12:45 pm Members' Business*Debate on the subject of—

S5M-13663 Linda Fabiani: East Kilbride Workers said "Nae Pasaran!"—That the Parliament understands that, following a successful premiere at the Glasgow Film Festival in March 2018 and excellent reviews from critics and the public, Nae Pasaran! has had its full cinematic release to coincide with the 45th anniversary of its subject, the Chilean military coup of 11 September 1973, which began General Pinochet's regime of terror; commends the director and filmmaker, Felipe Bustos Sierra, and his production team, on their relentless commitment in bringing to light the story of Rolls-Royce engineers in East Kilbride who, in 1974, showed their support for the people of Chile by refusing to repair jet engines for the Chilean air force; recognises the determination of the film's main characters, the engineers, Bob Fulton, Robert Somerville, John Keenan and Stuart Barrie, and all of the others who took part in the boycott, to stand against fascism in defence of the democratic rights of the Chilean people, and considers the film to be a depiction of a remarkable piece of Scotland's industrial history, which illustrates an admirable act of solidarity between Scottish workers and the Chilean people. R

2:30 pm Parliamentary Bureau Motions*2:30 pm Scottish Government Debate: Celebrating Scotland's Food and Drink Success Story

S5M-13876 Fergus Ewing: Celebrating Scotland's Food and Drink Success Story—That the Parliament welcomes Scottish Food and Drink Fortnight and its campaign this year to encourage more people to buy, eat and promote Scottish food and drink and to champion the role that young people play in the sector's success; notes that these aims are reflected in the vision of Scotland as a Good Food Nation; notes that legislation underpinning the Good Food Nation vision and ambition will be introduced in the current parliamentary session; acknowledges the importance and value of the Scottish food and drink sector to the Scottish economy and the people of Scotland, particularly through the growth in sales within the UK and overseas since 2007; notes that, in 2017, food and drink exports to the EU were worth £2.5 billion; is concerned that the prospect of a hard or no-deal Brexit increasingly puts this success at risk, not least because of the threat to the geographical indication status, which provides economic benefit to many important Scottish products, and urges the UK Government to ensure that Scottish produce can continue to benefit from geographical indication status in the UK, Europe and internationally.

The Presiding Officer has selected the following amendments

S5M-13876.1 Donald Cameron: Celebrating Scotland's Food and Drink Success Story—As an amendment to motion S5M-13876 in the name of Fergus Ewing (Celebrating Scotland's Food and Drink Success Story), leave out from "is concerned" to end and insert "recognises the importance of geographical indicators to the Scottish food and drink sector; believes that any replacement scheme for geographical indicators must ensure at least an equivalent level of protection once the UK leaves the EU; acknowledges the innovative approach set out in the Good Food Nation policy document; believes that this needs to be underpinned by legislation to ensure that Scotland's food policy maintains coherence and visibility over the long term within a framework of common principles, and consequently, regrets the omission of a Good Food Nation Bill from this year's Programme for Government, and calls on the Scottish Government to introduce such a Bill within the next 12 months."

S5M-13876.4 Colin Smyth: Celebrating Scotland's Food and Drink Success Story—As an amendment to motion S5M-13876 in the name of Fergus Ewing (Celebrating Scotland's Food and Drink Success Story), insert at end ", and calls for a Good Food Nation Bill that has tackling food poverty and the right to food at its heart, ensuring a joined-up approach across government, local authorities, trade unions and public bodies to realise Scotland's Good Food Nation ambition."

S5M-13876.3 Mark Ruskell: Celebrating Scotland's Food and Drink Success Story—As an amendment to motion S5M-13876 in the name of Fergus Ewing (Celebrating Scotland's Food and Drink Success Story), after "parliamentary session;" insert "agrees that this legislation should be broad-reaching and include measurable and time-bound targets for areas of policy on which food impacts, including health and wellbeing, environmental sustainability, local economic prosperity, resilient communities and fairness in the food chain, as well as new powers that the devolved institutions might receive as a result of exiting the EU, such as animal welfare, food standards, and public procurement;".

