Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Members' Business motions that have not achieved cross party support

S5M-04385 Brian Whittle: Hansel Foundation—That the Parliament recognises the work of the Hansel Foundation, which is a social care organisation based in Symington providing a range of support to over 600 people with learning disabilities in Ayrshire and beyond; understands that the support on offer includes residential and "at home" care, support with housing, and respite care and short breaks; notes that Hansel delivers support in a number of specialist areas including dementia support, working with younger people with autism and helping those with profound and multiple learning disabilities (PMLD); further notes that the organisation employs approximately 500 staff throughout its business and operates a number of social enterprises that provide meaningful employment to individuals with learning disabilities; acknowledges Hansel's commitment to delivering high quality, affordable services through an "efficient, effective and purposeful collaboration of people"; considers that social care charities such as Hansel provide a vital service to disabled people and their families; believes that Hansel represents a prime example of what such organisations can achieve, and hopes that it will continue to build on its current achievements in the years to come.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S5M-04419 Kenneth Gibson: The Douglas Hotel Named Independent Hotel of the Year—That the Parliament congratulates The Douglas Hotel in Brodick on being named Independent Hotel of the Year 2017 at the inaugural Prestige Hotel Awards, which were held at the Hilton in Glasgow; notes that the awards have an independent judging panel, which reviewed more than 80 hotels across Scotland using a wide range of criteria, such as the quality of services and infrastructure, and the dishes and cocktails served in the hotel; appreciates the value of local businesses in rural and island communities, and recognises the positive impact that The Douglas Hotel is making to tourism in Arran and Scotland.

Supported by: Richard Lochhead*, Sandra White*, Colin Beattie*, Bill Kidd*, Jeremy Balfour*, Richard Lyle*

S5M-04418 Christina McKelvie: South Lanarkshire Council Women's Aid—That the Parliament welcomes the sum of £205,989 being allocated to South Lanarkshire Council Women's Aid from the Scottish Government's equality budget 2016-17; considers that the work that the organisation undertakes is essential to keeping women, young people and children safe from domestic abuse; credits the organisation with its pursuit of empowering, educating and supporting survivors of domestic abuse; considers that the 34 refuges throughout South Lanarkshire are essential to providing a safe space for victims to regain control of their lives, and wishes the organisation well with its new allocation of funds.

Supported by: Sandra White*, David Torrance*, Kenneth Gibson*, Rona Mackay*, Colin Beattie*, Bill Kidd*, Richard Lyle*, Fulton MacGregor*

S5M-04417 Alexander Stewart: Alloa School Wins Sports Accolade—That the Parliament congratulates Redwell Primary School in Alloa on receiving the Gold School Sport Award flag from sportscotland; understands that the lottery-funded scheme urges schools to continuously improve physical education and sporting opportunities for youngsters, and notes that the award comes in bronze, silver and gold variants, with Redwell primary receiving the highest accolade possible for putting physical education and school sport at the heart of its planning, practice and ethos.

S5M-04416 Colin Beattie: Millerhill Artist in Running for Prestigious Award—That the Parliament congratulates Millerhill artist, Alison Stewart, on her consideration for the prestigious Lynn Painter-Stainers Prize; recognises that this award is given to exceptional artists who are able to capture the real world through their figurative and representational art; understands that the winners will be determined on 6 March 2017 at an evening event at the Mall Galleries in London, with the first prize being £15,000, second £4,000 and the People's Prize £2,000; notes with admiration Alison's talent and artistic contribution, and wishes her luck in the competition.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, James Dornan*, Jeremy Balfour*, Richard Lyle*, Clare Haughey*, Sandra White*, Gillian Martin*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-04415 Neil Findlay: Bathgate Early Years Centre Receives Digital Schools Award—That the Parliament congratulates the Bathgate Early Years Centre on receiving the Digital Schools Award, which aims to promote, recognise and encourage a whole-school approach to the use of digital technology in primary school, and commends the school as it continues to use digital technology to support children's learning and parental engagement at all levels.

