Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Members' Business motions that have achieved cross party support

S5M-07970 Ivan McKee: The Day of the Imprisoned Writer, 15 November—That the Parliament acknowledges that, each year, 15 November marks the Day of the Imprisoned Writer, which commemorates writers around the world who have been imprisoned, threatened or attacked for exercising their right to freedom of expression, and takes action on their behalf; notes with grave concern what it sees as the decline worldwide in free expression, as documented by organisations such as Reporters Without Borders, Amnesty International, PEN International, Committee to Protect Journalists and Human Rights Watch; acknowledges the importance of defending and supporting free expression for every person in Scotland and of protecting persons persecuted around the world, by state and non-state actors, for exercising their right to free speech; notes the view that governmental, intergovernmental and civil society partners at home and abroad should work together to secure protections for writers and others who are persecuted for exercising their right to freedom of expression, and further notes calls for the day to be officially recognised every year by the Parliament.

S5M-07977 Sandra White: Centenary of the Balfour Declaration—That the Parliament welcomes the invitation from the Balfour Project to mark the centenary of the Balfour Declaration on 2 November 2017 by learning what the declaration means for both Arabs and Jews; acknowledges that, while a homeland for the Jewish people has been achieved, the promise to protect the rights of the Palestinian people has not yet been fulfilled, and notes the call for effective action to be taken by the UK Government to promote justice, security and peace for both peoples.

Supported by: Ivan McKee*, Christina McKelvie*, Iain Gray*, David Torrance*, Richard Lochhead*, Clare Haughey*, Jenny Gilruth*, Richard Lyle*

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S5M-07998 Tom Mason: The Queen Opens Garden at Aberdeen Royal Infirmary—That the Parliament welcomes the official opening of the Robertson Family Roof Garden at Aberdeen Royal Infirmary by The Queen; notes that Her Majesty, who was met by the Lord Provost of Aberdeen, Barney Crockett, and representatives of NHS Grampian, unveiled a plaque to mark the occasion; understands that the £600,000 project aims to provide a safe, comforting and invigorating outdoor space for patients, relatives and staff; notes that the garden has achieved RHS Chelsea Flower Show Gold Standard, and warmly thanks everyone involved with this very worthy project on their efforts.

S5M-07996 Ruth Maguire: North Ayrshire DrEAM Week 2017—That the Parliament notes that 24 September to 1 October is North Ayrshire DrEAM (Drop Everything and Move) Week 2017; understands that the initiative aims to improve people's health and wellbeing by encouraging everyone to have fun and get active; notes that it is supported by the Active Communities Partnership, which includes North Ayrshire Council, NHS Ayrshire and Arran, Ayrshire College, North Ayrshire Health and Social Care Partnership and sportscotland; acknowledges that the week is structured around the themes of getting active, involved, and inspired, with active events taking place across the region and ideas for group activities for communities, schools and workplaces to get involved together; notes that it is being supported with the social media hashtag, #dreamna, and an interactive map, and wishes all involved with the week every success.

Supported by: David Torrance*, Joan McAlpine*, Graeme Dey*, Richard Lyle*, Kenneth Gibson*, Ash Denham*, Bill Kidd*, Jamie Greene*, Rona Mackay*, Jenny Gilruth*

S5M-07995 Alison Harris: Retirement of Grangemouth GP, Dr Ian Murdoch—That the Parliament acknowledges the retirement of Dr Ian Murdoch, after serving as a GP at a busy Grangemouth surgery, the Bo'ness Road Medical Practice, where he has been a valued partner since 1984; notes that, after qualifying from the University of Glasgow in 1979, he worked in a number of hospitals, including the Falkirk and District Royal Infirmary, and that as well as being a busy GP, Ian is also a qualified occupational health practitioner, working with the Forth Ports Authority, BP and GE Plastics, and has carried out seafarer medicals for the Maritime and Coastguard Agency for 31 years, and wishes Ian a happy retirement.

S5M-07993 Tom Arthur: John Marshall and Son Receives National Recognition at the Scottish Craft Butchers Awards—That the Parliament congratulates the owner of Johnstone-based John Marshall and Son butchers, David Marshall, on it winning three prestigious awards; understands that more than 250 pies from across the nation took part in 2017's Scottish Craft Butchers Awards, and notes that John Marshall and Son won gold awards for its mince rounds and a silver award for its steak and sausage pie.

