S5M-12914 Kenneth Gibson: Risk to Health Posed by Prescription Sleeping Medications—That the Parliament notes with concern the growing number of studies that show that prescription sleeping medication can be detrimental to health and lead to an increased risk of life-threatening illnesses; understands that zolpidem, a sedative primarily used for the treatment of insomnia, induces a sedative state that is of lower quality than natural sleep and can have undesirable side effects such as grogginess, forgetfulness and slowed reaction times; recognises the findings of what it considers the controversial and alarming study conducted by Dr Daniel

Today's Business Gnothaichean an-diugh	Future Business Gnothaichean ri teachd	Motions & Questions Gluasadan agus Ceistean	Legislation Reachdas	Other Eile

Kripke in 2012, which was published in the British Medical Journal, which found that individuals who use prescription sleeping medications are significantly more likely to die and develop cancer than those who do not; notes that this study, which examined 10,000 patients using either zolpidem or temazepam over a two-and-a-half-year period, found that those taking sleeping pills were 4.6 times more likely to die over that period than those who did not using sleeping pills in a double-blind controlled trial; further notes that, while the risk of death scaled with the frequency of use, even those who only consumed 0.5 to 18 sleeping pills per year were still 3.6 times more likely to die than those who took none at all; considers that cognitive behaviour therapy (CBT) is proven to be a more effective first-line treatment for insomnia than sleeping pills as it equips patients with techniques to break bad sleep habits, address anxieties and improve sleep hygiene; understands that, while the data on the number of sleeping medications prescribed and the number of patients diagnosed with sleep disorders is not stored centrally by the Scottish Government, in 2016-17 97,448 items of zolpidem were dispensed at a total cost of £170,866.68, 135,563 items of temazepam were dispensed at a total cost of £695,297.67 and 6,759 items of modafinil were dispensed at a total cost of £243,997.39, and therefore encourages the Scottish Government to assess the prevalence of prescription sleeping medication dispensed in Scotland, the impact on health and encourages a move towards a CBT-based model for the treatment of sleep disorders to mitigate the potential risk to public health posed by prescription sleep pills.

Supported by: Richard Lyle*, Emma Harper*, Clare Adamson*, Rona Mackay*

S5M-12913 Michelle Ballantyne: Volunteer Centre Borders Youth Ambassadors—That the Parliament congratulates Volunteer Centre Borders' 22 Youth Ambassadors for their work in the Scottish Borders' nine high schools to raise awareness of the benefits of volunteering and increase participation rates; believes that volunteering is a lifelong learning journey and socially inclusive activity, and supports the view that, by empowering young people in this way, promotes early participation and longer dedication to community activities. R

S5M-12912 Bill Kidd: Bertha Von Suttner's 175th Birthday—That the Parliament recognises the 175th birthday of Bertha Von Suttner, the first woman to win the Nobel Peace Prize; notes that she was instrumental in convincing Andrew Carnegie to build the Peace Palace in the Hague, which houses the ICA and International Court of Justice; commends the Bertha Von Suttner Peace Institute for “bringing Bertha to life” through the actor and historian, Anita Zieher, and hopes that Ms Zieher’s performance will bring attention to the life and accomplishments of Von Suttner, who advocated for peace and disarmament until her death in 1914.

S5M-12910 Ross Greer: US Withdrawal from UN Human Rights Council—That the Parliament condemns the US President’s recent actions in withdrawing the United States from the UN Human Rights Council; acknowledges what it sees as the hard work that the council has done since its creation in 2006 in working to highlight and tackle human rights abuses in countries and territories throughout the world; expresses concern that this action may lead to other countries with poor human rights records following suit, undermining the global effort to uphold human rights, and calls on the Scottish and UK governments to make clear their commitment to the UN Human Rights Council and the values that it upholds.

S5M-12909 Monica Lennon: UNISON Survey of Council Employees—That the Parliament is concerned by the findings of a recent UNISON survey, which indicated that three-out-of-five council employees believe that the local authority that they work for no longer provides quality services; notes that 82% of the people who took part agreed that cuts to budgets are having both a negative impact on their ability to do their job and on communities, with individuals not receiving the help and support that they need; understands that the employees also said that, because of this, they lacked confidence that vulnerable people are safe or being cared for; is concerned that 78% suggested that they had no confidence in the future of services; understands that the survey shows that valuable council employees are considering seeking employment elsewhere because of concerns regarding job security, unmanageable workloads and working beyond contracted hours; notes the recent research by SPICe, which suggested that the Scottish Government has cut revenue funding to local councils by 7.1% in real terms since 2013-14; understands that this is almost four times more than the reported 1.8% reduction to the Scottish budget by the UK Government over the same period, and believes that this has contributed to what it understands is the lowest number of local government employees since devolution.

