Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Members' Business motions that have not achieved cross party support

S5M-09970 Ross Greer: Bus Services—That the Parliament is concerned by reported rises in bus fares by First Bus, particularly in Glasgow and the West Scotland region; understands that fares for under-16s have risen by 40% and that single adult fares have increased by a further 15%; further understands that unaccompanied child fares have been withdrawn entirely following a move in 2017 to no longer offer return fares; considers that changes to fare structures that favour smartphone app-based ticketing will impact on those less likely to own a smartphone; expresses concern that fare rises will, it believes, also have a considerable negative impact on families, young people and low-earners; notes that several bus routes in Glasgow and the West Scotland region have been withdrawn or reduced, including the 4A service, with, it considers, little to no consultation with local residents, and notes the calls on the Scottish Government to reregulate buses to ensure that services are affordable, environmentally sustainable and accessible to all members of society.

Supported by: Mark Ruskell*, Andy Wightman*, Alison Johnstone*, John Finnie*, Alex Rowley*, Patrick Harvie*, Elaine Smith*

S5M-09968 Graeme Dey: Establishment of the Scottish Stone Group—That the Parliament welcomes the establishment of the Scottish Stone Group, which has been set up to raise awareness of the country's indigenous stone sector and promote an important environmentally-sustainable material, by what it considers some of Scotland's leading stone companies, Denfind Stone of Angus, Hutton Stone of the Borders and Tradstocks of Stirlingshire; notes that, while approximately 85% of stone used in Scotland is currently imported, the group aims to promote the use of indigenous natural stone and grow the industry, creating more jobs and apprenticeships, and wishes it success in realising these ambitions.

S5M-09992 Michelle Ballantyne: Haddington's Year of Celebrations—That the Parliament recognises that Haddington's year of celebrations is set to be launched on 20 January 2018; understands that Haddington was named a Royal Burgh in 1318 and that this year of celebrations will mark the 700th anniversary of this historic occasion; notes that a programme has been drawn up for the next 12 months, which features everything from an outdoor lighting extravaganza to an archaeological dig, and a medieval fair to live music, and wishes everyone involved the best success with the events over the coming year.

Supported by: Tom Mason*, Jeremy Balfour*, Peter Chapman*, Bill Bowman*, Alexander Stewart*, Miles Briggs*, Ruth Maguire*, Kenneth Gibson*, Edward Mountain*, Murdo Fraser*, Margaret Mitchell*

S5M-09991 Christine Grahame: Here Come the Romans—That the Parliament recognises the work of the Trimontium Trust in educating local communities about the Scottish Borders' Roman heritage; understands that Trimontium itself is the site of a Roman fort and settlement located near the village of Newstead, which was occupied from around 80 to 211 AD and which, at its peak, is believed to have housed up to 1,500 soldiers; notes that the Trust runs a museum in Melrose that seeks to tell the story of Roman settlement north of Hadrian's Wall and how this affected local culture and beliefs as it intermingled with the local tribes of Caledonia; considers that this story about the movement of people and the interaction of different cultures and nations remains prescient today, and notes that the Trust will be hosting an exhibition in the Parliament from 23 to 25 January 2018 on its work at Trimontium and its associated Burnswark Project in Dumfriesshire.

S5M-09990 John Mason: Norwegian Airline Reduces Flights—That the Parliament notes the news that the airline, Norwegian, will be withdrawing a route to Connecticut from Edinburgh due, it believes, to delays in the reduction of Air Passenger Duty (APD) or Air Departure Tax (ADT); understands that the airline will also be reducing the number of flights to Rhode Island and Stewart, north of New York City; believes that this is the first time that an airline has said that it is cutting flights due to APD; accepts that there are arguments on both sides of APD and that there are legal complications; considers that one of Scotland's key strengths is its tourism industry, and looks forward to further consideration of a reduction in APD, which it believes will bring with it significant potential benefits to the sector and the number of international flights into and out of Scotland.