S5M-07992 Tom Arthur: Tributes for Former Football Coach—That the Parliament commends pupils from Barrhead for raising funds in memory of Graham Hodgson, who was a football coach for more than 20 years; understands that Graham sadly passed away in July, aged 60, and was known to many as "Spam", a nickname that stemmed from his own school days; notes that fundraising events are planned to raise money for a plaque at Carlibar Primary School's multi-use games area, which will be renamed Spam's Park, and recognises the impact that Graham made to so many generations.

S5M-07991 Tom Arthur: Tesco Linwood Fundraiser—That the Parliament congratulates staff and customers of Tesco in Linwood on raising £1,300 to buy a specialised chair for nine-year-old Harris Docherty; understands that Harris, who is from Houston, has the genetic disorder, Angelman syndrome, which primarily affects the nervous system, causing delayed development, severe speech impairment and problems with movement and balance; notes that the store was impressed by Harris's courage in facing up to his illness, and hopes that his new chair will allow him to sit more comfortably.

S5M-07990 Tom Arthur: Paige Green, Linwood Cheerleader—That the Parliament congratulates 15-year-old Paige Green, who is a cheerleader from Linwood, on securing her place at the International Cheerleading Union's World Championships, which will take place in Orlando in April 2018; understands that Paige has only been cheerleading for a year and faced some tough competition at the open auditions; notes that her coach and fellow members at Linwood's Solid Rocks Cheer and Gym are very proud of her, and wishes her every success when she represents Team Scotland.

Supported by: Ruth Maguire*, Joan McAlpine*, David Torrance*, Richard Lyle*, Ash Denham*, Bill Kidd*, Emma Harper*, George Adam*

S5M-07989 Tom Arthur: Winners of the Scottish Multi-Class Regatta—That the Parliament congratulates the winners of the Scottish Multi-Class Regatta, which took place at Castle Semple Loch; understands that the competition is part of the ongoing legacy of Glasgow's 2014 Commonwealth Games; notes that, after four races, the Hansa 303 double class was won by Darren McGregor and Jamie Cairns, with Mick Kelly and Lewis Nicolson finishing second and Shannon McGhee and Laura Carrock in third; further notes that the winning group represented Scotland West at the Special Olympics in Sheffield in summer 2017, bringing home two silver medals and a bronze, and wishes Sailability Scotland, which is an independent Scottish charity, continued success as it works to improve and develop opportunities for the integration and support of disabled people into the sport of sailing.

Supported by: Joan McAlpine*, Sandra White*, Ruth Maguire*, David Torrance*, Richard Lyle*, Bill Kidd*, Stuart McMillan*

S5M-07987 Maurice Golden: East Renfrewshire is First Local Authority to Recycle More Than 60%—That the Parliament welcomes the news that East Renfrewshire Council has become the first local authority area in Scotland to recycle more than 60% of household waste; further welcomes the news that, in the west of Scotland, both Renfrewshire and West Dunbartonshire councils have also seen increases in household waste recycling rates; notes with concern that a number of council areas across the west of Scotland have seen household waste recycling rates decline; understands that, with current progress, Scotland is set to miss the Scottish Government's 70% recycling target by 2025; believes that recycling is an important means of tackling waste, reducing litter and supporting the circular economy, and urges the Scottish Government to ensure that local authority areas are fully supported in implementing recycling services.

S5M-07986 Peter Chapman: Garioch Kettlebells Group Gift Local Community Life-saving Equipment—That the Parliament recognises the work of Garioch Kettlebells Group, which recently achieved its goal of raising money to provide Logie Hall with a defibrillator; notes that the group celebrated with an evening of quizzes, music and entertainment; appreciates First 4 Aids providing free CPR training on the night to all the hall's users, and thanks the group for this generous donation that could save many lives.

S5M-07985 Christina McKelvie: Engender Scotland Report, Gender Matters Roadmap – Towards Women's Equality in Scotland—That the Parliament acknowledges the recent report, Gender Matters Roadmap – Towards Women's Equality in Scotland, by Engender; welcomes the recommendations of the report, which state that unpaid care work carried out by women is deserving of recognition; supports the call for more female representation in politics and the media to ensure that voices are heard on equal levels; notes the recommendation that women should have a safe, dry and comfortable place for them and their children to sleep and with enough money to provide for them; supports the aim to build on the work of previous generations of Scottish women who advocated for women's rights, and further supports the vision of all women in Scotland having more access to power, resources and safety by 2030.

