12:45 pm Members' Business

Debate on the subject of—

S5M-07165 Richard Leonard: Importance of Worker Ownership to the Scottish

Economy—That the Parliament recognises the contribution made to the Scottish economy by worker-owned companies such as Clansman Dynamics and Novograf in Lanarkshire; notes their expansion since the change in ownership; welcomes the commitment by the previous owners to the transfer to worker control and ownership, and notes calls for other business owners to consider an employee ownership and control model in their succession planning.

2:30 pm Parliamentary Bureau Motions

2:30 pm Members' Business

Debate on the subject of—

S5M-07560 Ruth Maguire: Flexible Working, Maximising Talent and Driving Inclusive

Growth—That the Parliament welcomes the Timewise report, Flexible Jobs Index Scotland: Maximising talent and driving inclusive growth; understands that the research and report were commissioned by the Scottish Government working in partnership with Family Friendly Working Scotland; further understands that the report represents the first time that the ratio of quality jobs advertised as open to flexible working options in Scotland has been researched; acknowledges the key finding of the report that demand for flexible jobs massively outstrips supply, with only 11.9% of quality jobs, paying at least £20,000 FTE, being advertised as flexible, while 34% of people seeking employment in Scotland are looking for part-time or flexible vacancies; considers that companies in Cunninghame South and across Scotland with family-friendly and flexible working policies reap the benefits of more loyal, motivated and productive staff and a happier and healthier working environment, making flexible working positive not only for workers and families but also for businesses and the economy; believes that the findings of this report demonstrate that companies that do not offer employees flexible working are failing to recruit and retain the best talent, and also highlights the huge potential for growing the flexible jobs market across Scotland; commends the work of Timewise and Family Friendly Working Scotland; notes the calls for employers to read this report and consider what positive actions they can take in the future, and further notes the calls on MSPs to promote family-friendly working practices to local businesses in their area.

followed by Stage 1 Debate: Domestic Abuse (Scotland) Bill

S5M-07905 Michael Matheson: Domestic Abuse (Scotland) Bill—That the Parliament agrees to the general principles of the Domestic Abuse (Scotland) Bill.

followed by Financial Resolution: Domestic Abuse (Scotland) Bill

S5M-07708 Derek Mackay: Domestic Abuse (Scotland) Bill—That the Parliament, for the purposes of any Act of the Scottish Parliament resulting from the Domestic Abuse (Scotland) Bill, agrees to any expenditure of a kind referred to in Rule 9.12.3(b) of the Parliament's Standing Orders arising in consequence of the Act.

Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Members' Business motions that have not achieved cross party support

S5M-07924 Daniel Johnson: Respect for Shopworkers Week, 13 to 19 November—That the Parliament notes that Respect for Shopworkers Week, which is organised by USDAW's Freedom From Fear campaign, runs from 13 to 19 November 2017; further notes that the week highlights the violence and abuse faced by shopworkers; recognises that the Retail Crime Survey, published in February 2017, concluded that "retail staff continue to suffer unacceptable levels of violence and abuse", rising by 40% since 2015-16; is concerned that alcohol sales and the legal requirement of the Challenge 25 scheme can often act as a trigger-point for the outbreak of violence or abuse against workers, and considers that the abuse experienced by simply doing their job is of continued distress to shopworkers; celebrates the week's vital role in raising awareness of the violence and abuse faced by shopworkers, and notes calls on both the Scottish and UK governments to act so that all public-facing workers can benefit from further protection from violence, abuse, and threats when at work.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S5M-07968 Emma Harper: Annual Tam O'Shanter Recitation Competition—That the Parliament congratulates Lex Muir from Newton Stewart on being declared the winner at the annual Tam O'Shanter recitation competition, which took place on 19 September 2017 at The Globe Inn in Dumfries; recognises that the event, which was organised by the Dumfries Ladies Burns Club No 1, hosted seven competitors from across the UK, each of whom presented Robert Burns' famous tale; understands that the new president of the club, Dr Ruth Thomson, welcomed each performer, who were all praised by the principal judge, David Baird, and the winner was presented the trophy by Brian Goldie, junior vice president of the Robert Burns World Federation, and wishes Lex, the Dumfries Ladies Burns Club No 1 and each of the competitors well for the future.

