Debate on the subject of—

S5M-08658 Annie Wells: World AIDS Day 2017—That the Parliament notes that the 29th annual World AIDS Day is being marked on 1 December 2017; believes that this offers an important opportunity to remember the estimated 35 million people who have died from AIDS-related illnesses; recognises what it sees as Scotland's role as a leader in HIV policy by ensuring access to new medicines and treatments to contribute to prevention options; further recognises that, in 2017, the country became the first in the UK to offer PrEP on the NHS; acknowledges the efforts to exceed the UNAIDS 90-90-90 goals to help Scotland contribute to the global mission to get to zero new infections; understands that there are over 6,000 people living with HIV in Scotland; notes with concern statistics suggested that two young people in the country are diagnosed with HIV every month; further notes the view that it is important to end HIV-related stigma by using Scotland's HIV Anti-Stigma Strategy to ensure that everyone can access high-quality healthcare and support, and commends the work of HIV Scotland on what it sees as its work in promoting policy changes that are grounded in evidence and for using the experiences of people living with, or at risk of, HIV to help ensure that the voices of communities most stigmatised in society are heard.

Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Motions for Debate

S5M-09221 Murdo Fraser: Barclay Review and ALEOs—That the Parliament notes the recommendation of the Barclay Review of Non-Domestic Rates that local authority arm's-length external organisations (ALEOs) providing leisure and cultural facilities should have their charitable exemption from rates removed; further notes that this proposal has caused widespread concern across Scotland with fears that, if implemented, it would mean the closure of a large number of facilities and/or substantial increases in user charges, and calls on the Scottish Government to reject this recommendation.

S5M-09218 Miles Briggs: General Practice—That the Parliament recognises that general practice is a vital frontline service of the NHS; believes that the Scottish Government has underfunded general practice over the last decade and failed to shift the balance of care from acute to primary services; notes with concern Audit Scotland's report that there is a lack of national data on the primary care workforce; further notes that one-in-four GP practices has a vacancy and one-in-three GPs is approaching retirement, and believes that the Scottish Government must take urgent action to prevent a crisis in general practice.

Supported by: Brian Whittle*

S5M-09205 Angela Constance: Making Scotland Equally Safe—That the Parliament welcomes the global 16 Days of Activism against Gender-Based Violence; commends the many activists and organisations, both in Scotland and across the world, providing front-line support for survivors, raising awareness of the problem and working tirelessly to challenge the underlying attitudes and inequalities that perpetuate violence against women and girls; calls on men everywhere to stand shoulder to shoulder with women in sending a clear message that violence against women and girls is never acceptable; reaffirms its support for Equally Safe, Scotland's strategy to prevent and eradicate all forms of violence against women and girls and welcomes the publication of the Equally Safe delivery plan, and agrees that it is for every individual, community and institution to stand up to abuse and harassment, hold perpetrators to account for their behaviour and work together to build a Scotland where everyone can live equally safe.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S5M-09223 Joe FitzPatrick on behalf of the Parliamentary Bureau: Committee

Membership—That the Parliament agrees that Claire Baker be appointed to replace Daniel Johnson as a member of the Standards, Procedures and Public Appointments Committee.

S5M-09222 Linda Fabiani: Making Welcome the Stranger, Justice and Peace Scotland

Delegation to Calais—That the Parliament thanks Justice and Peace Scotland, the Catholic Church's national office for social justice and peacebuilding, for its ongoing work in support of refugees and asylum seekers; notes that Bishop William Nolan, Bishop of Galloway and President, is leading a delegation to Calais on 28-29 November 2017 as guests of Maria Skobtsova Catholic Worker House to learn more about its work supporting homeless people, including refugees in Calais; further notes the recent publication, Like Living in Hell: Police Abuses Against Child and Adult Migrants in Calais, by Human Rights Watch, which, it understands, followed the destruction of the so-called Jungle migrant camp in October 2016; understands that the destruction of the camp consequently led to many predominantly unaccompanied asylum-seeking children returning to the area, reportedly facing increasing hostility and restrictions from the local authorities, including the banning of food distribution and provision of showers, confiscation of sleeping bags and tents and reports of migrants being pepper sprayed; commends the endeavours of the many staff and volunteers in Calais, many from Scotland, who have supported and continue to support those fleeing persecution and exploitation, and hopes that as the Advent season begins, people of all faiths and none will recognise the nativity crib image of a displaced family seeking sanctuary as representative of the importance of supporting and making welcome the stranger, particularly those fleeing terror, persecution or exploitation.

S5M-09220 Bill Kidd: Pope Francis Against Possession of Nuclear Weapons—That the Parliament affirms the Vatican's position against the possession of nuclear weapons; recognises that the move away from the Roman Catholic traditional conditional acceptance of nuclear deterrence has been announced at the International Conference of Prospects for a World Free of Nuclear Weapons and for Integral Disarmament, which was hosted by the Holy See from 10-11 November 2017; commends the pro-active approach of Pope Francis towards nuclear disarmament, and notes that his speech clarifying this shift in position follows the UN adoption and State Parties signing of the UN Treaty on the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons earlier in 2017.