Supported by: Ruth Maguire*, Richard Lyle*, David Torrance*, Clare Haughey*, Emma Harper*, Neil Findlay*, Bill Kidd*, Rona Mackay*

S5M-07984 Rhoda Grant: Inverness Police Control Room—That the Parliament notes with concern the reported decision by the Scottish Police Authority to approve Police Scotland's proposal to close the Inverness police control room; understands that the function of command and control will be undertaken from a control room in Dundee; accepts that there will be no staff losses in Inverness but considers that valuable local knowledge will be lost; further considers this move to be another chapter in what it considers the Scottish Government's centralisation programme, and fears the diminution of service provision as a result of this decision.

Supported by: Lewis Macdonald*, Edward Mountain*, Neil Findlay*, Iain Gray*

S5M-07983 Alexander Stewart: Andrew Michie from Clackmannan Presented with the BEM—That the Parliament congratulates Andrew Michie, who is a former teacher from Clackmannan, on being awarded the British Empire Medal (BEM) in recognition of his work to ensure the safety of outdoor adventure activities; understands that Andrew has been involved with national governing bodies (NGB) of sport since 1971 and has helped to develop NGB courses and train around 3,000 instructors in a range of activities; acknowledges his work with the Adventure Activity Licensing Authority, that he served as the chair of the coaching committees of the Scottish Canoe Association and Snowsport Scotland in the 1970s and 1980s respectively and was chair of Cycling Scotland's Mountain Bike Leader Association in the 1990s; notes that the citation for the BEM states that Andrew's "work in developing mountain bike leadership awards was very important for the outdoor activity industry as it provided a qualification that allowed leaders to demonstrate their competence to lead young people in an exciting outdoor activity" and that "many of his initiatives and development work spilled over significantly into his own time, much of this spent advising, designing and developing programmes in outdoor education, undertaken in a selfless, voluntary capacity"; understands that the Lord-Lieutenant of Clackmannanshire, Lt Col (Rtd) Johnny Stewart, presented him the medal at a ceremony in Arndean near Dollar, and commends Andrew on his highly significant efforts.

S5M-07982 David Torrance: Porscha Wilson—That the Parliament congratulates Porscha Wilson from Balwearie High School on winning the Senior Girls category at 2017's Alfred Dunhill Schools Golf Challenge; understands that the 15-year-old competed against a strong field of young golfers from across Fife, Dundee and Angus; notes that she shot a net 69 to claim the Senior Girls title, and that she holds the record of being the youngest ever ladies club champion at the Burntisland Golf House, and wishes Porscha the best of luck in future competitions.

Supported by: Murdo Fraser*, Ruth Maguire*, Alexander Stewart*, Richard Lyle*, Clare Haughey*, Jenny Gilruth*, Ash Denham*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-07981 David Torrance: Fife Gingerbread—That the Parliament congratulates Fife Gingerbread on receiving a £9,992 award from the Big Lottery Fund's Awards for All programme; understands that the funding will be used to increase the number of men who volunteer for the charity and provide engagement with young male lone parents under the age of 24; recognises that Fife Gingerbread is also celebrating its 30th anniversary in 2017, and thanks the charity for its generous commitment to the community during this time.

Supported by: Joan McAlpine*, Ruth Maguire*, Richard Lyle*, Clare Haughey*, Sandra White*, Jenny Gilruth*, Ash Denham*, Claire Baker*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-07980 David Torrance: Balwearie High School Receives £1,000 Donation from Smeaton Stores—That the Parliament recognises Kirkcaldy's Smeaton Stores for donating £1,000 to Balwearie High School; notes that the owners of the store, Asif and Abada Akhtar, donated the money to support young students living in areas of poverty; understands that the donation will support the school's breakfast club, which is designed to help pupils who may come from difficult backgrounds to get a good start to the day; recognises that the couple have been recognised for their work in their community at the Scottish Local Retailer Awards, where their business was named Community Retailer of the Year, and thanks Asif and Abada for their generous donation and continued commitment to the community and its young people.

S5M-07978 Ben Macpherson: Launch of One Thousand Words—That the Parliament welcomes the launch of One Thousand Words, which is a domestic abuse photo project that has been designed and delivered by Scottish Women's Aid, Zero Tolerance and survivors of domestic abuse; recognises that One Thousand Words is a collection of 15 powerful photos taken by the acclaimed photographer and storyteller, Laura Dodsworth, based on the words and experiences of women who have lived through domestic abuse; further recognises that this unique set of images illustrates the reality of domestic abuse and the psychological and emotional trauma that victims of domestic abuse experience; believes that these stock images, inspired by the Scottish Government's Domestic Abuse (Scotland) Bill, are a critical step forward in raising public awareness that domestic abuse is far more than physical violence; acknowledges that, in releasing these images, the survivors, charities and photographer hope that victims will recognise their own experiences and seek the support that is available, and encourages everyone to share these images when discussing domestic abuse on any media outlets.

