Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Members' Business motions that have not achieved cross party support

S5M-10627 Jamie Halcro Johnston: Regulation of Electricians as a Profession—That the Parliament notes the calls supporting the principle of the regulation of electricians as a profession; understands that, while over 100 regulated professions exist in the UK, including gas engineers, there is no protection afforded to electricians; appreciates that improperly-installed electrical work creates a significant risk of fire as well as other harm to householders in the Highlands and Islands and across Scotland; believes that the installation of electrical work by unqualified or only partly qualified individuals carries the risk of defects and safety issues arising; acknowledges the survey conducted by SELECT, which is the trade association for the electrical contracting industry in Scotland, which suggests that 93% of householders would expect someone claiming to be an electrician to be properly qualified and that 89% were not aware of how to check the qualifications of someone, and acknowledges the calls for the Scottish Government to consider how the Parliament's powers over protection of title can be utilised to reassure the public of the safety of electrical work that is carried out in domestic and non-domestic premises.

Supported by: Annie Wells*

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S5M-10641 Sandra White: Marie Curie Garden of Light—That the Parliament congratulates Marie Curie on its Garden of Light, which will be on display in Buchanan Street in Glasgow from 1 to 3 March 2018; understands that the installation of 700 artificial daffodils represents the number of people that Marie Curie will be caring for in Scotland that month; acknowledges that it will also feature a memory wall for people to write messages to loved ones; notes that dedicated volunteer collectors will be based around the garden and the city centre over the three days for people to support the charity's annual Great Daffodil Appeal, which takes place every March; understands that it will illuminate at night to demonstrate the light that Marie Curie nurses bring to people across Scotland, even in the darkest hours, and acknowledges that it will be open for the public to enjoy for free.

S5M-10640 Christine Grahame: Well Done, Newbyres—That the parliament congratulates Newbyres Care Village, which is in Gorebridge, on its recent five-star Care Inspectorate report; understands that this represents a vast improvement on reports prior to a change of management in November 2015; considers that this turnaround has been as a result of the hard work and dedication of the home's manager, Craig Thomson, and his team of committed care, domestic and support staff; understands that much of this improvement has been credited to improved support and training for staff along with innovative new initiatives, such as a Generations Working Together partnership with Newbyres Nursery, which has improved community connections for residents; recognises the hard work that care staff across the country put in, and wishes all of the residents and staff at Newbyres Care Village all the best for the future.

Supported by: Ruth Maguire*, Bill Kidd*, David Torrance*, Michelle Ballantyne*

S5M-10639 Gordon MacDonald: Broomhouse Centre Meal Vouchers Project—That the Parliament congratulate the staff and volunteers at the Broomhouse Centre for providing families from the area with meal vouchers to use in the centre's café during the half-term school holiday; understands that these were distributed via Broomhouse and St Joseph's primary schools; notes that 23 young carers and 62 people from the schools used the vouchers, and recognises the benefit that this brought to the community.

S5M-10638 Annie Wells: Bridging the Gap in the Gorbals—That the Parliament congratulates Bridging the Gap, which is part of the Gorbals Ecumenical Project, on being awarded £149,870 in lottery

funding; understands that it will use this to bring people who live in the Gorbals together through a range of activities, and notes that these will include a social enterprise bakery featuring its produce twice-a-week, a community engagement session on "Big Thursdays", which will include a free meal, weekly morning and afternoon baby and toddler groups and monthly "Come Dine With Us" community meals, with musicians from the area.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Michelle Ballantyne*, James Dornan*, Alexander Stewart*, Liz Smith*

S5M-10637 Annie Wells: Plantation Productions—That the Parliament congratulates the Govan-based Plantation Productions on being awarded £335,994 in lottery funding; notes that this will allow the group to run a series of creative courses for people with mental health conditions, in partnership with mental health resource centres, and acknowledges that the programme will aim to encourage people to take part in a range of creative activities and help develop peer support groups to improve their wellbeing and widen their social circle.