Supported by: Colin Beattie*, Alison Johnstone*, Miles Briggs*, Iain Gray*, Jeremy Balfour*, Edward Mountain*, Richard Lyle*

S5M-04414 Neil Findlay: Livingston and Nepal Link—That the Parliament congratulates teachers at Letham Primary School in Livingston on forging a relationship with Chandeswari Secondary School in Nepal as part of the Connecting Classrooms scheme, and understands that the scheme, which is run by the British Council in partnership with Department for International Development, enables teachers to teach 21st century core skills in the classroom, giving young people the skills they need to live in an increasingly globalised economy.

S5M-04413 Neil Findlay: UNICEF Rights Respecting Schools Level 2 Award for Windyknowe Primary School—That the Parliament congratulates Windyknowe Primary School on being presented with the UNICEF Rights Respecting Schools Level 2 Award, which is the highest possible award, for its work putting the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child at the heart of the school's practice, policies and ethos, and understands that the school has been recognised as upholding children's rights throughout the school and champions the fact that pupils are respected, included and valued in their schooling environment.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Alison Johnstone*, Jeremy Balfour*, Anas Sarwar*, Edward Mountain*, Richard Lyle*

S5M-04412 Neil Findlay: Regal Theatre Receives Much-needed Funds—That the Parliament congratulates the efforts of the Outlander actor, Scott Kyle, on raising more than £65,000 for the Bathgate Regal Community Theatre where he works as artistic director; understands that his fundraising has been conducted mainly through social media where he has sold merchandise and set up a crowdfunding page, and notes that the funds raised have been used to improve facilities at the theatre and support local community projects linked to the theatre, such as a radio station and youth theatre group.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Jeremy Balfour*, Kenneth Gibson*, Richard Lyle*, Colin Beattie*

S5M-04411 Neil Findlay: Rise in Numbers of Children in Care—That the Parliament notes with concern the reported rise in the number of children in West Lothian and across Scotland being taken into care under child protection measures; thanks those in communities and in the different agencies involved in helping get children away from abuse and neglect; believes however that more needs to be done to ensure the safeguarding and protection of children in the community, particularly those who remain outside the view of local authorities, and welcomes efforts that local councils are taking to work with families to assess children's needs and provide the most appropriate support for each young person.

Supported by: Pauline McNeill*, Iain Gray*, Anas Sarwar*, Kenneth Gibson*, Elaine Smith*, Richard Lyle*, Monica Lennon*

S5M-04410 Liam McArthur: Fishermen's Mission Officer Recognised for Service—That the Parliament congratulates Willie Buchan on his recent long service medal from the Fishermen's Mission; understands that Willie has worked for the Fishermen's Mission for 10 years and is currently a joint port officer for Orkney; further understands that he has become known as "the face of the Fishermen's Mission in Orkney" and has done exceptional work in raising the visibility of the charity on the islands; notes that Willie will soon be retiring from his position; thanks him sincerely for his service, and warmly wishes him all the best for his future.

Supported by: Liam Kerr*, Jeremy Balfour*, Colin Beattie*, Donald Cameron*, Richard Lyle*, Edward Mountain*

S5M-04407 John Mason: Asad Shah's Example—That the Parliament deplores the news that, despite being in jail, the murderer of Asad Shah has been releasing recordings and building an online following; understands that the support Tanveer Ahmed has seen in Pakistan highlights the existing faultlines regarding the treatment of blasphemy in that country, with it still being punishable by death; believes that the example set by Mr Shah in showing love and compassion to all his neighbours, regardless of their faith, provides the perfect counterpoint to the clarion call of hatred made by extreme factions; considers that there is no place for such laws or attitudes towards blasphemy, and seeks a world where there is freedom of religion and belief, including the freedom to change or abandon one's religion.

Supported by: Pauline McNeill*, Kenneth Gibson*, Colin Beattie*, Bill Kidd*, Fulton MacGregor*

S5M-04406 Jeremy Balfour: Supreme Court to Sit in Scotland—That the Parliament welcomes the announcement that the UK Supreme Court will sit in the Edinburgh City Chambers over four days in June 2017 in the first of a number of planned visits to the capital cities of the devolved nations; believes that this is the first time that the UK's highest court will have sat outside London; understands that several appeals will be heard over up to four days, with at least five of the justices sitting over the course of the visit, and welcomes the opportunity that it will provide for the public and the legal community in Scotland to see the court in action at the home of the City of Edinburgh Council. R