S5M-07976 Peter Chapman: Haddo House and Country Estate Celebrates National Climate Change Week—That the Parliament recognises the efforts of Haddo House and Country Park in celebrating National Climate Change Week by encouraging the local community to partake in a range of "green" activities; notes that these activities ranged from loaning bikes to park visitors for a ride around the country park to teaching local schools about food miles, biodegradability and food waste, and also included craft evenings, and wishes all those attending the week's final event, a screening of Tomorrow on 30 September 2017, a dry and successful evening.

S5M-07975 Ross Greer: Iraqi Kurdistan Referendum—That the Parliament recognises the democratic vote in the Kurdistan region of Iraq in support of the formation of an independent state; notes that the vote in favour of independence was 93%, on a turnout of 72%, representing an absolute majority of the electorate; considers that a largely free and democratic vote is a positive development in the region; calls on the Turkish and Iranian governments to cease what it considers their aggressive rhetoric and threats of military and economic action against the people of Iraqi Kurdistan for exercising their right to self-determination; calls on the Iraqi Government to engage in dialogue with the Kurdistan Regional Government and work towards a peaceful solution that respects the democratic wishes of those in the region, and sincerely hopes that this referendum is a precursor to free and fair democratic elections in Iraqi Kurdistan.

S5M-07974 Kenneth Gibson: Kurds in Iraq Overwhelmingly Support Independence in Referendum—That the Parliament acknowledges that, in the peaceful referendum held in the Kurdish autonomous region of Iraq on 25 September 2017, 92.73% of voters, approximately 2,861,000 people, said "yes" to the question, "Do you want the Kurdistan region and the Kurdistan areas outside the administration of the region to become an independent state?"; understands that turnout for the vote was 72.61% of eligible Kurds and non-Kurds, according to the announcement made on 27 September by the electoral commission; believes that this result should provide a mandate and platform on which to begin negotiations with the central government in Baghdad, and other neighbouring countries with a Kurdish population, regarding Kurdistan gaining statehood; is aware, however, that this announcement has reportedly been met with hostility from the Iraqi Government and some members of the international community; notes with particular concern that Iraq's Prime Minister, Haider al-Abadi, has reportedly stated that he would "never have a dialogue" regarding the referendum's outcome with the Kurdistan Regional Government; recognises that, despite Kurds being the fourth-largest ethnic group in the Middle East, they have never been permitted a permanent nation state, and encourages the Iraqi Government and international community to engage positively and peacefully with the Kurdish people to guarantee that their democratic rights are protected and the result of the referendum honoured.

S5M-07972 Ross Greer: Linnvale Community Bus Awarded Lottery Funding—That the Parliament congratulates the Linnvale Community Bus in West Dunbartonshire on being awarded £10,000 from the Big Lottery Fund Scotland; recognised the work of the organisation in providing low cost travel to communities around West Dunbartonshire through the rental of a community bus, which is made available to local community groups for excursions and social nights; notes that the funding will be used for a second minibus to expand this service, and wishes all involved with the Linnvale Community Bus all the best with their future work.

Supported by: Bill Kidd*, Ruth Maguire*, Alison Johnstone*, David Torrance*

S5M-07971 Ross Greer: Gavinburn Early Learning and Childcare Centre Awarded Lottery Funding—That the Parliament congratulates Gavinburn Early Learning and Childcare Centre in Old Kilpatrick on being awarded £8,450 from the Big Lottery Fund Scotland; appreciates that the funding will be used to support children and their families, providing a valuable service to them; understands that the money will be used to improve the centre's outdoor area through the installation of play equipment and garden furniture, creating a better environment for those who use the service, and wishes everyone at the centre well for the future.

New Subordinate Legislation

Affirmative instruments

The following instrument was laid before the Parliament on 28 September 2017 and is subject to the affirmative procedure—

Budget (Scotland) Act 2017 Amendment Regulations 2017 [draft] laid under section 7(2) of the Budget (Scotland) Act 2017

Negative instruments

The following instrument was laid before the Parliament on 28 September 2017 and is subject to the negative procedure—

Common Agricultural Policy (Direct Payments etc.) (Scotland) Amendment (No. 2) Regulations 2017 (SSI 2017/317) laid under paragraph 2(2) of schedule 2 of the European Communities Act 1972

Progress of Legislation

Bills

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
