Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- *...* around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Members' Business motions that have not achieved cross party support

*S5M-06672 Linda Fabiani: Fighting for Tax Jobs, Fighting for Tax Justice—That the Parliament welcomes the Public and Commercial Services Union report, Fighting for Tax Jobs, Fighting for Tax Justice, which it believes is a comprehensive and considered response to what it believes is the UK Government's rash and poorly consulted proposals, Building Our Future, and notes the view that these plans will seriously damage Scotland's economy by undermining its capacity to collect taxes effectively, decimating and destroying a skilled and experienced workforce, overestimating the benefits and underestimating the costs of digitisation, failing to take account of the challenges posed by Brexit, neglecting the support needs of the most vulnerable in society, including poor, disabled and older people, and affecting disproportionately communities such as East Kilbride, which it believes will bear the heaviest job losses and knock-on effects for the local economy.

Supported by: Stewart Stevenson*, Kenneth Gibson*, Alison Johnstone*, Sandra White*, Clare Haughey*, Jenny Gilruth*, Bob Doris*, Ben Macpherson*, Stuart McMillan*, Richard Lyle*, Clare Adamson*, John Finnie*, Ash Denham*

Other new and altered motions and amendments

*S5M-06746 Bill Bowman: Success for Abertay University at the Develop Awards—That the Parliament congratulates Abertay University on winning the Outstanding Contribution to Education category at the Develop Awards, which were presented in Brighton; notes that these awards recognise the achievement of game developers and focusing solely on creativity, teamwork and inspiring innovation; acknowledges that the award was presented in recognition of the university's 20th anniversary of offering degrees in computer gaming, and wishes all of its staff and students every success.

Supported by: Ruth Maguire*, Miles Briggs*, Tom Mason*, Margaret Mitchell*, Liz Smith*, Alison Harris*, James Dornan*, Alexander Stewart*, David Stewart*

*S5M-06745 Peter Chapman: Elsie Matthew from Turriff Awarded Royal British Legion Gold Badge—That the Parliament congratulates Elsie Matthew, who is from Turriff, on recently receiving the gold badge from the Royal British Legion; understands that this prestigious accolade is awarded to members who have given at least eight years of meritorious and conspicuous service to the objectives of the legion, as defined by its Royal Charter, and that Elsie has achieved this through serving as president, treasurer and many other roles in the Turriff ladies branch, and wishes Elsie and the Turriff section success within their fundraising and community events throughout 2017.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Alison Harris*, Murdo Fraser*, Margaret Mitchell*, Alexander Stewart*, Tom Mason*, Liz Smith*, Bill Bowman*, Jeremy Balfour*

*S5M-06744 Peter Chapman: Turriff and District Heritage Society's Internship

Programme—That the Parliament congratulates the Turriff and District Heritage Society on establishing the Marion Clark Internship Programme, which will see two new interns with the society in 2017; welcomes this support for young people in the north east and its aim of encouraging them to engage in its history, heritage and culture; recognises that the programme, which will be based at the Turriff Museum, will introduce the internees to the duties and responsibilities involved with working in a volunteer-led heritage based organisation and provide them with workplace skills and experience; understands that the participants will also engage in marketing, fundraising and social media activities, and wishes the successful applicants all the best.

Supported by: Murdo Fraser*, Miles Briggs*, Ruth Maguire*, Alison Harris*, Margaret Mitchell*, Alexander Stewart*, David Stewart*, Bill Kidd*, Bill Bowman*, Jeremy Balfour*

*S5M-06743 Margaret Mitchell: The Queen Honours Hamilton West Station Staff—That the Parliament congratulates ScotRail Alliance workers, Angela Thomson and Neil Gaittens, who work at Hamilton West Station, on being honoured by The Queen in recognition of their contribution to the community; understands that Angela and Neil, who have worked at the station for five and eight years respectively, were invited to the 2017 summer garden party at Holyrood Palace in recognition of the appreciation of their efforts, which include getting benches and a garden beside the booking office and supporting younger members of staff in developing their skills, and wishes them continued success in their endeavours.

Supported by: Liz Smith*, Miles Briggs*, Murdo Fraser*, Alison Harris*, Alexander Stewart*, Bill Kidd*, Jeremy Balfour*

*S5M-06742 Annie Wells: Project Ability's 2017 Young Talent Art Showcase—That the Parliament acknowledges the Project Ability Gallery's Young Talent showcase featuring work from its Create artists; notes that the Create programme engages with disabled people aged 5 to 28 in a wide range of creative activities, including visual arts, film and new media; notes that Project Ability's Young Talent display will be running until 12 August 2017 at the Trongate 103 studios and that admission is free, and understands that Young Talent offers the chance for all of these artists to show a piece of art if they want to.