S5M-12834 Jeremy Balfour: Lothian Buses, Public Transport Operator of the Year 2018, Scottish Transport Awards—That the Parliament congratulates Lothian Buses, which has been voted Scotland's Public Transport Operator of the Year, at the 2018 Scottish Transport Awards; notes that the company was also awarded Scotland's Best Bus Service for Lothian Country Buses service 113, which has seen passenger growth of more than 50%; further notes that the company was also shortlisted for four other awards, including contribution to sustainable transport, excellence in technology and innovation, transport team/partnership of the year and excellence in travel information and marketing; commends everyone involved at Lothian Buses on this award, and wishes them well for the future.

S5M-12834.1 Neil Findlay: Lothian Buses, Public Transport Operator of the Year 2018, Scottish Transport Awards—As an amendment to motion S5M-12834 in the name of Jeremy Balfour (Lothian Buses, Public Transport Operator of the Year 2018, Scottish Transport Awards), insert at end ", and believes that this shows the clear benefits of a publicly-owned and publicly-accountable bus service."

S5M-12783 Richard Lochhead: New Leadership for the Moray Council—That the Parliament congratulates the Moray SNP Group on forming the new minority administration of the Moray Council; understands that the SNP has taken over the running of the council following the collapse of the Conservative and Independent coalition; notes that the new SNP administration ends 10 years of Conservative and Independent control of the local authority; believes that the new administration has the team, vision and ambition to deliver for communities throughout Moray; congratulates the SNP councillor, Shona Morrison, on becoming the first female Convener of the Moray Council, and wishes the new administration well in its efforts to serve the people of Moray.

S5M-12783.1 Jamie Halcro Johnston: New Leadership for the Moray Council—As an amendment to motion S5M-12783 in the name of Richard Lochhead (New Leadership for the Moray Council), leave out from “congratulates” to end and insert “notes figures from the independent Scottish Parliament Information Centre (SPICe), which show that, over the last five years, the Scottish Government has cut the Moray Council’s budget by £106 per head in real terms; recognises what it sees as the extreme pressure that these cuts have put on the council and the vital public services that it delivers; further recognises the efforts made by the previous Conservative/Independent administration to lessen the impact of what SPICe has identified as a five-year per capita reduction to local government funding to the Moray Council, and expresses its hope that the Moray SNP administration will press its colleagues in the Scottish Government to address what it believes to be an unfair budget deal currently imposed on Moray that threatens the county’s vital public services.”

Members' Bills Proposals

Proposals for Members' Bills

A member seeking to introduce a Member's Bill must first lodge a draft proposal, together with a consultation document (or a statement of reasons why consultation is not considered necessary). Subsequently, the member may lodge a final proposal, in broadly similar terms to the draft, accompanied by a summary of consultation responses (or the statement of reasons). The member secures the right to introduce a Bill to give effect to the proposal if the final proposal secures, within one month, the support of at least 18 other members from at least half the political parties or groups represented in the Parliamentary Bureau, and provided no indication is given that the Scottish Government or UK Government is planning equivalent legislation.

All current proposals (together with associated documents) are available on the Scottish Parliament website at Proposals for Members' Bills/Session 5 Proposals:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/12419.aspx>

On 20 June 2018, the Minister for Local Government and Housing (Kevin Stewart) gave the following indication under Rule 9.14.13(a)/(b):

“I hereby indicate that the Scottish Government will initiate legislation, within the current session of the Parliament, to require new-build Scottish social housing to be fitted with automatic fire suppression systems. Accordingly, the legislation will give full effect to [David Stewart's] final proposal for a Social Housing (Automatic Fire Suppression Systems) (Scotland) Bill.”

As a result, David Stewart has no right to introduce a Bill to give effect to the proposal, and the proposal falls.

Daniel Johnson: Proposed Protection of Workers (Retail and Age-Restricted Sales etc.) (Scotland) Bill—A proposal for a Bill to increase the protection given by criminal law for workers in the retail sector and those applying or enforcing an age-restriction in relation to the sale or supply of goods or services. Progress of Legislation

Bills

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.