Supported by: Murdo Fraser*, Graham Simpson*, Alexander Stewart*, Jeremy Balfour*, Peter Chapman*, Miles Briggs*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Jackson Carlaw*, Michelle Ballantyne*, Tom Mason*, Alison Harris*, Bill Bowman*, Edward Mountain*, Liam Kerr*, Alexander Burnett*, Margaret Mitchell*, Donald Cameron*

S5M-09989 Roseanna Cunningham: The Community Empowerment (Scotland) Act 2015 (Supplementary and Consequential Provisions) Order 2018 [draft]—That the Local Government and Communities Committee recommends that the Community Empowerment (Scotland) Act 2015 (Supplementary and Consequential Provisions) Order 2018 [draft] be approved.

Supported by: Joe FitzPatrick*

S5M-09988 Richard Lochhead: Congratulations to The Scottish Farmer on its 125th Anniversary—That the Parliament congratulates The Scottish Farmer on its 125th anniversary; notes that it is thought to be one of the oldest farming publications in the world; acknowledges that the weekly magazine has been providing essential farming news and business data to aid and support farmers since its initial launch in January 1893; notes that the 6 January 2018 edition incorporated a new masthead with a commemorative feature providing a taster of the evolution of the magazine, as well as the traditional Show & Sale Guide and an annual wall planner; recognises the immense contribution of The Scottish Farmer to Scotland's countryside, both by campaigning on behalf of farming and providing vital information about wider countryside issues; considers the publication to be a key voice for the farming and agricultural industry; commends the magazine publisher, Darren Bruce, and the editor, Ken Fletcher, on this important achievement, and wishes The Scottish Farmer continued success on this milestone anniversary.

S5M-09987 Michelle Ballantyne: Newtongrange Memories of the Second World War—That the Parliament recognises that the Newtongrange Reminiscence Group has recently launched a book of memories that recall growing up during the Second World War; understands that the group was put together in 2011 by the local historian and former Newbattle High School teacher, Jim Green, and notes that the book will form a very important and enlightening part of the area's social history.

Supported by: Tom Mason*, Peter Chapman*, Alexander Stewart*, Ruth Maguire*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Miles Briggs*, Jeremy Balfour*, Bill Bowman*, Liz Smith*, Murdo Fraser*, Bill Kidd*, Alison Harris*, Edward Mountain*, Kenneth Gibson*, Margaret Mitchell*

S5M-09986 Liam Kerr: Opening Date for the Dundee V&A—That the Parliament acknowledges that the official opening date for the V&A museum in Dundee as 15 September 2018; notes that construction work on the museum, which was designed by Japanese architect Kengo Kuma, began in March 2015; understands that the exterior of the building is now complete and that work starts in February on the interior; believes that the Scottish Design Galleries will be the heart of the new museum and will explore Scotland's design landscape, past, present and future; understands that other exhibitions will include the international touring exhibition, Ocean Liners: Speed & Style, as well as the Scottish Design Relay from the Michelin Design Gallery; recognises the importance of the regeneration work to the Dundee Waterfront, which it believes the V&A greatly compliments, as well as the investment that the museum will bring to the city; commends and congratulates all those involved in the construction, and wishes the museum every success for the opening day.

Supported by: Margaret Mitchell*, Finlay Carson*, Bill Bowman*, Alexander Stewart*, Miles Briggs*, Colin Beattie*, Liz Smith*, Tom Mason*, Jeremy Balfour*, Edward Mountain*, Ruth Maguire*, Peter Chapman*, Michelle Ballantyne*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Graeme Dey*, Murdo Fraser*, David Torrance*, Monica Lennon*, Alison Harris*, Alexander Burnett*

S5M-09985 Maree Todd: Police Act 1997 and the Protection of Vulnerable Groups (Scotland) Act 2007 Remedial Order 2018 [draft]—That the Education and Skills Committee recommends that the Police Act 1997 and the Protection of Vulnerable Groups (Scotland) Act 2007 Remedial Order 2018 [draft] be approved.

Supported by: John Swinney*, Shirley-Anne Somerville*

S5M-09984 Maree Todd: Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exclusions and Exceptions) (Scotland) Amendment Order 2018 [draft]—That the Education and Skills Committee recommends that the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exclusions and Exceptions) (Scotland) Amendment Order 2018 [draft] be approved.