S5M-09219 Michelle Ballantyne: Lauderdale Scout Group Raises Over £3,000 for Doddie Weir—That the Parliament notes the work of Lauderdale Scout Group, which has raised over £3,000 for Doddie Weir's Discretionary Trust by holding a sponsored walk through Lauderdale to Doddie's farm near Blainslie, with around 200 people attending; understands that Doddie Weir had previously helped the group avoid closure by becoming chairman, overseeing a recruitment drive that witnessed the group go from less than 20 members to over 150, making it the fastest growing Scout group in Scotland, and congratulates the members of Lauderdale Scout Group on their efforts.

Supported by: Alexander Stewart*, Liz Smith*, Miles Briggs*, Jeremy Balfour*

S5M-09217 Rhoda Grant: Don't Step There, You'll Sink!—That the Parliament congratulates the project, DON'T STEP THERE, YOU'LL SINK! Jump on, we'll ride, from John Mackay Ltd on winning the Innovation Award at RSPB's Nature of Scotland Awards; recognises the engineering achievements of the company in developing techniques and equipment such as ultra-low ground-pressure excavators for operating heavy machinery on blanket bog and deep peats; notes the contribution that this has made to the Forsinard Flows peatland restoration work by RSPB

Scotland, and acknowledges that this has assisted RSPB in achieving a better “finish” in forest-to-bog projects.

S5M-09216 Jackie Baillie: #BeTheChange—That the Parliament recognises the ENABLE Scotland campaign, #BeTheChange, which was launched at its annual conference, #IncludED: the next steps on the journey to inclusion, on 18 November 2017; notes that, through understanding, it seeks to tackle the bullying of people who have learning disabilities; acknowledges that the charity has found nine out of 10 people with learning disabilities report having being bullied in their communities; congratulates the group of young Change Champions who have been training with ENABLE Scotland as campaign ambassadors to promote change through understanding by delivering workshops to their peers, including a film celebrating difference, which asks people to see past labels and get to know one another; looks forward to the Change Champions visiting the Parliament on 12 December to present their film and workshop; notes that the #BeTheChange pledge invites people to sign up to the core principles of building an equal society for every person who has a learning disability and to take action to be open, be respectful, be understanding, be supportive and be a friend, and welcomes the funding from the Esmee Fairbairn Foundation, which has supported the national delivery of the campaign.

S5M-09215 Fulton MacGregor: Cumbernauld Living Landscape—That the Parliament congratulates Cumbernauld Living Landscape - Engaging Communities to Enhance Urban Greenspace on winning the Youth and Education Award at the RSPB’s Nature of Scotland Awards; recognises the hard work and commitment of young people from across Cumbernauld on the project; commends that, in the last two years, over 80 teenagers have been making the wildlife sites next to their schools better for people and wildlife while picking up transferable skills, which will stand them in good stead in today’s competitive job market, and acknowledges that they are delivering the vision of the Scottish Wildlife Trust, North Lanarkshire Council, Forestry Commission Scotland and the Conservation Volunteers to enhance, restore and reconnect green areas of Cumbernauld.

S5M-09214 Gordon Lindhurst: Save Currie High Campaign—That the Parliament recognises the campaign, Save Currie High, which, it understands, collected almost 2,500 signatures since its launch; understands that it concerns the City of Edinburgh Council’s initial proposals to close Currie Community High School and merge it with Wester Hailes Education Centre (WHEC) to form a new high school in the south west of the capital; believes that the potential closure raises a number of questions, including what the impact would be for the community, which also uses the school outwith class times for activities such as swimming, as well as neighbouring the Woodlands Special School, which uses some of the facilities during the school day; notes the safety questions regarding pupils having to walk further to school along busy arterial routes; recognises concerns regarding traffic congestion in the surrounding area as more parents potentially have to drive their children to school; notes worries that pupils in the Currie area would be split between Balerno High School and the new high school; recognises that WHEC is also a popular community hub that has a proud track record of delivering education and other services, and urges the council to fully take on board the community’s views regarding the proposals before reaching a decision in the matter. Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Michelle Ballantyne*

S5M-09213 Fulton MacGregor: Lottery Win for Glenboig Neighbourhood House—That the Parliament congratulates Glenboig Neighbourhood House, which is based in the Coatbridge and Chryston constituency, on receiving £10,000 from the Big Lottery Fund, which it will use to develop a cycling development programme for 2- to 16-year-olds; welcomes that this will allow more young people to learn indispensable life skills; notes that it will consist of a series of workshops and training sessions, which will act as a stepping stone toward achievement awards, certification and potential employment; commends all at the neighbourhood house on their efforts, and wishes them every success with their endeavours.

S5M-09212 Fulton MacGregor: Lottery Win for Skate Inclusive Skating—That the Parliament congratulates Skate, which is an inclusive ice skating club that is based in Coatbridge, on being awarded £10,000 from the Big Lottery Fund, understands that the group, which was formed in 2013 by parents and volunteers, aims to develop skating for people who are disabled or mobility impaired by offering a range of opportunities, including a programme that enable allows all to train and participate in competitions and events on an equal basis, understands that this award will allow the club to focus on preparation for upcoming national and international skating competitions; congratulates its many achievements to date, and wishes Skate the best of luck.