Supported by: Jeremy Balfour*, Ruth Maguire*, Liz Smith*, Michelle Ballantyne*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-10636 Annie Wells: The Hidden Gardens Trust—That the Parliament congratulates the Hidden Gardens Trust, which is in Pollokshields, on being awarded £149,685 in lottery funding; notes that the project will use this to bring the community together through a variety of existing volunteering and learning activities centred around its community garden, and understands that volunteering programmes, such as Weekend Garden Volunteers and Greenthumbs, will bring people together to maintain green spaces and allow them to make new friends, with the Greenthumbs programme also giving them the opportunity to become trained volunteer gardening assistants who will help deliver community workshops.

S5M-10635 Christina McKelvie: New Macmillan Cancer Support Centre in Hamilton—That the Parliament congratulates Macmillan Cancer Support on the opening of its new information centre in Hamilton; considers that the centre will be able to provide the necessary support to those in the Hamilton and wider South Lanarkshire area who are affected by cancer; further notes the outstanding work that it considers Macmillan does in cancer research and providing support for patients and their families; recognises that this centre opens as part of a wider investment within the area as Macmillan invests over £800,000 into providing services across North and South Lanarkshire; congratulates Macmillan on its fundraising in the area, which has allowed the centre to open, and wishes Macmillan every future success as it continues to provide outstanding support and information to the patients and families impacted by cancer.

Supported by: James Dornan*, Richard Lyle*, Joan McAlpine*, David Torrance*, Ruth Maguire*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-10634 Christina McKelvie: Hamilton Kickboxing Champion, Brandon Murray—That the Parliament congratulates 12-year-old Brandon Murray from Hamilton on qualifying for the World Kickboxing Championships in Spain; notes that he recently won three titles at the English Open Ringsports tournament in Barnsley; considers that Brandon, as a result of his talent, has the potential to move on from kickboxing to boxing to explore another sport; notes that this is not his first kickboxing achievement as he has represented Scotland on various occasions and won a host of awards; recognises that his older brother, Jamie, has also achieved many kickboxing titles; wishes Brandon and Jamie all the best with their upcoming competitions, and believes that their hard work, commitment and dedication is a credit to the sport.

Supported by: Richard Lyle*, James Dornan*, Ruth Maguire*, David Torrance*, Joan McAlpine*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-10633 Margaret Mitchell: Lanarkshire Business Week 2018—That the Parliament acknowledges that 26 February to 2 March is Lanarkshire Business Week 2018, which aims to discover fresh, innovative and real-world approaches to driving successful change in the area for start-up, growing and established business; notes that there will be a programme of workshops, business breakfast and networking opportunities, and acknowledges that it will culminate with the Lanarkshire Business Excellence Awards, which will celebrate 25 years of success and achievements of the Lanarkshire business world, reflecting the breadth and depth of its success.

Supported by: Annie Wells*

S5M-10632 Neil Findlay: FBU and SFRS Reach Agreement—That the Parliament notes that the Fire Brigades Union

(FBU) and Scottish Fire and Rescue Service (SFRS) have reached an agreement that takes into account the concerns that were raised in motion S5M-10586, (Fire Brigades Union Vote of No Confidence in the Scottish Fire and Rescue Service), with both parties having agreed on a process to continue to explore resolution on the harmonisation of terms and conditions and committing to identify a mutually-acceptable resolution; welcomes the recognition that harmonisation must be addressed before consideration of possible fire service transformation, and urges the Scottish Government to provide adequate funding to the SFRS to assist in this matter.