Supported by: Bill Bowman*, Miles Briggs*, James Dornan*, Liz Smith*, Edward Mountain*, Margaret Mitchell*, Ruth Maguire*, Bill Kidd*, Jeremy Balfour*

*S5M-06741 Annie Wells: Glasgow FrontRunners' OUNrun Challenge—That the Parliament acknowledges the 2017 Glasgow FrontRunners' OUNrun five-mile challenge, which will be taking place on 19 August 2017 in Kelvingrove Park over a course that will feature a mixture of flat paths and some hills and will be suitable for most runners and, most importantly, is open to everyone; notes that the race will be taking place on the same weekend as Glasgow Pride, and that its underlying aim is to raise awareness of LGBT+ participation in sport, and acknowledges that

*S5M-06736 Neil Findlay: Care Inspectorate Praises Kids Centre—That the Parliament welcomes the recent excellent inspection of Broxburn Family Centre’s Out of School Care Service; notes that the care inspectorate has awarded it a six, the highest award possible; understands that this puts the centre in the top 2% in Scotland for this service, and believes that the award was given in particular for the dedication of staff at the centre and how they expose the children to particularly challenging play, which develops their problem-solving skills.

*S5M-06735 Alexander Burnett: Pearls in Peril—That the Parliament welcomes that the Pearls in Peril initiative has been selected as the winner of the UK 2017 River Prize in Partnership and Multiple Benefit category; notes that the best practices used by the River Dee District Salmon Fishery Board to achieve this award; recognises the contributions of individual farmers, estate staff and foresters, government agencies and local authorities, conservation bodies and trusts, and notes that, since this project was set up on the River Dee in Aberdeenshire just four years ago, nearly 40km of river bank has been protected and over 11,000 trees planted. R

Supported by: Alexander Stewart*, Bill Bowman*, Liz Smith*, Miles Briggs*, Peter Chapman*, Margaret Mitchell*, Graeme Dey*, Maurice Corry*, Alison Harris*, Jeremy Balfour*, Ruth Maguire*, Edward Mountain*, Stewart Stevenson*, Kenneth Gibson*, Murdo Fraser*, Annie Wells*

*S5M-06734 Neil Findlay: Happy 106th Birthday, Jessie Malcolm—That the Parliament wishes Jessie Malcolm (nee Oster), who is from Whitburn in West Lothian, a happy 106th birthday; notes that, to mark the occasion, she received a telegram from The Queen; hopes that Jessie had a very good day, and wishes her all the best for the years ahead.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Edward Mountain*, Stuart McMillan*, David Stewart*, Kenneth Gibson*, David Torrance*, Bill Kidd*

*S5M-06733 Neil Findlay: West Lothian Young Writer of the Year Award—That the Parliament congratulates Erin Conway on winning West Lothian Young Writer of the Year 2017; notes that over 7,000 children entered the competition from 49 primary schools; understands that Erin's winning story, Something Fishy, was about a girl called Sophie who, when visiting a boring laundrette, is propelled into a beautiful new world underwater, and congratulates Erin and all the other winners and applicants who took part in the competition.

*S5M-06732 John Finnie: £4 Million Deal for the Gaelic Drama, Bannan—That the Parliament welcomes the news that the company set up on the Isle of Skye by the producer of the hit comedy series, The Inbetweeners, has won a four-year deal to continue making the Gaelic drama series, Bannan; congratulates Chris Young, who relocated to the island to create the programme for BBC Alba, on negotiating a £4 million deal with channel funders MG Alba, and understands that this has been hailed as a game changer for television production in the Highlands and Islands.

Supported by: Ruth Maguire*, Bill Kidd*, Kenneth Gibson*, Alison Johnstone*, Richard Lyle*, Stewart Stevenson*

*S5M-06731 John Finnie: £2.25 Million Bridge for Inverness Campus—That the Parliament welcomes the plans for a new bike, hike and bus bridge, Campus Bridge North, which will be located in the eastern Inverness suburbs and link the Inverness Campus with a major out-of-town business and retail park; understands that the £2.25 million bridge will span the Inverness to Perth railway line just south of Stoneyfield; notes that Highlands and Islands Enterprise, which owns the campus, is committed to paying £1.5 million towards it, with an £88,000 contribution from The Highland Council in addition to a £700,000 award from Sustrans, and welcomes this investment, which it believes will increase active travel participation in the area.