S5M-13876.2 Mike Rumbles: Celebrating Scotland's Food and Drink Success Story—As an amendment to motion S5M-13876 in the name of Fergus Ewing (Celebrating Scotland's Food and Drink Success Story), insert at end "; recognises the reputation and quality of Scottish farmed salmon; notes however the published concerns of the Environment, Climate Change and Land Reform Committee regarding the environmental impact of salmon farming in Scotland, and agrees with its finding that the regulatory status quo is not an option."

Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- *...* around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

*S5M-13885 Alison Harris: Lottery Funding for We Will Remember Them Project—That the Parliament congratulates Cumbernauld Old Parish Church on being awarded £9,500 from the Heritage Lottery Fund towards the We Will Remember Them project; understands that the project has been funded through the First World War programme, which gives groups the chance to discover more about the war and mark the centenary, and further understands that the Heritage Lottery Fund sustains a wide range of heritage for present and future generations to take part in, learn from and enjoy.

Written Questions

Questions in which a member has indicated a declarable interest are marked with an "R".

Government Initiated Questions are initiated by the Scottish Government in order to facilitate the provision of information to the Parliament.

Government initiated questions lodged on 12 September 2018

S5W-18768 Gillian Martin: To ask the Scottish Government whether it will provide an update on what work it has undertaken to support Public Health England in contacting women who had missed their final invitation from the breast screening programme in England.

S5W-18793 Stewart Stevenson: To ask the Scottish Government whether it has submitted a draft action plan to the Scottish Information Commissioner to address the recommendations set out in his report of 13 June 2018 into its Freedom of Information practices.

Written questions lodged on 12 September 2018

S5W-18708 Jackie Baillie: To ask the Scottish Government how many criminal investigations Police Scotland carried out in each year since 2013, and, of these, how many were dropped in the first (a) 24 and (b) 48 hours of investigation.

S5W-18719 Lewis Macdonald: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the £118 million announced by November 2001 for the Scottish Bus Group pension fund, whether any further payments have been made to former bus workers; how much remains in the fund, and how any funds not paid to workers have been spent.

S5W-18722 Tavish Scott: To ask the Scottish Government, in light of the comment at paragraph 10 of the report, Scottish National Standardised Assessments User Review Year 1 – Session 2017/18, that “teachers and schools are empowered to use the SNSA at a time in the year which suits children in their care and when the assessments will be most useful”, what its response is to the statement by the EIS that “children were largely presented en masse through SNSA ‘assessment windows’”.

S5W-18723 Tavish Scott: To ask the Scottish Government what its response is to the statement by the EIS that “to create a narrow focus on SNSA [Scottish National Standardised Assessments] data is to create a ‘high stakes’ environment around what were meant to be diagnostic classroom tools, supporting but not supplanting teacher professional judgement.”

S5W-18724 Tavish Scott: To ask the Scottish Government what its response to the statement by the EIS that the Scottish National Standardised Assessments process has resulted in some pupils experiencing “extreme anxiety”.

S5W-18726 Tavish Scott: To ask the Scottish Government whether it will publish its evidence to support the claim at paragraph 63 of the report, Scottish National Standardised Assessments User Review Year 1 – Session 2017/18, that “on the whole, the children found the assessments accessible and stimulating”, and what its response is to the statement by the EIS that “none of our members reported the assessments to be ‘stimulating’, as was claimed in the report.”

S5W-18728 Tavish Scott: To ask the Scottish Government what its response is to the statement by the EIS that “in relation to P1, the EIS has a view that the SNSAs [Scottish National Standardised Assessments] should be scrapped.”