Supported by: John Swinney*, Shirley-Anne Somerville*

S5M-09983 Alexander Stewart: Clackmannanshire Scottish SPCA Appeal for Hedgehog Support—That the Parliament acknowledges the Scottish SPCA's appeal to help feed the 155

S5M-09982 Gordon Lindhurst: Aldi in Bathgate Raises Cash for the Teenage Cancer Trust

—That the Parliament congratulates the staff and customers at the Aldi store in Bathgate on raising £1,500 for the Teenage Cancer Trust through a range of activities, including bake sales, as part of a national fundraising drive by Aldi and its regional distribution centres across the UK, which has so far helped to raise £1.2 million; recognises that the Bathgate and Livingston stores have further fundraising events planned for the year to help the company reach its goal of raising £5 million for the charity over five years by 2022, and wishes its staff and customers all the very best in working towards this.

S5M-09981 Dean Lockhart: Cop-a-Coffee—That the Parliament welcomes the launch of the engagement initiative by the police in Glenrothes, Cop-a-Coffee; understands that this will give people an opportunity to meet the police for an informal chat over a cup of tea or coffee to discuss issues in the community; notes that the sessions will be hosted by a high-street coffee outlet in the Kingdom Shopping Centre from 30 January 2018; recognises the importance of community policing and the effect that such initiatives can have on improving public perception and increasing trust in the police through fair decision making and positive public interaction, and wishes all involved in the scheme every success.

Supported by: Michelle Ballantyne*, Ruth Maguire*, Liz Smith*, Bill Bowman*, Margaret Mitchell*, Tom Mason*, Alexander Stewart*, Jeremy Balfour*, Maurice Golden*, Alexander Burnett*, Murdo Fraser*, Miles Briggs*, Edward Mountain*, Rachael Hamilton*, Alison Harris*, Bill Kidd*, Donald Cameron*, Jenny Gilruth*, David Torrance*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Liam Kerr*, Kenneth Gibson*

S5M-09980 Liam Kerr: Funding Success for Portlethen Ambulance Association—That the Parliament congratulates Portlethen and District Voluntary Community Ambulance Association on securing £4,500 from the Aviva Community Fund; understands that the voluntary organisation runs a 15-seater minibus for the benefit of the local community, including being used to help older, disabled and disadvantaged people attend medical appointments, as well as transporting local charities and sporting groups to various events; acknowledges that drivers volunteer half-a-day each to drive the minibus; recognises that the minibus requires to be replaced every three years at a cost of £36,000 and considers that the community funding from Aviva will greatly help to achieve the overall funding goal; commends all of the volunteers who are part of Portlethen Community Ambulance, and wishes the group the very best for the future.

S5M-09979 Bill Kidd: Thanking NHS Mental Health Staff—That the Parliament recognises the good work completed by the NHS Lansdowne Psychotherapy Service in Partick, Glasgow; particularly acknowledges the dedication and care provided by the consultant psychiatrist, Dr Lewis, and nurse therapist, Carol Wilson, and thanks the wider NHS Scotland employees that help assist those in need of psychiatric services.

Supported by: Emma Harper*, Ash Denham*, David Torrance*, Ruth Maguire*, Ivan McKee*, Stuart McMillan*, Clare Haughey*, Richard Lyle*, Stewart Stevenson*, Jenny Gilruth*, Clare Adamson*, Gillian Martin*

S5M-09978 Bill Kidd: Joseph Rowntree Foundation—That the Parliament acknowledges the good work that the Joseph Rowntree Foundation does in Scotland; welcomes the foundation to its new office space that it shares with The Robertson Trust in Glasgow, and notes that it is expanding its senior staff, which will help the foundation to carry on its work in tackling poverty in Scotland's communities.