Supported by: Richard Lyle*, Stewart Stevenson*, Kenneth Gibson*

*S5M-06726 Stuart McMillan: Thomas Pocklington Trust Housing Guide for People with Sight Loss—That the Parliament congratulates the sight loss charity, Thomas Pocklington Trust (TPT), on its efforts in developing an innovative online housing guide designed to assist younger adults with visual impairment to find a new home; notes that the guide, funded by TPT and written by the researchers, Imogen Blood, Dianne Theakstone and Ian Copeman, is the result of a study on housing advice for younger adults with sight loss, which found there were many resources available online but it was hard to find the information and there was a lack of peer advice; recognises that this organisation has been making a positive impact for people with sight loss since its establishment in 1958; supports the initiative and acknowledges that more should be done to aid people who are visually impaired; congratulates TPT on providing this guide, and applauds the charity for continuing to find ways of improving the lives of people with sight loss.

Supported by: Gillian Martin*, Joan McAlpine*, David Torrance*, Ben Macpherson*, Colin Smyth*, Sandra White*, Ash Denham*, Richard Lyle*, Clare Haughey*, Bill Kidd*, Jenny Gilruth*, Stewart Stevenson*, Alex Cole-Hamilton*, Kenneth Gibson*

*S5M-06725 Rhoda Grant: HebCelt 2017—That the Parliament congratulates and commends the organisers and volunteers of the 22nd Hebridean Celtic Festival (HebCelt); notes that the not-for-profit charitable event, which will run on the Isle of Lewis from 19 to 22 July 2017, is firmly rooted in the community and is almost entirely managed and produced by voluntary effort; acknowledges that it is a major economic and tourism driver for the Outer Hebrides and that, in 2016, it generated £2.2 million and helped safeguard 40 tourism-related jobs; notes that it is estimated to have been worth £20 million for the economy over the last two decades and that its audience more than doubles the population of Stornoway, with more than half of the attendees coming from off-island, including from across the UK, Europe, Canada, the United States, Australia and New Zealand, 70% of whom are returners; believes that, as well as attracting headline acts, HebCelt is also renowned for its support and promotion of both emerging talent and the Gaelic language and culture, and understands that the 2017 event organisers will also have the honour of organising the opening concert for Scottish acts at the annual Interceltique de Lorient, the largest Celtic festival in Europe, which will take place in Brittany in August.

Supported by: Ruth Maguire*, Donald Cameron*, Sandra White*, David Torrance*, Stuart McMillan*, Bill Kidd*, Angus MacDonald*, Stewart Stevenson*, Kenneth Gibson*

*S5M-06724 Pauline McNeill: Jeff Zycinski's Contribution to Radio Scotland—That the Parliament notes the contribution made to Radio Scotland by its Head of Radio, Jeff Zycinski, including overseeing the station's audience rise to 952,000 in 2017 compared with 904,000 in 2009; applauds Jeff's work in pioneering the BBC Introducing Stage, which has helped young unsigned bands; understands that he has decided that now is the time to pursue other opportunities as the station undergoes restructuring; recognises the important contribution that Jeff has made to broadcasting over the years, and wishes him every success in his future endeavours.

Supported by: Ruth Maguire*, Sandra White*, David Torrance*, Stuart McMillan*, Bill Kidd*, Stewart Stevenson*

*S5M-06723 David Torrance: Sterling Precision Engineering Services Ltd—That the Parliament congratulates Sterling Precision Engineering Services Ltd on its 10 years of service; notes that it manufactures precision-machined components for civil aircraft, military ejector seats and works with the oil and gas industry; understands that it was recently awarded aerospace

*S5M-06722 David Torrance: Russell Kilgour, Design and Innovation in Plastics

Competition—That the Parliament congratulates Russell Kilgour, who is a fourth-year product design engineering student from Kirkcaldy, on the camera bag and strap that he designed to make it easier for people to carry their equipment while traveling being placed third in the 2017 Design in Innovation and Plastics competition, and commends Russell on his efforts to provide a more comfortable travel experience.

Supported by: Bill Kidd*, Gillian Martin*, Ruth Maguire*, Liz Smith*, Alexander Stewart*, Ash Denham*, Joan McAlpine*, Richard Lyle*, Sandra White*, Clare Haughey*, Jenny Gilruth*, Stuart McMillan*, Stewart Stevenson*

*S5M-06721 Graeme Dey: Rebecca Cottage Receives £10,000 Donation—That the Parliament welcomes the £10,000 donation that has been given by Aberdeen Asset Management to Rebecca Cottage in Carnoustie to help support its upkeep; understands that, for over 40 years, the cottage has been a lifeline for families who are affected by lifelong complex disability by offering them the opportunity to holiday together in accessible accommodation in tranquil surroundings; notes that it is run by Spina Bifida Hydrocephalus Scotland, and welcomes the work of this charity in supporting families affected by spina bifida, hydrocephalus and other related conditions.

