Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Members' Business motions that have not achieved cross party support

S5M-17871 Daniel Johnson: Citizens' Assemblies and Citizens' Juries—That the Parliament recognises what it sees as the potential of citizens' assemblies and citizens' juries as means of facilitating greater public engagement in the legislative process; considers that inclusive policy making can be beneficial in resolving challenging public policy problems; believes that these include issues of existential importance to everyone on the planet, such as tackling climate change; welcomes the Parliament hosting its first citizens' assembly in March 2019, and applauds the development of innovative approaches to increasing interest and participation across Scotland in the political process, including in the Edinburgh Southern constituency.

S5M-17865 David Torrance: 25th Anniversary of Drugs, Alcohol and Psychotherapies Limited—That the Parliament congratulates Drugs, Alcohol and Psychotherapies Limited (DAPL) in Fife on its 25th anniversary; understands that the charity, originally called Drug and Alcohol Project (Levenmouth), originated from a need for community-based counselling for substance users and greater resources to educate people with regards to drugs and alcohol, and that it provided a confidential, community-based counselling, support, information and advice service to individuals, their families and friends who were affected by substance misuse in the Levenmouth area; notes the journey of the organisation as it has developed, expanded and responded to social changes over the last 25 years, and that, now, through its team of 24 staff and a number of volunteers, it provides counselling and support for adults and young people affected by substance misuse, addictive behaviours and psychological disorders across the whole of Fife; notes its many milestones and achievements throughout the years, including achieving Investor in People status in 2002, becoming the first organisation in Fife and only the fourth in the whole of Scotland to have its counselling service accredited by the British Association for Counselling and Psychotherapy in 2009 and being one of the first voluntary sector organisations in Fife to become an accredited Scottish Living Wage Employer in 2017; acknowledges the devastating impact of substance misuse on families and communities across Fife and wider Scotland; commends the crucial role of DAPL in providing support and assistance to the most vulnerable and marginalised in society; praises the commitment, passion and innovation of the staff and volunteers who have continued to drive the organisation for 25 years, and wishes them all every success with the next chapter of the DAPL story.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

*S5M-17878 Fulton MacGregor: Coatbridge Students Recognised for Conservation

Work—That the Parliament congratulates students from New College Lanarkshire, Coatbridge Campus, on receiving a prestigious Discovery Award from the John Muir Trust, understands that students on the NQ Animal Biology and Conservation course earned the honour for their work alongside countryside rangers at Drumpellier Country Park, which saw them collect data on air and water quality and assisting with woodland management and tree planting to regenerate native woodland; commends that passion that each put into the creation of sustainable woodland management, and wishes all every success with their studies and future careers in conservation.

Supported by: Stuart McMillan*, David Torrance*, Sandra White*

*S5M-17877 Fulton MacGregor: John Muir Award for Coatbridge Primary School—That the Parliament congratulates the pupils and staff of Townhead Primary School, Coatbridge, on it receiving a prestigious John Muir award, understands that, along with the wider school community, they were selected to receive this national environmental award in recognition of their commitment to activities such as litter picking, planting and immersing themselves in nature, commends the hard work of all for their participation in working in nature and the area's environment and for the development of their outdoor learning areas; acknowledges the importance of introducing young people to nature, and wishes them all the very best with their endeavours.

Supported by: Stuart McMillan*, David Torrance*

*S5M-17875 Alasdair Allan: Western Isles' and Shetland HM Coastguard Teams Honoured for their Heroism

—That the Parliament congratulates the Coastguard Rescue Teams, Coastguard Operations Centre staff and Coastguard Search and Rescue helicopter teams in the Western Isles on receiving the Department for Transport's Rescue Shield Award, jointly with the Shetland teams; notes that the award, which is given to people involved in truly heroic rescues, was presented by Richard Parkes, the Director of HM Coastguard, at a celebration commemorating over 30 years of vital search and rescue services being provided from Stornoway; understands that in June 2018, the various coastguard teams from Stornoway worked together to save an older man who was clinging onto a cliff edge on St Kilda, having slipped and fallen some 30 hours earlier; recognises that as a result of such service and dedication lives are saved both across the Western Isles and in Shetland; praises the dedication of the teams involved, many of whom are volunteers; commends the work of HM Coastguard teams across the country, and thanks them for their service.