S5M-10631 Angus MacDonald: 470 (Falkirk) Squadron Royal Air Force Air Cadets Win the Morris Trophy—That the Parliament congratulates 470 (Falkirk) Squadron Royal Air Force Air Cadets of the Air Training Corps (ATC) on winning the Morris Trophy Regional Award to be named the best ATC squadron in the Scotland and Northern Ireland region; understands that the trophy is awarded to the best large ATC squadron in the UK and is one of the two most sought after awards in the ATC, the other being the Lees Trophy for smaller units; recognises that the Air Training Corps, or RAF Air Cadets, aim to promote and encourage a practical interest in aviation and the RAF, to provide training that can be useful in both the armed services and civilian life and encourage the spirit of adventure, while developing qualities of leadership and good citizenship; notes that 470 (Falkirk) Squadron were formed in February 1941 and are currently under Commanding Officer Flying Officer, Marc Esson RAFAC, who recently took over command from Flying Officer, Aubin Bryce RAFAC, who joined as a cadet in 1965 and has served continuously with the unit for 53 years; believes that cadets are given the opportunity to take part in annual camps, adventure training, the Duke of Edinburgh Award and various activities, including first aid and HEARTSTART training, air experience flights with the RAF, as well as supporting their communities by assisting at local events and fundraising; commends the efforts of all at the squadron in winning this award, which stands as a testament to the hard work of the cadets, staff and officers, and the Civilian Committee, over the years to build up the squadron to achieve this highly recognised accolade; wishes everyone involved the very best going forward, and looks forward to hearing more about the successes of 470 (Falkirk) Squadron in the future.

S5M-10629 Colin Beattie: Funding Award for Midlothian Voluntary Action—That the Parliament congratulates Midlothian Voluntary Action (MVA) on receiving a grant of £104,018 from the Big Lottery Fund; understands that this funding will enable the group to continue to run their outreach programme which supports isolated, older people and carers in a disadvantaged area; recognises the importance of what it sees as such a vital service to the people of Midlothian, and wishes MVA the best of luck with its endeavours.

S5M-10626 Christina McKelvie: Amnesty International Report, The State of the World's Human Rights—That the Parliament notes the findings of the Amnesty International (AI) 2017-18 report, The State of the World's Human Rights; understands that it highlights that conflict, austerity measures and natural disasters have pushed many around the world into deeper poverty and insecurity and that millions were forced to flee their homes and seek refuge elsewhere in their own or other countries; is saddened that discrimination was reported as remaining rife in all regions, with, at times, deadly consequences for the victims; expresses its dismay at the observation that governments of all persuasions have continued to crack down on the rights to freedom of expression, association and assembly; notes AI's claim that the EU withdrawal bill will "significantly reduce human rights protections in the UK" and its concern that the UK Government's so-called Global Britain drive to secure new trade deals because of Brexit is leading to a heightened risk of its ministers downplaying human rights issues globally; recognises what it believes is AI's alarm that the UK failing to retain the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights in domestic law will weaken the protections available to people, such as the right to equality, and welcomes AI's reported recognition of the Scottish Government's action to ensure that women from Northern Ireland can freely access abortion services through NHS in Scotland and also its setting up of an independent review into hate crime laws.

S5M-10625 Iain Gray: Scotswoman of the Year Special Award for Grace Warnock—That the Parliament congratulates Grace Warnock from Prestonpans on receiving the Editor's Award at the Evening Times Scotswoman of the Year awards; notes that Grace was presented with this special award in recognition of her Grace's Sign campaign to raise awareness of "invisible" disabilities; understands that she was the youngest-ever finalist in the prestigious awards, at which the broadcaster and writer, Sally Magnusson, was named Scotswoman of the Year, and believes that this latest award is further well deserved recognition for Grace's high profile and successful campaign, which has led to the installation of her sign, highlighting that not all disabilities can be seen, at various venues across Scotland, including the Parliament.

Written questions lodged on 23 February 2018

S5W-14829 Alexander Burnett: To ask the Scottish Government what assessment it has made of the potential impact on oil distribution companies of the changes to the Controlled Activities Regulations when applying for a SEPA licence, and how many companies these changes will affect.

S5W-14831 Alexander Stewart: To ask the Scottish Government what its response is to reports that as 36% of GPs in NHS Fife are no longer accepting new patients unless they have been allocated to them by the Practitioner Services Division.

S5W-14832 Alexander Stewart: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the response to the debate on motion S5M-04086 (Safe Drive, Stay Alive Project) by the Minister for Transport and the Islands on 1 March 2017 (Official Report, c. 100), what support (a) it and (b) Transport Scotland plans to give to this project in each of the next three years.