Supported by: Ash Denham*, David Torrance*, Ruth Maguire*, Bob Doris*, Ivan McKee*, Stuart McMillan*, Clare Haughey*, Richard Lyle*, Stewart Stevenson*, Jenny Gilruth*, Richard Lochhead*, Clare Adamson*, Gillian Martin*

S5M-09977 Jeremy Balfour: Edinburgh Airport Receives Autism Friendly Award—That the Parliament congratulates Edinburgh Airport on becoming the first airport in Scotland to achieve the Autism Friendly Award from the National Autistic Society Scotland; notes that the award recognises organisations that have taken steps to ensure that autistic people and their families can access and enjoy their public spaces; understands that Edinburgh Airport has taken a number of measures to mitigate the busy and potentially overwhelming airport environment for autistic people, which include providing additional training for staff to help autistic passengers and a pre-visit to the airport for autistic people to familiarise themselves with the sights and sounds of the environment, and commends the airport on this achievement.

S5M-09976 Donald Cameron: Mull Crofter, Ronnie Campbell, Recognised for his Farming and Crofting Service—That the Parliament congratulates Ronnie Campbell, who is from the Isle of Mull, on receiving the 2018 Stalwart Award at the AGM of the NFU Scotland (NFUS) Argyll and the Islands region; understands that the award is presented to either a union member who has given their time and effort to the work of the NFUS in the region or someone who has made a significant contribution to agriculture in the area; acknowledges that Ronnie received this year's award because of his tireless representation of Mull and crofters at the NFUS Crofting Highlands and Islands committee for over 25 years; and wishes him well for the future. R

S5M-09975 Donald Cameron: Islay to be Focal Point for Commemorations of the First World War—That the Parliament recognises that the Islay will host nine months' worth of commemorative events to mark the centenary of the final year of the First World War in order to honour those who lost their lives fighting in that conflict; understands that the events will be part of WW100 Scotland's national commemorations and that the centrepiece will be a day of commemoration on 4 May 2018 in remembrance of the British crew and hundreds of United States' servicemen who lost their lives when two troopships, the SS Tuscania and HMS Otranto, were sunk near the island; understands that these events, which will attract thousands of visitors, will involve many of Islay's community groups, including schools and charities, and welcomes the unifying force that it believes the commemorations will have for both the island and wider society.

S5M-09974 Alex Cole-Hamilton: Edinburgh Airport Honoured with Autism Friendly Award—That the Parliament welcomes the news that Edinburgh Airport is the first airport to receive the Autism Friendly Award from the National Autistic Society Scotland; applauds the airport for taking a number of measures to mitigate the busy and potentially overwhelming airport environment for autistic people, which include providing additional training for staff to help autistic passengers and a pre-visit to the airport for autistic people to familiarise themselves with the sights and sounds of the environment, and understands that, while 99.5% of people in Scotland have heard of autism, only 15% of autistic people and their families think that the public understands autism in any meaningful way.

S5M-09969 Maurice Golden: Tesco Bank—That the Parliament commends Tesco Bank for the active role that it considers it has played in communities throughout Scotland; understands that, since its Community Programme started in 2010, it has helped raise over £2.2 million for local and national charities, has provided over 37,000 volunteer hours within local communities, and that over half a million children across the country have taken part in the programme through the Tesco Bank Football Challenge, Summer Reading Challenge and Art Competition, and believes that these schemes encourage healthier, happier lives.

S5M-09967 Bob Doris: Commemorating the Bravery of James Kennedy GC—That the Parliament welcomes the ceremony commemorating James Kennedy GC, who was killed tragically while bravely trying to prevent an armed robbery at St Rollox railway works in Royston, Glasgow, in 1973; notes that James was posthumously decorated with the Glasgow Corporation Bravery Medal in 1974 and that The Queen presented his widow, Ellen, and children, Shona, Elspeth and Leila, with the George Cross (GC) at Buckingham Palace in 1975; understands however that, since then, there had been no symbol in the public realm to mark his bravery, but that this was remedied on 21 December 2017 when the Lord Provost of Glasgow unveiled a plaque at the railway works, which had been commissioned by the Railway Heritage Trust in his honour; believes that this offered a time for family and former work colleagues to remember the celebrate the life and bravery of both a great hero and committed family man; commends the dignity of Ellen, who has sadly passed away, and of his surviving family members, particularly Shona, Elspeth and Leila who, despite being very young at the time of their dad's death, have rich and vibrant memories of a loving father and hardworking family man, and hopes that the plaque will help others remember the bravery of James for generations to come.