Supported by: David Torrance*, Angus MacDonald*, Liam McArthur*

*S5M-17874 Maurice Golden: Asda Foundation Support for West Scotland Good

Causes—That the Parliament congratulates the organisations in the West Scotland region that have each recently received £500 from the Asda Foundation's Green Token Giving programme; notes that these were the White Lily Fund, which organises fundraising events to help people with cancer, Alzheimer Scotland, which supports people with dementia, Dumbarton United AFC U13 Girls and the not-for-profit organisation, Babes in the Woods, which aims to reduce the environmental impact of waste and to tackle poverty by selling children's items that have been donated; recognises that each of these organisations was voted for by Asda customers in the area in recognition of the positive impact they have on the community, and wishes each continued success.

Supported by: Liz Smith*, Miles Briggs*, Bill Kidd*, Edward Mountain*, Annie Wells*, Alison Harris*, Michelle Ballantyne*

S5M-17873 Lewis Macdonald: Aberdeen and North East Map of Suffragette Activities—That the Parliament welcomes the launch of a map that highlights the activities of suffragettes and suffragists in Aberdeen and the north east; notes that it has been created by Professor Sarah Pederson of Robert Gordon University as part of the Scottish Suffragette Cities Project; recognises that it has been made available online at suffrageaberdeen.co.uk and features dozens of sites across the area that were connected to suffragette activity between 1867 and 1914, including the Castlegate in Aberdeen, at which an open-air meeting of suffragettes took place in 1914, and the Music Hall in Peterhead and Dalrymple Hall in Fraserburgh, where Emmeline Pankhurst addressed audiences in 1911; commends Sarah and her colleagues on this work, which recognises and highlights the importance of suffragette activity across the north east, and looks forward to the expansion of the Scottish Suffragette Cities Project to the rest of the country.

Supported by: Stuart McMillan*, Mark McDonald*

S5M-17872 Jackie Baillie: Congratulations to Hannah Rankin on Winning the IBO Super-welterweight Title—That the Parliament congratulates Hannah Rankin, who is from Luss, on her outstanding victory in a closely fought IBO super-welterweight world title fight against the American, Sarah Curran; understands that she has made history by becoming Scotland's first female boxing world champion; wishes her all the best for her future career in professional boxing, and sees her as an inspiration and a role model for all aspiring female professional boxers.

S5M-17870 Tom Mason: Rainbow Garden Commemoration at Hazelhead Park—That the Parliament welcomes the unveiling of the Rainbow Garden to commemorate the families affected by the Hazlehead Crematorium ashes scandal in 2013; understands that the space has been designed by a group of families and bereavement counsellors and sits in a secluded part of Hazelhead Park; further understands that it features a bronze sculpture by Maja Quille, which embodies a flowing design of flying birds enclosing a seat; recognises the trauma and loss felt by all involved, and hopes that the space embodies a sense of peace for visitors.

S5M-17869 Tom Mason: Drowning Prevention Week Marked with Swim Programme Launch in Aberdeen—That the Parliament welcomes the launch of swimming safety lessons in Aberdeen as part of Drowning Prevention Week; understands that more than 7,800 children are being taught lifesaving skills, including the Water Safety Code, and how to rescue themselves if they get into trouble in the water; further understands that the programme has been put together by Scottish Swimming, Scottish Water, Royal Life Saving Society UK and the Royal National Lifeboat Institution; notes that this effort is the largest co-ordinated water safety lesson ever to be held in Scotland, and wishes everyone safety in the water over the summer holidays.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Margaret Mitchell*, Edward Mountain*, Liz Smith*, Bill Kidd*, Alexander Stewart*, Alison Harris*, Stuart McMillan*, Annie Wells*, Mark McDonald*, Michelle Ballantyne*

S5M-17868 Tom Mason: VSA Celebrate 150 Years—That the Parliament congratulates the Aberdeen-based charity, VSA, on its upcoming 150th anniversary, which will be reached in 2020; notes that the organisation, which supports vulnerable people in the north east, is currently fundraising to build a new mental wellbeing facility in the heart of the city; understands that the milestone anniversary next year will be marked by an event, the Changing Lives Ball, at Balmoral Castle, with the proceeds being donated to its mental health campaign, and wishes VSA continued success with its fundraising and in bringing support to its service users.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Bill Kidd*, Margaret Mitchell*, Edward Mountain*, Alexander Stewart*, Alison Harris*, Stuart McMillan*, Annie Wells*, Michelle Ballantyne*, Mark McDonald*

S5M-17867 Tom Mason: Aberdeen Highland Games—That the Parliament congratulates all who took part in the recent Aberdeen Highland Games; understands that around 10,000 people visited to watch participants in the games, which included heavyweight competitions, Highland dancing and piping; notes that charity mascots entertained with their own fundraiser mini-event for the first time; applauds the Robert Gordon's College pipe band, which competed for the first time, and looks forward to seeing returning faces for next year's competition.