Supported by: Gillian Martin*, Clare Haughey*, Joan McAlpine*, James Dornan*, Sandra White*, Ben Macpherson*, Ruth Maguire*, Ash Denham*, David Torrance*, Richard Lyle*, Stuart McMillan*, Bill Kidd*, Jenny Gilruth*, Stewart Stevenson*

*S5M-06720 Margaret Mitchell: Jimmy Anderson BEM—That the Parliament congratulates 88-year-old Jimmy Anderson on being awarded a BEM in the Birthday Honours; understands that Jimmy has dedicated more than 60 years of his life to the Stonehouse community; recognises that he has been a Boys' Brigade captain for 60 years and, in 2008, he was appointed as an honorary vice-president of the Hamilton battalion; appreciates that, in 1999, Jimmy was one of the first recipients of a South Lanarkshire Council community service award in recognition of his outstanding service; understands that he is a loyal and dedicated member of St Ninian's Church and that this led to him being involved with the Stonehouse Senior Citizens Group for almost 20 years as its president and chairperson before retiring; thanks Jimmy for his services to the community, and wishes him well for the future.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Alison Harris*, Liz Smith*, Bill Bowman*, Alexander Stewart*, Jeremy Balfour*, Donald Cameron*, Bill Kidd*, Edward Mountain*, Annie Wells*

*S5M-06719 Pauline McNeill: Dr Denis Rutovitz—That the Parliament congratulates Dr Denis Rutovitz on receiving an honorary degree from the University of Edinburgh; understands that he has worked for many years at the Medical Research Council Human Genetics Unit and founded the charity Edinburgh Direct Aid in 1992 in response to the horrors of the war in Bosnia; notes the excellent work that the charity has carried out and that Denis personally led the majority of its aid convoys until the end of that conflict in 1996; understands that, since then, the charity has been active in Kosovo, Syria, Sri Lanka, Pakistan and Kenya; applauds Denis's humanitarian work in Gaza, which includes taking medical aid there and establishing links between doctors in Gaza and in Scotland, and considers him to be richly deserving of this honour.

*S5M-06678 Jackie Baillie: Finlay Campbell, British Heart Foundation's Young Hero—That the Parliament congratulates Finlay Campbell from Helensburgh on being named the Young Hero at the British Heart Foundation's annual Scottish Heart Heroes Awards; understands that Finlay was born with complete congenital heart block and has a pacemaker; further understands that he has campaigned tirelessly to raise awareness of the condition and raise money for the British Heart Foundation; notes that Finlay is due to undergo surgery later in 2017 but is certain that this won't stop him raising more money for the British Heart Foundation, and wishes Finlay all the best for the future.

*S5M-06676 Neil Findlay: Save Our Scotch Campaign—That the Parliament recognises the importance of Scotch whisky to the Scottish economy; notes that tens of thousands of jobs in Scotland, both directly and in the supply chain, are related to the manufacture, bottling and packaging of Scotch whisky; notes that single malt Scotch whisky is required by regulation to be distilled, matured, bottled, labelled and packaged in Scotland; further notes that such regulations do not place a similar requirement on the production, bottling, labelling and packaging of blended Scotch whisky; considers that there is a growing trend for jobs in the Scotch whisky industry to be offshored and for blended Scotch whisky to be bulk exported for bottling, labelling and packaging overseas, with a consequential reduction and threat to jobs in the whisky industry and its supply chain in Scotland; welcomes the Save Our Scotch campaign by Unite the Union, and supports the aims of this campaign to end the offshoring of such jobs, protect the quality of blended Scotch whisky and introduce a requirement that all Scotch whisky, including blended Scotch whisky, must be distilled, matured, bottled, labelled and packaged in Scotland.

*S5M-06674 Anas Sarwar: Special Recognition for James Campbell of Bobath

Scotland—That the Parliament congratulates James Campbell of Bobath Scotland on receiving the Terrific Trustee award at the SCVO Scottish Charity Awards 2017; understand that Bobath Scotland is a charity offering advice, help and support to children and adults living with cerebral palsy and their families; considers that James, in his role as chairman, has been instrumental in enhancing the support that Bobath Scotland offers and in ensuring that the charity has a bright future ahead; is aware that, since 2009, James has used his personal knowledge and skills to turn Bobath Scotland around, achieving a financial surplus, incorporating it as a charity, recruiting key staff, embedding good governance and providing stability at a time of great change; understands that, having stepped down as chairman, James now acts as a fundraising ambassador for Bobath Scotland, and wishes both him and the charity every success in their future endeavours.

Progress of Legislation

Bills

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