S5M-09966 Richard Lochhead: Elgin Health Centre Featured in BBC Two Series, The Family Doctors—That the Parliament congratulates Elgin Health Centre, also known locally as Maryhill, on being featured in the new BBC Two series, The Family Doctors; notes that the first of three episodes aired on 11 January 2018; further notes that the series goes behind the scenes of one of Scotland's busiest GP practices and illustrates the challenges and opportunities currently experienced by them; believes that the series gives the public a valuable insight into the dedication and effort made by those working in primary care; acknowledges that Maryhill serves over 17,000 patients, treats almost 3,500 patients a week and issues an average of 10,000 prescriptions per week; recognises the incredible work of the over 70 members of staff whom it considers are a credit to their profession; considers that the documentary is an important demonstration of the tireless efforts of all the staff, including the practice manager, Eileen Rae, the practice GPs, specialised nurses, duty team and receptionists; commends the patients for their contribution to the programme; congratulates the Maryhill team on its important television debut, and thanks all the staff for their immeasurable service.

Questions Ceistean

S5W-13926 Gillian Martin: To ask the Scottish Government, in light of the collapse of Carillion, what engagement it will undertake with the Ministry of Defence regarding the maintenance and repair of homes used by armed forces personnel and their families in Scotland.

S5W-13927 Gillian Martin: To ask the Scottish Government what assessment it has made of the number of jobs supported by Carillion in the north east of Scotland; whether any of these are under threat, and what support it can provide to minimise any job losses.

S5W-13928 Gillian Martin: To ask the Scottish Government what obligations fall to the remaining partners of Aberdeen Roads Ltd for the ongoing maintenance, cleaning and gritting of the Aberdeen Western Peripheral Route (AWPR), and what mitigation measures Transport Scotland has in place to cover the long-term maintenance, cleaning and gritting of the AWPR in the event that any other partners of Aberdeen Roads Ltd withdraw from the contract.

S5W-13929 Gillian Martin: To ask the Scottish Government what consideration it has given to whether the remit of the proposed Scottish National Investment Bank could be widened over the longer term to include the development of a sovereign wealth fund.

S5W-13930 Christine Grahame: To ask the Scottish Parliamentary Corporate Body how many Cross-Party Groups there are, and whether consideration will be given to an audit of the number of MSPs attending each meeting.

S5W-13934 Bill Bowman: To ask the Scottish Government what discussions it has had with each local authority regarding the provision of essential care, social and transport services during periods of adverse weather, and what support it is providing.

S5W-13935 Alexander Stewart: To ask the Scottish Government whether military personnel serving in Scotland will be subject to its proposed new income tax bands and, if so, whether they will be eligible for the living allowances that are available to personnel in the rest of the UK.

S5W-13936 Kezia Dugdale: To ask the Scottish Government, in light of the Equality and Human Rights Committee report, Disability and Universities, what its position is on whether disability should be considered a core indicator with regard to contextualised indicators in university admissions.

S5W-13937 Alexander Burnett: To ask the Scottish Government what new initiatives are being considered to support vulnerable children with mental health issues, in light of the reported decrease in the budget for child and adolescent mental health services.

S5W-13938 Bill Bowman: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the answer to question S5W-13589 by Derek Mackay on 11 January 2018, whether it will provide the information that was requested and confirm how much it will cost to implement each of the income tax bands specifically proposed in its Draft Budget, and what the annual administration cost will be.

S5W-13939 Bill Bowman: To ask the Scottish Government how many people will pay more tax overall if its proposed income tax bands are agreed and local authorities increase council tax by an average of 3%.