Supported by: Edward Mountain*, Alexander Stewart*, Mark McDonald*, Miles Briggs*, Annie Wells*, Maurice Golden*, Margaret Mitchell*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Michelle Ballantyne*, Bill Kidd*, David Torrance*

S5M-17866 Gil Paterson: Clydebank High School Pupils Raise Funds for the Skylark IX—That the Parliament commends the S4 pupils from Clydebank High School who helped raise £100 for Skylark IX Recovery Trust; understands that the pupils maintained a cheerful demeanour throughout their 10-mile, rain-soaked sponsored walk from the school to Leverngrove Park, where they were joined by pupils from Christie Park Primary School, who accompanied them on the last leg of the trek; notes that the Skylark IX was built as a passenger cruiser in 1927 and saved the lives of more than 600 Allied troops who were stranded at Dunkirk; understands that the restoration work on the vessel is being carried out by a specialist boat-building team working with recovering drug addicts as part of a skills development programme organised by the West Dunbartonshire-based charity, Alternatives; thanks the pupils for their fund-raising efforts, and wishes everyone involved in the restoration of the Skylark IX success in completing the project.

Supported by: Joan McAlpine*, Richard Lyle*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-17864 Gil Paterson: Award for West College Scotland's Skills Academy—That the Parliament congratulates West College Scotland on winning the Outstanding Business Engagement in Colleges award for its part in setting up Skills Academy, which is a pioneering training facility that it established in conjunction with construction company, AC Whyte; understands that it gives apprentices a blend of classroom-based work as well as onsite experience at the firm, and notes that the successful students gain SQA-approved qualifications and a guaranteed job with the company at the end of their course.

Supported by: David Torrance*, Richard Lyle*, Stuart McMillan*, Sandra White*, Maureen Watt*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-17863 Liam McArthur: Multiple Sclerosis Map of Scotland—That the Parliament notes with concern a recent study by the Scottish Multiple Sclerosis Register, which has found that Scotland has one of the highest global rates of multiple sclerosis (MS); notes that MS is a lifelong condition that affects the brain and spinal cord and there are 11,000 people in Scotland who have been diagnosed; understands that the study has revealed that incidence of the disease differs significantly by region and that Orkney has a diagnosis rate that is three times higher than areas such as the central belt and the Borders; further understands that women are more likely to be affected than men and that a woman in Orkney has a 1-in-50 chance of being diagnosed with MS compared with a man from the Borders who has a 1-in-600 chance; pays tribute to organisations across Scotland, including MS Society Orkney, which provide invaluable care and support to help those with MS to manage the condition and to live as comfortable a life as possible; acknowledges that further studies are needed to identify why some regions are at a higher risk of developing MS than others and to understand what other factors contribute to someone's likelihood of being diagnosed with MS, and calls for more funding into continued research to find this information and to provide even greater treatment for those who are living with MS, with the overarching aim being to end for good this debilitating condition.

Supported by: Monica Lennon*, Mark McDonald*, Richard Lyle*, Maureen Watt*, Pauline McNeill*, Bill Kidd*, John Mason*

S5M-17862 David Stewart: The Isle of Bute News—That the Parliament congratulates Argyll Media on the launch of the new paper, The Isle of Bute News, which will publish its first edition on 21 June 2019; notes that it will have some pages in common with the Dunoon Observer, as well as some pages devoted to exclusive news for Bute and Cowal; notes that this follows The Buteman newspaper ceasing production after 165 years; believes that the local people of Bute deserve a paper to be their voice, as well as keeping them informed, and wishes the new paper the best of luck with its launch.

Supported by: Richard Lyle*, Donald Cameron*, Maureen Watt*, Edward Mountain*, David Torrance*

S5M-17861 Christine Grahame: Penicuik Athletic Football Club—That the Parliament notes the petition by Penicuik Athletic Youth FC to Midlothian Council to have its astroturf re-carpeted following a site inspection report, which found that the surface condition is "poor – subject to long-term wear, having reached the end of its useful life"; understands that the Penicuik Astro Pitch is used by school pupils across Penicuik and Midlothian and is hired every evening by both youth and adult local football teams, with Penicuik Athletic Youth FC alone having over 60 coaches and volunteers running 14 football teams for 350 youths, offering each player 2 to 3 hours of training during the week and a match at the weekend; considers that sports facilities such as this are a vital part of life for children, which serves to keep them healthy and to build positive social lives; urges Midlothian Council to fund the re-carpeting before it returns to use in October 2019 so that young people can continue to benefit, and understands that the local footballer, Claire Emslie, who played for Scotland at the Women's World Cup, backs the resurfacing by the council, having practised and honed her skills there as a child.