Supported by: Liz Smith*, Miles Briggs*, John Lamont*, Alison Harris*, Alexander Stewart*, Margaret Mitchell*, Liam McArthur*, Ross Thomson*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Douglas Ross*, Murdo Fraser*

S5M-04405 Sandra White: Dunkirk Digital Classroom Supporting Young Refugees—That the Parliament notes the creation of a digital classroom for child refugees, which will provide access to learning for children living in the Dunkirk camp in northern France; understands that the school has been developed by the digital agency company, Equator, and includes a wireless projector, 20 students' tablets and a teaching pad, plus a range of educational apps aimed at children aged 3 to 18; considers that up to 150 children who have never received structured education as a result of the disruption to their lives will benefit from the scheme, and commends the work of Equator to support and develop children living in refugee camps to help build a future and integration for those fleeing war and suffering.

Supported by: James Dornan*, Clare Haughey*, Joan McAlpine*, Emma Harper*, Gillian Martin*, Richard Lyle*, David Torrance*, Colin Beattie*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-04404 Kenneth Gibson: 52 Weeks of Kindness—That the Parliament recognises the 52 Weeks of Kindness initiative, which will be promoted throughout 2017 by Breathing Space and NHS Living Life; understands that it will emphasise the value of sharing acts of kindness to enable social change and improve physical and mental wellbeing and follows the end of Scotland's Year of Listening, which successfully promoted both listening out for better mental health and alleviating the stigma around discussing mental health; appreciates the Breathing Space free telephone service, which can be contacted on 0800 838587 and offers, as part of NHS 24, support and information to anyone in Scotland experiencing low mood, depression, or anxiety, and welcomes the promotion of being kind and looking after mental health.

S5M-04403 David Torrance: Barnardo's Scotland Fife—That the Parliament congratulates Barnardo's Scotland in Fife on receiving a foundation-level LGBT Charter Award from LGBT Youth Scotland; understands that this was in recognition of the hard work and achievements of the Barnardo's volunteers and staff, including their role in making its services inclusive of LGBT people, and looks forward to it continuing to provide a great service by engaging with all people, regardless of race, gender, sexual orientation or social class.

Supported by: James Dornan*, Colin Beattie*, Liz Smith*, Richard Lyle*, Clare Haughey*, Gillian Martin*, Monica Lennon*, Bill Kidd*, Ash Denham*

S5M-04402 David Torrance: Welcoming Hugh Hall to Fife College—That the Parliament welcomes Fife College's new Principal and Chief Executive, Hugh Hall; understands that Hugh will be responsible for 22,000 learners across the five main campuses; acknowledges that the appointment is extremely important in order to ensure that the newly-opened Levenmouth Campus runs smoothly; encourages the staff and students to meet Hugh as he visits each campus, and wishes him the best of luck with his new role and on facing the challenges and meeting the opportunities that lie ahead.

S5M-04401 Liam McArthur: Papdale School Gives Goldfish a Flaming Viking Send-off—That the Parliament recognises that the P3 and P4 pupils at Papdale Primary School in Kirkwall have given their class goldfish, Bubbles and Freddy, a traditional Norse ceremony to start their journey to Valhalla; understands that, following the fish both recently dying, the pupils, who had been studying the Vikings, decided to send Bubbles and Freddy, who were class pets for Christmas, to Valhalla on "longships" made from cereal boxes and egg cartons; notes that the ceremony saw the children write down their memories of the fish and read them aloud before the boats set sail; credits Corey Eddington and her pupils on their tribute, and believes that they gave Bubbles and Freddy a good, fitting and educational send off to Valhalla.

S5M-04400 Douglas Ross: Technology Bringing Forres History to Life—That the Parliament congratulates the organisers of the annual Piping in Forres event, which generates more than £1 million for the area's economy, on their innovative use of technology in creating a mobile phone app to entice tourists to explore the rest of the town while uncovering more about its history; understands that the app goes live for the event in June 2017; further understands that one of the aims of the app is to get people, local or visitors, moving around the town; notes that the app has been launched as part of the events and celebrations for Scotland's Year of History, Heritage and Archaeology and includes sites linked to Macbeth, carved Pictish stones and tales of witches and spies, and wishes all connected with Piping in Forres good luck for the year ahead.