S5W-14833 Donald Cameron: To ask the Scottish Government what its response is to the finding by Scottish Natural Heritage in the paper, Index of abundance for Scottish terrestrial breeding birds, 1994-2016, which suggests that there has been a significant decline in more than half of the country's upland bird population.

S5W-14834 Donald Cameron: To ask the Scottish Government what its response is to research conducted by the University of St Andrews, which suggests that more needs to be done to protect carbon stores in sea lochs.

S5W-14845 Jamie Greene: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the statement by the Cabinet Secretary for Economy Jobs and Fair Work on 22 February 2018 (Official Report, c. 44), what level of public subsidy it plans to commit to Prestwick airport in each of the next three years.

S5W-14846 Jamie Greene: To ask the Scottish Government what (a) financial and (b) other support it is providing to LGBTI History Month 2018.

S5W-14847 Jamie Greene: To ask the Scottish Government how many trains on the ScotRail network will reach the end of their lease by August 2018; how many carriages will be taken out of service because of this, and what contingency measures it will introduce to mitigate any capacity reductions.

S5W-14848 Jamie Greene: To ask the Scottish Government how much funding it is allocating to investigate the potential options for the Clydeport site at Hunterston; which agency is delivering this funding; who is in receipt of it, and what information it has regarding the scope of the options.

S5W-14849 Jamie Greene: To ask the Scottish Government what its position is on commissioning a new nuclear power station or nuclear power generation capability at the site of the current Hunterston B plant.

S5W-14850 John Finnie: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the answer to question S5W-13816 by Humza Yousaf on 25 January 2018, when each of the trunk road operating contracts is due to expire and whether it has taken up an option to extend any of these and, if so, by how long.

Questions Ceistean

S5W-14851 John Finnie: To ask the Scottish Government what discussions it has had with the UK Government regarding the devolution of the functions of Network Rail.

S5W-14852 John Finnie: To ask the Scottish Government what progress it has made in preparing a public sector bid for the ScotRail franchise.

S5W-14853 John Finnie: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the answer to question S5W-14173 by Humza Yousaf on 15 February 2018, whether it has conducted, or will conduct, assessments on the impact that the current prioritisation of clearing and salting pavements and cycle ways has in relation to (a) gender and (b) poverty.

S5W-14854 Jamie Greene: To ask the Scottish Government by what date the full fleet of class 385 trains will be (a) delivered to ScotRail and (b) operational; what the cost has been of the delay in delivery; what financial penalties have been imposed on Hitachi as a result of the delay, and whether it will provide a breakdown of what impact the delay has had on capacity.

S5W-14855 Jamie Greene: To ask the Scottish Government what contingency plans it has in place to deal with any shortage of officers, in light of a recent survey, which suggests that two-thirds of British Transport Police officers in Scotland might leave the service following the proposed merger with Police Scotland.

S5W-14858 Donald Cameron: To ask the Scottish Government whether it has or plans to introduce a national strategy for testing bowel cancer patients for Lynch syndrome.

S5W-14865 Jamie Greene: To ask the Scottish Government, in light of its plan to bid for the next ScotRail franchise, what estimate it has made of what the maximum cost would be to (a) participate in the tendering exercise and (b) operate the franchise if it was successful, broken down by how it reached this figure.

S5W-14867 Miles Briggs: To ask the Scottish Government further to the answer to question S5W-05973 by Shona Robison on 31 January 2017, how much will be made available to fund insulin pumps and real-time continuous glucose monitoring in each of the remaining years of the current parliamentary session.

S5W-14868 Miles Briggs: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the answer to question S5W-05973 by Shona Robison on 31 January 2017, what assessment it has made of the effectiveness of the initial funding provided in 2017-18 for insulin pumps and real-time continuous glucose monitoring.

S5W-14869 Jamie Greene: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the statement by the Cabinet Secretary for Economy Jobs and Fair Work on 22 February 2018 (Official Report, c. 44), what method it is using to monitor Prestwick airport's financial situation.

S5W-14870 Jamie Greene: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the statement by the Cabinet Secretary for Economy Jobs and Fair Work on 22 February 2018 (Official Report, c. 44), what the target date is for Prestwick airport to return to the private sector.

Bills

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