S5M-07966 Alexander Stewart: HeadSmart Campaign Voted UK's Favourite National Lottery-funded Health Project—That the Parliament congratulates the Brain Tumour Charity's

HeadSmart Campaign on being voted the UK's favourite National Lottery-funded health project; understands that the TV presenter and The Saturdays singer, Rochelle Humes, visited the team to break the news that they will pick up a National Lottery Award in the annual search for the UK's most popular lottery-funded good causes; believes that HeadSmart beat off competition from 1,300 entries to win the £5,000 cash prize and the trophy and will have its work celebrated on a special BBC One show to be broadcast on 27 September 2017; recognises that HeadSmart has two key aims, which are to save lives and reduce long-term disability by bringing down diagnosis times; further recognises that a key part of this is to make sure that more parents and healthcare professionals are aware of the warning signs of a brain tumour in children, and commends HeadSmart and all its staff and volunteers on their valuable efforts.

Supported by: Michelle Ballantyne*, Tom Mason*, Liz Smith*, Miles Briggs*, Jeremy Balfour*, Liam McArthur*, Alison Harris*, Jamie Halcro Johnston*

S5M-07965 Tom Mason: Powis Community Centre Celebrates 75th Anniversary—That the Parliament recognises that Aberdeen's Powis Community Centre has recently marked its 75th anniversary, which was celebrated by hosting the Powis Gala on 23 September 2017; notes that activities at the gala included face painting, Zumba classes and many more; considers that the community centre has played and continues to play an important role for local residents, and wishes the Powis Community Centre all the best for the future.

Supported by: Jeremy Balfour*, Liz Smith*, Miles Briggs*, Michelle Ballantyne*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Alexander Stewart*, Alison Harris*, Jamie Halcro Johnston*

S5M-07964 Tom Mason: Aberdeen Grammar School F1 Challenge in Kuala Lumpur—That the Parliament recognises that four pupils from Aberdeen Grammar School are set to take on the 2017 F1 in Schools STEM Challenge World Finals in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia; notes that, for the event, the students designed, constructed and raced the fastest miniature F1 car of the future; recognises that this event encourages young people to get involved in engineering, science, marketing and technology, and wishes the team the very best of luck for the event.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Liz Smith*, Jeremy Balfour*, Michelle Ballantyne*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Alison Harris*, Alexander Stewart*, Jamie Halcro Johnston*

S5M-07963 Sandra White: Faith in Older People's 10th Anniversary—That the Parliament congratulates Faith in Older People on its 10th anniversary; considers that this small organisation has achieved a national and international reputation in relation to promoting a better understanding of the importance of the spiritual dimension to the wellbeing of older people, which is recognised in Scottish Government policy as being fundamental to good person-centred care, and wishes the organisation every success for the future.

Supported by: Jenny Gilruth*

S5M-07962 Liz Smith: Value of College Graduates to the Scottish Economy—That the Parliament welcomes the Fraser of Allander Institute report, The value of college graduates to the Scottish economy, which found that colleges will generate additional value worth £20 billion for the Scottish economy, as measured by GDP, over the long-term, representing an additional £55,000 boost to economic productivity in Scotland per graduate, and considers that this research demonstrates the critical role that colleges play in developing Scotland's growth potential through enhancing human capital, whether providing routes from school to work, further training or university, continuous skills development, or retraining people for new opportunities.

S5M-07961 Christina McKelvie: St John Ogilvie Awards Ceremony 2017—That the Parliament congratulates St John Ogilvie High School on its Senior Award Ceremony, which acknowledges what it sees as the remarkable and record successes of its senior pupils; understands that both S4 and S5 pupils achieved record exam results in the last academic year; celebrates the school's wider achievement, including its extraordinary service and charity fundraising with respect to St Andrews Hospice with the school having already donated over £94,000 since 2008; notes the inspiring community service of the pupils and the school's Rotary Interact group's support for local foodbanks and the Udston Hospital; notes the school's leadership in tackling sexual and gender-based violence, through its partnership with the STAMP project, Zero Tolerance and the University of Glasgow; commends the leadership shown by all staff and faculties at the school, and congratulates all of the pupils on their continued success.

