted in them raising £851.52; notes that they worked together on a range of activities for Poppyscotland in order to help make a real difference to the lives of veterans and their families; wishes them all the best with their future endeavours; hopes that their efforts serve as a positive example of how to get involved, and encourages others to consider doing so during the 2017 appeal.

S5M-03759 Lewis Macdonald: State Visit of US President Donald Trump—That the Parliament recognises what it sees as the overwhelming public concern regarding the new immigration policy adopted by the President of the United States, Donald Trump; believes that his policy of banning entry to nationals of seven countries, namely Iraq, Iran, Libya, Somalia, Sudan, Syria and Yemen, contravenes global human rights conventions; considers this a discriminatory policy and believes that, as a result, he should not be accorded the privilege of a state visit to the UK while the ban remains in place, and demands that the Scottish Government should not involve itself in any such arrangements should a state visit be approved by the UK Government.

S5M-03756 Clare Adamson: McLean Family's Fundraising Display—That the Parliament commends the McLean family from Newmains, Bernadette McLean, John McLean and their son Johnathan Douglas, for raising £1600 for St. Andrew's Hospice; recognises that the McLean's decorated their home with an elaborate Christmas display containing thousands of lights and set up a box for donations from those who visited to view the display; further notes that Bernadette set up a special post-box with a direct link to Santa for local kids to post their letters, and that John dressed up as Santa every Saturday for four weeks leading up to Christmas to give gifts to youngsters who visited, in return for a donation to the charity from parents; congratulates the McLeans on their wonderful display of festive spirit, and wishes them the very best for the future.

Supported by: Gordon MacDonald*, Bill Kidd*, Clare Haughey*, James Dornan*

S5M-03755 Donald Cameron: Largest Sum Raised for Charity by Innellan Fundraisers—That the Parliament congratulates Janet McCormack and Dianne Richardson, who are from Innellan, Argyll, on raising £1,290 for the Bullwood Nature Trail; understands that Janet and Dianne raise money each year by organising a spectacular Christmas lights display at Bruan and donating money to a different local charity; recognises that the nature trail is a green community enterprise that is located in the mansion gardens of Alderwood and provides a supportive work environment for adults of varying abilities in a tranquil setting; notes that Christmas 2017 will be the 10th anniversary of the light display, and wishes Janet and Dianne all the very best for 2017 and future years.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Maurice Corry*, Margaret Mitchell*, Alexander Stewart*

S5M-03754 Alison Johnstone: Mel Young, Tackling Homelessness and Poverty through Sport—That the Parliament congratulates Mel Young, who is a co-founder of the Homeless World Cup and founder of The Big Issue Scotland, on receiving the 2016 Jackie Robinson Humanitarian Award at Edinburgh City Chambers; understands that the award, which is part of the United States Sports Academy's Awards of Sport, is presented to people who have made significant contributions to sport and demonstrated a concern for humanity; applauds Mel's ongoing work for the annual world cup tournament, which has helped over one million people across the world and which took place in Glasgow in 2016; notes that participants are either homeless, in a drug or alcohol rehabilitation programme and have been homeless in the last two years, making a living as a street newspaper vendor or are asylum seekers; shares Mel's concern at what it sees as the levels of poverty and homelessness that persist in Scotland, and commends Mel on his tireless efforts and conviction that homelessness and poverty in Scotland and globally can be ended.

S5M-03753 Pauline McNeill: United States Travel Ban—That the Parliament is deeply concerned about the President Trump's executive order signed on 27 January 2017 imposing a 90-day ban on entry to the United States by nationals from Iraq, Syria, Iran, Sudan, Libya, Somalia and Yemen, as well as suspending its refugee programme for 120 days and indefinitely banning Syrian refugees; is dismayed to learn of the difficulties caused for Hamaseh Tayari, a postgraduate veterinary student at the University of Glasgow, who was stranded in Costa Rica after being due to fly home via the United States but, due to her travelling with an Iranian passport,

S5M-03752 Bill Bowman: National HPV Vaccination Programme—That the Parliament believes that the public health case for including adolescent boys, as well as girls, in a national (Scottish) HPV vaccination programme is now irrefutable as it is the only certain way of protecting both sexes against a range of cancers and recurrent respiratory papillomatosis; considers that the current girls-only programme is inequitable and unfair as it leaves many males at risk and females to carry the burden of responsibility for vaccination; understands that gender-neutral vaccination has very wide support, including from the 44 member organisations of HPV Action, the BMA, Jo's Cervical Cancer Trust and the wide range of individual clinicians, scientists and other experts who recently signed an HPV Action statement calling for gender-neutral vaccination; awaits the Joint Committee on Vaccination and Immunisation's review of this issue, and calls on the Scottish Government to introduce HPV vaccination for both sexes as soon as possible.

S5M-03751 Gil Paterson: Disused Landmark Transformed to Fair Trade Shop—That the Parliament welcomes the transformation of the Milngavie landmark, Gavin's Mill, into a fair trade shop; understands that the organisation will be run by Gavin's Mill Community Project, a consortium from East Dunbartonshire's fair trade groups and that it will be open in Fairtrade Fortnight, which starts on 27 February 2017; further welcomes that there are also plans to develop the long disused B-listed building into a café/restaurant, healthy food store selling locally produced vegetables and a local heritage centre; notes that the new community-orientated venture will be stocked initially with products from Balmore Coach House in nearby Balmore, which is closing down due to its owners retiring and which is regarded as the UK's oldest fair trade shop; considers that the fair trade shop is a community asset and that it will be leased from the current owner with a view to buying; commends what it sees as the principled values behind Gavin's Mill Community Project, Milngavie Community Development Trust and Milngavie Heritage Centre, whose collaboration has led to the plan becoming a reality, and recognises the importance of trade between companies in developed countries and producers in developing countries in which fair prices are paid to the producers.

S5M-03749 Neil Findlay: DWP Office Closures—That the Parliament condemns the reported announcement by the Department for Work and Pensions to close hundreds of offices across the UK, including what it understands is over 20 offices in Scotland; considers that such proposals could put thousands of jobs at risk across the UK and would mean unemployed people having to travel further to get help getting back to work; believes that this will cause great difficulties for many staff members and will impact seriously on customer service, and supports the Public and Commercial Services Union in opposing the closures and its campaign to keep the sites open.

S5M-03744 Patrick Harvie: Tackling Air Quality in Glasgow—That the Parliament welcomes the consultation response from Friends of the Earth Scotland on the Scottish Government's Low Emission Strategy, which called for the planned 2018 pilot of a Low Emission Zone (LEZ) to be conducted in Glasgow; notes a report from Friends of the Earth, which identified 38 zones in Scotland's towns and cities where safe pollution limits are regularly broken, with Glasgow's Hope Street named joint worst with St John's Road in Edinburgh; further notes that Glasgow was named one of the worst cities in the UK for air pollution by the World Health Organization; also acknowledges the various studies that have linked air pollution to the early deaths of around 2,500 people in Scotland each year by exacerbating respiratory and heart conditions, and previous research, which showed that emissions can cause brain shrinkage; further acknowledges a new decade-long study that has found a link between living near busy roads and an increased risk of developing dementia; recognises that there are currently over 200 planned operational LEZs of various sizes across 13 other EU countries, and urges the Scottish Government to pilot the LEZ in Glasgow in order to improve air quality and health, improve fuel efficiency, reduce transport costs through more efficient vehicles and supporting existing plans to decarbonise road transport by 2050.

Progress of Legislation

Bills

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