S5M-09211 Donald Cameron: Court of Lord Lyon Recognises Barra's Flag—That the Parliament recognises the achievement of the community in Barra, whose flag has received formal approval from the Court of Lord Lyon, having been in use on the island for some time; appreciates that the flag, not only represents the strong community heritage of Barra, but is also a symbol of the island's unique identity, and acknowledges the significance of the flag as a symbol of solidarity of the community, after it featured prominently in remembrance of Eilidh MacLeod, who was a victim of the May 2017 Manchester terrorist attack.

S5M-09210 Mairi Gougeon: Langlands and Strathmore Primaries, Forfar, Given National Accolade—That the Parliament congratulates the staff and pupils from Langlands and Strathmore primary schools, which are in Forfar, on being awarded Gold status by sportscotland in recognition of their innovation and achievement in delivering PE and extra-curricular sport; notes that this follows an extensive external assessment, which was carried out by an independent panel of witnesses, and praises the efforts of both schools in linking closely with the communities in which they are based.

because of its outstanding grasp of costs, margins and targets to make profits in this competitive industry; believes that they were particularly impressed that the family has established a successful paddock grazing system, which has boosted grassland productivity and allowed the farm to support a further 250 to 600 grazing cattle managed on a contract basis, and wishes the Fleming family all the best.

S5M-09207 Graeme Dey: Dundee and Angus College's Success at the College

Development Network Awards—That the Parliament congratulates Dundee and Angus College on its success at the College Development Network awards; congratulates Scott Guthrie on winning the Student Citizenship Award; notes that Scott was a participant in the college's Cashback For Creativity programme and became unofficial leader for the group, finding new powers of communication and working hard to inspire and encourage wherever he could; understands that he continues to work hard and that he was described in his nomination as “quite simply a great role model for us all”; congratulates the college on winning the Inclusive College Award for its film festival; understands that the festival uses filmmaking in an innovative way to engage and develop students with learning disabilities; believes that the 2017 festival saw the students in charge of all the decision making, growing in confidence and building a whole new skillset along the way; welcomes the remarkable response that it received from across the globe from filmmakers eager to take part; notes that the college was also commended in the Essential Skills category and Innovative College category; commends all of the winners, and welcomes this further recognition for the excellent work that takes place at Dundee and Angus College.

Forestry and Land Management (Scotland) Bill – Stage 2

After section 1

Rhoda Grant

14 After section 1, insert—

<Purpose of Act

The purpose of this Act is to promote sustainable management of forest resources in Scotland with a view to the promotion of the local and national social, economic and environmental impacts of forestry in Scotland.>

Section 3

Rhoda Grant

15 In section 3, page 2, leave out line 14 and insert—

<() within 5 years after publishing the strategy (including each revision of it) under section 5, the Scottish Ministers must either—

- (i) revise the strategy, or
- (ii) publish an explanation of why they have decided not to revise it.>

After section 4

Rhoda Grant

16 After section 4, insert—

<Proposals for forestry strategy: parliamentary consideration

(1) After complying with section 4, the Scottish Ministers—

- (a) are to lay the proposed forestry strategy (or as proposed to be revised) before the Scottish Parliament, and
- (b) are not to complete their preparation or revision of the strategy until the period for parliamentary consideration has expired.

(2) In this section, the “period for parliamentary consideration” means the period of 60 days beginning on the day on which the draft is so laid, and in reckoning that period no account is to be taken of any time during which the Scottish Parliament—

- (a) is dissolved, or
- (b) is in recess for more than 4 days.

(3) In preparing or revising the strategy, the Scottish Ministers are to have regard to any resolution or report of, or of any committee of, the Scottish Parliament, during the period for parliamentary consideration, as regards the proposed strategy (or as the case may be the strategy as proposed to be revised).>

Members' Bills Proposals

Proposals for Members' Bills

A member seeking to introduce a Member's Bill must first lodge a draft proposal, together with a consultation document (or a statement of reasons why consultation is not considered necessary). Subsequently, the member may lodge a final proposal, in broadly similar terms to the draft, accompanied by a summary of consultation responses (or the statement of reasons). The member secures the right to introduce a Bill to give effect to the proposal if the final proposal secures, within one month, the support of at least 18 other members from at least half the political parties or groups represented in the Parliamentary Bureau, and provided no indication is given that the Scottish Government or UK Government is planning equivalent legislation.

All current proposals (together with associated documents) are available on the Scottish Parliament website at Proposals for Members' Bills/Session 5 Proposals:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/12419.aspx>

Final Proposal for Members' Bills

Mark Ruskell: Proposed Restricted Roads (20mph Limit) (Scotland) Bill—Proposal for a Bill to replace the current 30mph default speed limit on restricted roads with a 20mph limit. (lodged 20 November 2017)

The proposal was accompanied by a summary of consultation responses, which is accessible online via the website page referred to above. The summary, and individual responses, may also be viewed in the Scottish Parliament Information Centre (SPICe).

Bills

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