Supported by: Bill Kidd*, Ruth Maguire*, Jenny Gilruth*, Stuart McMillan*, Kenneth Gibson*, Stewart Stevenson*

S5M-07960 Brian Whittle: £1.2 million Big Lottery Fund Award for Eat Well, Age Well Project—That the Parliament welcomes the announcement of an award of £1.2 million by the Big Lottery Fund to the Eat Well, Age Well project, which aims to tackle rising cases of malnutrition among older people in Scotland; understands that the award, led by the Dumfries-based charity, Food Train, will bring together people with lived experience, clinical experts and other stakeholders to approach reducing malnutrition, creating a lasting and engaged network committed to responding and adapting to this issue, testing new ways of helping older people eat well across Scotland, while sharing learning across the UK; recognises the importance of addressing malnutrition and encouraging people to eat a healthy, nutritious diet as this is understood to be a contributing factor in reducing instances of preventable illness, and wishes the Eat Well, Age Well project every success.

Supported by: Tom Mason*, Alexander Stewart*, Alison Harris*, Jeremy Balfour*, Edward Mountain*, Liz Smith*, Miles Briggs*, Murdo Fraser*, Ruth Maguire*, Colin Beattie*, Jamie Halcro Johnston*, Michelle Ballantyne*, Kenneth Gibson*

S5M-07959 Alexander Burnett: Douneside House Hotel Wins Award—That the Parliament congratulates Douneside House, near Tarland, on receiving the Hotel of the Year – Scotland award at the 2017 AA Hospitality Awards, and commends all those who worked to achieve this award.

S5M-07958 Ivan McKee: MCR Pathways Wins Prestigious People Make Glasgow Award—That the Parliament congratulates MCR Pathways on winning the prestigious People Make Glasgow Award at the 2017 Inspiring City Awards; notes that the programme was established by Iain MacRitchie 10 years ago to provide mentoring for care-experienced and other disadvantaged young people in Glasgow; believes that the programme has been proven to transform the aspirations and outcomes of these young people by guiding them on pathways to education, employment and fulfilling lives; notes the most recent impact report published by Glasgow City Council, which showed that where, in general, just 48.8% of the most disadvantaged young people progressed from school directly to college, university or employment, 81% of those who had received MCR mentoring did so; understands that the programme is currently expanding across Glasgow and to other parts of Scotland and is currently recruiting volunteer mentors to match to young people; commends this inspiring initiative, and encourages MSPs and others to consider putting themselves forward to become mentors.

Supported by: Richard Lyle*, Bill Kidd*, Sandra White*, David Torrance*, Emma Harper*, Ruth Maguire*, Colin Beattie*, Jenny Gilruth*, Stuart McMillan*, Kenneth Gibson*

S5M-07957 Pauline McNeill: St Angela's—That the Parliament congratulates the St. Angela's Participation Centre Community Sports Hub in Greater Pollok, Glasgow on its successful Supporting Community Diversity through Sport event, which was held on 25 August 2017 as part of its EU-funded Erasmus+ project, Enriching Lives and Opening Minds; notes that the project is a grassroots community partnership between Scottish, Croatian and Italian community organisations, which celebrate the diversity of their communities by way of national sports; understands that St. Angela's Participation Centre brought over 800 local youth and European visitors to Greater Pollok in August to multiple locations and also sent young and older volunteer coaches to Croatia and Italy to deliver traditional Scottish sports; considers that the example set by organisations, such as St. Angela's Participation Centre, provide unique opportunities for local, diverse youth and represent Scotland with distinction through their European community engagement.

Supported by: James Dornan*, Iain Gray*

S5M-07956 Alexander Stewart: Clackmannanshire Business Owner Donates to Autism Scotland—That the Parliament welcomes the news that a Clackmannanshire business owner is encouraging other bosses to forge links with charities and give something back to the community; notes that the property developer, Ewan Campbell, owner of Inglewood House Hotel and Spa in Alloa, has been supporting locally-based Scottish Autism and the specialist New Struan School for more than a year now, donating close to £3,000; further notes that, along with Ceteris Ltd, Ewan organised and hosted the 2016 Clackmannanshire Business Week lunch with proceeds going to the charity's school; believes Ewan had asked family and friends not to buy him any birthday presents this year but make a donation to Scottish Autism instead, and wishes him the very best of luck with all his future fundraising and acts of community generosity.