S5W-13940 Bill Bowman: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the answer to question S5W-13590 by Derek Mackay on 11 January 2018, whether it will provide the information that was requested and confirm for what reason the effects of incorporations in its non-saving, non-dividends income tax revenue estimates, which it

Amendments

New amendments to Bills lodged on 18 January 2018

Social Security (Scotland) Bill – Stage 2

After section 1

Adam Tomkins

57 After section 1, insert—

<Effect of the principles

- (1) A court or tribunal in civil or criminal proceedings may take the Scottish social security principles into account when determining any question arising in the proceedings to which the principles are relevant.
- (2) Breach of the principles does not of itself give rise to grounds for any legal action.>

Jeremy Balfour

58 After section 1, insert—

<Information and advice

- (1) An individual applying, or considering applying, for assistance through the Scottish social security system is entitled to independent information and advice about in particular—
 - (a) how to apply to the Scottish Ministers for assistance,
 - (b) the process for determining an individual's entitlement to assistance,
 - (c) the types of assistance to which the individual may be entitled,
 - (d) income maximisation,
 - (e) the content of the charter.
- (2) The information and advice must be accessible to, and proportionate to the needs of, the individuals to whom it is provided.
- (3) The Scottish Ministers must take steps to ensure the availability of information and advice to individuals applying, or considering applying, for assistance.
- (4) The Scottish Ministers may delegate the functions set out in this section to another person.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, information and advice are independent if they are provided by a person other than the Scottish Ministers.>

Jeremy Balfour

59 After section 1, insert—

<Independent advocacy services

- (1) An individual who has applied for assistance through the Scottish social security system is entitled to independent advocacy services.
- (2) On receiving an application for assistance from an individual, the Scottish Ministers are to—
 - (a) notify the individual of the individual's entitlement to independent advocacy services,

- (b) provide information about independent advocacy services available to the individual.
- (3) The Scottish Ministers may delegate a function set out in subsection (2) to another person.
- (4) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make further provision about independent advocacy services, in particular—
 - (a) the type of organisation that may provide such services,
 - (b) the type of support that may be provided,
 - (c) the duration of that support.
- (5) The Scottish Ministers must ensure that independent advocacy services are adequately resourced and available to individuals applying for assistance.
- (6) In this section, “advocacy services” means services of support and representation that are made available for the purpose of enabling an individual to whom they are provided to have as much control of, or capacity to influence, the decisions that determine the individual’s entitlement to be given assistance under the Scottish social security system as is, in the circumstances, appropriate.
- (7) For the purposes of this section, advocacy services are independent if they are provided by a person other than the Scottish Ministers.>

Section 2

60 In section 2, page 2, line 1, at end insert—

Negative instruments

The following instrument was laid before the Parliament on 18 January 2018 and is subject to the negative procedure—

Community Care (Provision of Residential Accommodation Outwith Scotland) (Scotland) Amendment Regulations 2018 (SSI 2018/16)
laid under section 23(3) of the Community Care and Health (Scotland) Act 2002

Members' Bills Proposals

Proposals for Members' Bills

A member seeking to introduce a Member's Bill must first lodge a draft proposal, together with a consultation document (or a statement of reasons why consultation is not considered necessary). Subsequently, the member may lodge a final proposal, in broadly similar terms to the draft, accompanied by a summary of consultation responses (or the statement of reasons). The member secures the right to introduce a Bill to give effect to the proposal if the final proposal secures, within one month, the support of at least 18 other members from at least half the political parties or groups represented in the Parliamentary Bureau, and provided no indication is given that the Scottish Government or UK Government is planning equivalent legislation.

All current proposals (together with associated documents) are available on the Scottish Parliament website at Proposals for Members' Bills/Session 5 Proposals:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/12419.aspx>

Final Proposal for Member's Bills

Neil Bibby: Proposed Tied Pubs (Code and Adjudicator) (Scotland) Bill— Proposal for a Bill to establish a Pubs Code in Scotland to govern the relationship between tenants of tied pubs and their owners, and an Adjudicator to enforce the code (lodged 9 January 2018)

The proposal was accompanied by a summary of consultation responses, which is accessible online via the website page referred to above. The summary, and individual responses, may also be viewed in the Scottish Parliament Information Centre (SPICe).

Progress of Legislation

Bills

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