S5M-04399 Douglas Ross: Karen Betts, New Chief Executive of the SWA—That the Parliament congratulates Karen Betts on her appointment as Chief Executive of the Scotch Whisky Association (SWA); understands that Karen, who will become the eighth head of the SWA, will be the first female chief executive in its 105-year history; notes that she brings a wealth of experience to the post following her 16-year career in the Foreign and Commonwealth Office, most recently as the UK Ambassador to Morocco; believes that her international experience will be of great value in helping further grow the sector globally, and wishes both Karen and the association continued success.

S5M-04398 Maurice Golden: West of Scotland Communities Named in Scotland's Most Desirable Places to Live—That the Parliament welcomes the news that a number of communities throughout the West of Scotland have been named in a Royal Mail study as the most desirable places in Scotland in which to live; congratulates Neilston in particular on being recognised as the most desirable community in Scotland to live in; recognises the positive image that this sends out for the large number of communities in both East Renfrewshire and East Dunbartonshire recognised in the study as being desirable places to live in work, and encourages the growth and promotion of all communities across Scotland.

Supported by: Bill Bowman*

S5M-04397 Alexander Stewart: Tribute to Former Dunfermline Teacher—That the Parliament pays tribute to the former Queen Anne High School teacher, Michael Ward, who sadly died in February 2017; understands that Fife-born Michael, who spent most of his life in Dunfermline, was described by friends as a highly intelligent, erudite individual; recognises that he attended Blairs College near Aberdeen, The Gregorian University and the Scots College in Rome, before graduating from the University of Glasgow and entering the teaching profession as a teacher of modern languages at Queen Anne High School; notes that, as a connoisseur of Indian cuisine, his curries were legendary, and his advice on which restaurants to visit was much sought-after, and understands that Michael was survived by his brothers, Pat, Harry and Paul, and his sister, Brenda, but his younger sister, Elizabeth, predeceased him by almost a year.

S5M-04396 Alexander Stewart: Sweet Success for Dunfermline Primary Pupils—That the Parliament congratulates the young entrepreneurs from St Leonard's Primary School in Dunfermline on reaching the finals of a Dragons' Den-style competition in Fife to go forward for a national award later in 2017; understands that Fife Council's project, 4 to Fortune, saw pupils compete for funding with a view to setting up their own school-based social enterprise; notes that, starting out with just £4, the four-week programme saw more than 500 young people from across the Kingdom use their creativity to turn this small sum into £3,300; understands that the event was also supported by the Social Enterprise Academy, and notes that the three young teams from St Leonard's primary claimed top prize for their sweet-making enterprise, Gummies for Joy, by working hard to research their market and understand their customers' needs.

S5M-04395 Jackie Baillie: Pamela Duffy, Apprentice of the Year—That the Parliament congratulates Pamela Duffy, who is from Alexandria, on being named First Year Trade Apprentice of the Year at the 2017 Awards of the Association for Public Service Excellence; understands that Pamela is in the second year of her apprenticeship as a trainee electrician with West Dunbartonshire Council through its modern apprenticeship programme; notes that she has been working onsite in Dumbarton as part of the local authority's ongoing renovation of its housing

S5M-04390 Paul Wheelhouse: Bankruptcy and Protected Trust Deeds (Miscellaneous Amendments) (Scotland) Regulations 2017 [draft]—That the Delegated Powers and Law Reform Committee recommends that the Bankruptcy and Protected Trust Deeds (Miscellaneous Amendments) (Scotland) Regulations 2017 [draft] be approved.

Supported by: Keith Brown*, Jamie Hepburn*

S5M-04389 Clare Adamson: Youth's Matter Community Group, Motherwell—That the Parliament congratulates the Motherwell-based Youth's Matter Community Group (YMCG) on receiving £10,000 from the Big Lottery Awards for All fund; understands that this will be used to run its Friday Night Project for five to 18-year-olds and an outdoor residency trip, and wishes the YMCG and the children and young people well.

Supported by: James Dornan*, Jeremy Balfour*, Sandra White*, Colin Beattie*, Bill Kidd*, Richard Lyle*, Jenny Gilruth*, Ruth Maguire*, Clare Haughey*, Gillian Martin*, Gil Paterson*

S5M-04388 Clare Adamson: Polish Lanarkshire Community Forum—That the Parliament is pleased to hear that the Motherwell-based Polish Lanarkshire Community Forum has been received £9,759 from the Big Lottery Awards for All Fund; understands that the club, which helps members of the Polish community integrate with wider community life, will use this to fund a wide range of group activities, and wishes it and its members well with this.