Supported by: Tom Mason*, Alison Harris*, Liz Smith*, James Dornan*, Jeremy Balfour*, Edward Mountain*, Maurice Corry*, Miles Briggs*, Margaret Mitchell*, Peter Chapman*, Ruth Maguire*, Murdo Fraser*, Colin Beattie* R, Michelle Ballantyne*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Jamie Halcro Johnston*

S5M-07955 Stuart McMillan: Plastic Cup Charge—That the Parliament recognises what it sees as the huge problems facing Scotland from non-recycled plastic waste, exacerbated by many cafes and fast-food outlets dispensing drinks using single-use paper laminate or paper/plastic laminate cups, which are typically non-recyclable or are not currently recycled by retailers; understands that numerous retailers are trying to reduce their waste by rewarding or incentivising customers to bring their own cups to be filled with coffee and drinks; notes the work being done by Cup Club in pioneering one of the world's first reusable cup solutions; believes that single-use drinks cups should be considered in a similar way as carrier bags, acknowledging that the carrier bag charge, it understands, has caused an 80% drop in single-use bag usage in Scotland in its first year, and believes that where recyclable packaging is in use, retailers should be made to ensure, where possible, that their waste packaging is recycled and not simply sent to landfill.

S5M-07954 Edward Mountain: Rona Tynan—That the Parliament notes that Rona Tynan, who is from Inverness and has multiple sclerosis (MS), is set to travel to Mexico to be given a cutting-edge stem cell transplant after more than £50,000 was raised in just six weeks to fund this; considers Rona an inspiration; congratulates her on raising the profile of MS, and wishes her well with the treatment and for the future.

Supported by: Jeremy Balfour*, Liz Smith*, Peter Chapman*, Tom Mason*, Ruth Maguire*, Alexander Stewart*, Alison Harris*, Miles Briggs*, Murdo Fraser*, Jamie Halcro Johnston*, Colin Beattie*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Michelle Ballantyne*, Stuart McMillan*, Kenneth Gibson*

S5M-07953 Sandra White: Celebrating 40 Years of Glasgow's Community Central Hall—That the Parliament congratulates Glasgow's Community Central Hall (CCH), which is celebrating its 40th anniversary; understands that the CCH has evolved over its 40 years from community space provision into a popular community centre with vital services, including a nursery, out of school care, youth work, café, day care and social events; the CCH's achievements include supporting over 2,500 people into work and training, delivering over 181,000 hours of environmental improvement works, generating over £32 million of investment into the local Maryhill community and supporting over 130,000 community events; recognises the commitment and efforts of all involved in the CCH, and wishes it another successful 40 years.

Supported by: Bill Kidd*, David Torrance*, Ash Denham*, Ruth Maguire*, Stuart McMillan*, Richard Lyle*, James Dornan*, Joan McAlpine*, Clare Adamson*, Colin Beattie*, Jenny Gilruth*

S5M-07952 Liam McArthur: 50th Anniversary of the Orkney Inter-isles Air Service—That the Parliament acknowledges the 50th anniversary of the Orkney inter-isles air service on 27 September 2017; understands that the very first inter-isles air services took off in 1967 and, to mark the occasion, Loganair flew around all six of the islands to unveil commemorative plaques, including Eday which joined the network in 1972; notes that there was a presentation to Jim Lennie, Orkney Islands Council (OIC) airfield superintendent on Sanday, who has worked on the service throughout the full 50 years; further notes recognition for Jack Scott, the original OIC airfield superintendent on Westray, a role now undertaken by his daughter, Linda Hagan; welcomes the further recognition of Loganair engineer, Bryan Sutherland, for his 50 years of service; thanks Loganair's pilots, ground staff and engineers, both past and present, for the work they have done and continue to do in delivering an air service that is a genuine lifeline for Orkney's north isles communities, and looks forward to the maintenance of the service for many years to come.

Supported by: Tavish Scott*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Graeme Dey*, Bill Kidd*, Kenneth Gibson*, Jamie Halcro Johnston*, Stewart Stevenson*

S5M-07951 Jamie Halcro Johnston: Welcoming Freedom of Orkney for Dr John Rae—That the Parliament welcomes the posthumous granting of the Freedom of Orkney to the Arctic explorer, Dr John Rae, by Orkney Islands Council; considers that the Orkney-born surgeon's expeditions in the mid-19th century greatly expanded understanding of northern Canada and resulted in the discovery of the final portion of a navigable Northwest Passage; notes his further contribution toward expanding telegraphy and uncovering the fate of the missing Franklin expedition, and supports the impetus in recent years to ensure that Dr Rae gains what it considers the well-deserved recognition that he has previously been denied.

Progress of Legislation

Bills

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