Andy Wightman

295 In section 10, page 10, line 34, at end insert—

<54CB Scheme may also make provision for compulsory purchase of land to meet housing need

- (1) Where a planning authority—
  - (a) make a scheme, and
  - (b) intend as part of that scheme to include provision with the effect mentioned in subsection (2), they must assess the value of the land in the area to which the scheme relates.
- (2) A scheme, if it so provides, has the effect of permitting a local authority to purchase land within the area to which the scheme relates at the value assessed under subsection (1).
- (3) A local authority may exercise the power in subsection (2) only where the authority consider that the land is required—
  - (a) to meet the housing needs of the community in that area, and
  - (b) to uphold the right of every person in that area to housing, as set out in article 25 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, adopted by resolution 217A of the General Assembly of the United Nations on 10 December 1948, and article 11 of the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, adopted by resolution 2200A of the General Assembly of the United Nations on 16 December 1966.
- (4) The Scottish Ministers must by regulations make further provision—
  - (a) about how the land is to be valued,
  - (b) disapplying, or applying with such modifications as the Scottish Ministers consider appropriate, any provisions of the Land Compensation (Scotland) Act 1963,
 for the purposes of this section.
- (5) Regulations making provision under subsection (4) must include provision that the value of the land is to—
  - (a) be assessed at the date the scheme is made,
  - (b) be based on its use at the date the scheme is made, and
  - (c) take no account of any value that is attributable to the fact that—
    - (i) the land is in an area to which the scheme relates,
    - (ii) the carrying out of development is authorised by the scheme.>

- (2) In section 16 (preparation and monitoring of local development plans), after subsection (2)(a), insert—
  - “(aa) are to take into account any culturally significant zones (within the meaning of section 56A) for the part of their district to which the local development plan relates,”
- (3) In section 29 (granting of planning permission: general), in subsection (1)—
  - (a) the word “or” at the end of paragraph (c) is repealed,
  - (b) after paragraph (d), insert “or
    - (e) in accordance with any conditions, limitations or exceptions of any culturally significant zone designated in accordance with section 56A.”.
- (4) After section 56 (effect on planning permission of modification or termination of scheme), insert—

“Culturally significant zones

56A Designation of culturally significant zones

- (1) Each planning authority must—
  - (a) from time to time determine which parts of their district are culturally significant zones, and
  - (b) designate such parts as culturally significant zones.
- (2) A culturally significant zone is an area in which it is desirable to—
  - (a) identify, preserve or enhance existing cultural venues, facilities and uses,
  - (b) identify and support the development of new cultural venues, facilities and uses, and
  - (c) ensure no unreasonable adjustments be required for the operation of existing cultural venues or facilities in relation to new development (within the meaning of section 26(1)) within or adjacent to the zone.
- (3) A culturally significant zone may consist of—
  - (a) one or more buildings;
  - (b) a designated area, or
  - (c) any combination of (a) and (b).
- (4) A planning authority must designate a culturally significant zone within its district if requested so to do in accordance with subsection (5).
- (5) A request is valid, for the purpose of subsection (4), if the requirements prescribed in regulations made by the Scottish Ministers under this subsection have been met in relation to the request.
- (6) Regulations under subsection (5) may, in particular, include requirements as to—
  - (a) how a request is to be made, and

Amendments   Atharrachaidhean

- (b) steps that must be taken before a request may be made.
- (7) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make further provision on
  - (a) how planning authorities are to discharge their functions,
  - (b) the meaning of “culturally significant zone”,
 for the purposes of this section.
- (8) References in this section to cultural venues and facilities include in particular venues and facilities used for the performance of live music.

56B Designation of culturally significant zones: supplementary provisions

- (1) A planning authority must give notice to the Scottish Ministers of the designation of any part of their district as a culturally significant zone under section 56A, and of any variation or cancellation of any such designation.
- (2) A notice under subsection (1) must contain sufficient information to identify the area in question to the Scottish Ministers.
- (3) Notice of any such designation, variation or cancellation, with particulars of its effect, must be published in the Edinburgh Gazette and in at least one newspaper circulating in the district of the planning authority.
- (4) Each planning authority must compile and keep available for public inspection free of charge at reasonable hours and at a convenient place a list of any parts of their district which have been designated as a culturally significant zone.
- (5) A list compiled under subsection (4) must contain such particulars as the Scottish Ministers may by regulations prescribe.