Supported by: Monica Lennon*, Clare Haughey*, Sandra White*, Jeremy Balfour*, Edward Mountain*, Colin Beattie*, Bill Kidd*, Richard Lyle*, Ruth Maguire*, Jenny Gilruth*, Gillian Martin*, Gil Paterson*

S5M-04387 Clare Adamson: Motherwell Floral Art Club—That the Parliament congratulates Motherwell Floral Art Club on its £8,398 Big Lottery Awards for All grant; notes that the club, which was established in 1962 and is based in Crosshill Parish Church Hall, will use this to purchase equipment and organise a number of events to mark its emerald anniversary, and wishes it and its members well in their endeavours.

of different groups, including the Heritage Lottery Fund's Parks for People initiative, the Sustrans Community Links Programme, Argyll and Bute Council, the Armed Forces Covenant Fund, the War Memorial Trust and the Friends of Hermitage Park Association, and thanks everyone involved for their dedication to regenerating Hermitage Park for the community.

S5M-04380 Jackie Baillie: Entrepreneurial Spark's Success—That the Parliament congratulates the Royal Bank of Scotland and Entrepreneurial Spark on their efforts to help more entrepreneurs own and run their own businesses; recognises that Entrepreneurial Spark has published a new Impact Report; notes that 1,736 companies have been supported across 12 accelerators throughout the UK, with an aggregate turnover of over £176 million; further notes that this has secured over £151 million worth of investment for entrepreneurs in the programme, in turn creating 3,152 jobs, and that more than 80% of the companies that have been through the programme are still operating; understands that its hubs in Edinburgh, Glasgow and Ayr support Scottish businesses such as Supernature Oils and Trans World Soccer by providing entrepreneurs with free facilities, free wi-fi, access to the bank's networks and suppliers, and free business advice, all without requiring them to bank with RBS or taking any equity; welcomes the creation of a new pilot programme with Highlands and Islands Enterprise designed to meet the specific needs of the region by providing free virtual support to entrepreneurs, and believes that the Scottish Government should consider how the programme can be further expanded and supported to bolster economic growth.

Supported by: Jeremy Balfour*, Dean Lockhart*, Iain Gray*, Gordon Lindhurst*

S5M-04379 Jackie Baillie: International Women's Day 2017—That the Parliament recognises International Women's Day on 8 March 2017; celebrates this year's theme to #BeBoldForChange; is concerned by estimates from the World Economic Forum that the gender gap will persist until 2186; understands that this encompasses not only the pay gap, but disparities between women and men across key areas of health, education, economy and politics; encourages contributions to the Economy, Jobs and Fair Work Committee's inquiry on the gender pay gap, and welcomes International Women's Day as an opportunity to focus on closing this gap and creating a more inclusive economy for women.

Supported by: David Stewart*

S5M-04374 John Finnie: Israeli Apartheid Week—That the Parliament welcomes the 13th annual Israeli Apartheid Week; understands that the week is an international series of events that seeks to raise awareness of what it sees as Israel's settler-colonial project and apartheid system over the Palestinian people and to build support for the growing Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions (BDS) movement; understands that the 2016 Israeli Apartheid Week included a wide range of events, from lectures, film screenings, cultural performances and BDS actions; welcomes that these actions took place in more than 225 cities across the world, and acknowledges that, despite attacks on BDS internationally, the Israeli Apartheid Week and the BDS movement continue to build linkages and solidarity with other struggles to achieve freedom, justice and equality globally.

Supported by: Ross Greer*, Patrick Harvie*, Andy Wightman*, Sandra White* R, Mark Ruskell*, Ruth Maguire*

S5M-04374.1 Ross Thomson: Israeli Apartheid Week—As an amendment to motion S5M-04374 in the name of John Finnie (Israeli Apartheid Week), leave out from "13th annual" to end and insert "International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance (IHRA) definition of anti-Semitism; commends the UK Government for adopting this definition; notes the letter written by Jo Johnson

Progress of Legislation

Bills

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