Culturally significant zones: general duties of planning authorities

56C Proposals for preservation and enhancement of culturally significant zones

- (1) Each planning authority are from time to time to formulate and publish proposals for the preservation and enhancement of any parts of their district which are culturally significant zones.
- (2) In preparing proposals under this section, a planning authority are to—
  - (a) publish the proposals in such a manner as they consider sufficient to ensure that the proposals are brought to the attention of residents of the parts of their district to which the proposals relate,
  - (b) ensure that sufficient opportunities and means are made available to such residents to allow them to make representations about the proposals.
- (3) The planning authority must have regard to any representations received regarding the proposals.

56D General duty as respects culturally significant zones in exercise of planning functions

In the exercise, with respect to any buildings or other land in a culturally significant zone, of any powers under this Act, a planning authority are to give particular consideration to the desirability of preserving or enhancing the purposes set out in section 56A(2).

56E Publicity for applications affecting culturally significant zones.

- (1) This section applies where an application for planning permission for any development of land is made to a planning authority and the land or any part of it is within a culturally significant zone or within 100 metres of the boundary of a zone.
- (2) The planning authority must—
  - (a) publish in a local newspaper circulating in the locality in which the land is situated, and
  - (b) for not less than 7 days display on or near the land, a notice indicating the nature of the development in question and naming a place within the locality where a copy of the application, and of all plans and other documents submitted with it, will be open to inspection by the public at all reasonable hours during the period of 21 days beginning with the date of publication of the notice under paragraph (a).

- (3) The application must not be determined by the planning authority before the expiry of the later of—
  - (a) 21 days referred to in subsection (2), and
  - (b) 21 days beginning with the date on which the notice required by that subsection to be displayed was first displayed.
- (4) In determining any application for planning permission to which this section applies, the planning authority must take into account any representations relating to the application which are received by them before the periods mentioned in subsection (3) have elapsed.”.>

After section 14, insert—

<Determination of applications: cultural venues, facilities and uses

- (1) The Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1997 is amended as follows.
- (2) After section 37 (determination of applications: general considerations), insert—

“37A Determination of applications: cultural venues, facilities and uses

- (1) Without prejudice to the generality of section 37, where an application is made to a planning authority for planning permission, a planning authority may not grant planning permission if, in their opinion—
  - (a) the development that is the subject of the application would be likely to require unreasonable adjustments to the operation of existing cultural venues, facilities or uses in the vicinity of the development, or

Amendments   Atharrachaidhean

- (b) the application does not include sufficient measures to mitigate, minimise or manage the effect of noise between the development and any existing cultural venues, facilities or uses, or dwellings or businesses in the vicinity of the development.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), where the development that is the subject of the application—
  - (a) comprises or includes residential development, and
  - (b) the land to which the development relates or any part of it is within a culturally significant zone or within 100 metres of the boundary of a zone, the planning authority are to presume, unless proven otherwise, that the development would require unreasonable adjustments on the operation of existing cultural venues, facilities and uses within that zone.

- (3) It is for the person who made the application for planning permission in respect of the development, to prove the presumption in subsection (2) otherwise.
- (4) Where a development is proposed within a culturally significant zone or within 100 metres of the boundary of that zone, a planning authority may specify different conditions, limitations or exceptions, including any features or acoustic design measures, in order to mitigate, minimise or manage the effects of noise as may appear to them necessary in order to ensure that there are no unreasonable adjustments for existing cultural venues, facilities or uses within the zone arising from the development.
- (5) In this section—
  - (a) “culturally significant zone” means a zone designated under section 56A,
  - (b) references in this section to “cultural venues and facilities” include in particular venues and facilities used for the performance of live music.”.>

Progress of Legislation

Bills

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