Supported by: Stuart McMillan*, Richard Lyle*, Maureen Watt*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-17859 Miles Briggs: Stockbridge Duck Race's 30th Anniversary—That the Parliament notes that the 30th annual Stockbridge Duck Race will take place on 30 June 2019; notes that the first race was organised by Susie Gregor and that, in the subsequent years, it has become one of the most popular community events in the area, raising tens of thousands of pounds for charity; notes that this year's chosen charities are St Columba's Hospice and the Yard, and that the Après Duck party and kids' disco will be hosted by the team in the pub, The Antiquary; commends all involved in organising the event and the businesses that donate prizes; considers it a great example of community spirit, and wishes everyone taking part an enjoyable day raising a significant amount for local charities.

S5M-17858 Finlay Carson: Kirkcudbright Academy Youngster Gets on his Bike—That the Parliament congratulates the Kirkcudbright Academy pupil, Robin Alderslow, on encouraging the local community to take up cycling; praises the 13-year-old for undertaking an 18-mile round trip to school each day; welcomes the recognition of his efforts by Cycling UK, which presented him with a certificate in the Young Achiever of the Year section of its Volunteer Celebrations; thanks him for donating money made from busking to environmental charities; hopes that Robin's efforts will encourage other youngsters, as well as the whole community, to take up cycling, and wishes him all the best with his future endeavours.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Alison Harris*, Margaret Mitchell*, Alexander Stewart*, Edward Mountain*, Michelle Ballantyne*, Maureen Watt*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-17857 Gil Paterson: Knowes Housing Association's Solar Power and Energy Efficiency—That the Parliament commends Knowes Housing Association, which is in Faifley, Clydebank, on its solar power and energy efficiency programme; understands that, eight years ago, its director, Pierre DeFence, had the forethought to initiate the installation of solar PV panels and thermal external insulation in many of its tenanted and owner-occupied properties; notes that the phased installation has resulted in 137 properties being given external wall insulation and 320 fitted with the solar panels; believes that this has led to annual savings of £48,900; notes that, as well as providing reduced energy costs for residents, the association sells surplus energy back to the grid, using the money from this to fund community-based projects; acknowledges that the governing body of OFGEM, including its chief executive, Dermot Nolan, will visit the association's office and estate on 25 June 2019 to learn more about the work that it does in the community, particularly in relation to energy efficiency and the solar scheme initiative, and congratulates the association on what it sees as the exceptional work that it does in reducing fuel poverty and embracing renewable technology.

Supported by: Stuart McMillan*, Sandra White*, Bill Kidd*, Richard Lyle*, Joan McAlpine*, Maureen Watt*

S5M-17856 Sandra White: Launch of consumeradvice.scot—That the Parliament welcomes the launch of the online and telephone service, consumeradvice.scot, following the receipt of £600,000 in Scottish Government funding; recognises that it aims to offer advice to people on a range of important issues, using its knowledge of devolved consumer powers to provide a flexible service that protects and empowers people; acknowledges that support can be accessed online through web chat, email and social media, and through the freephone number, 0808 164 6000, and congratulates all of the staff at the Glasgow-based charity, Advice Direct Scotland, on delivering this service.

Written Questions

Questions in which a member has indicated a declarable interest are marked with an "R".

Written questions lodged on 20 June 2019

S5W-23930 Johann Lamont: To ask the Scottish Government, in light of it giving the Equality Network £45,000 per annum since 2015-16 for its Intersex Project, which is secured until 2020, whether it supports the charity's aims to "challenge the definition of sex as consisting of only male and female" and "to promote the knowledge that sex is a continuum, as is gender".

S5W-23931 Miles Briggs: To ask the Scottish Government what assessment it has made or plans regarding the effectiveness of repetitive transcranial magnetic stimulation, including its use elsewhere in the UK and overseas; how people in Scotland can access this, and what its position is on making it available on the NHS.

S5W-23935 Ross Greer: To ask the Scottish Government how it defines the blue light sector with regard to its enterprise funding.

S5W-23936 Mark Griffin: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the answer to question S5W-21923 by Shirley-Anne Somerville on 13 March 2019, whether the discussions with DWP in relation to these costs have been completed and, if (a) so, on what date and (b) not, when it expects them to do so.

S5W-23937 Dean Lockhart: To ask the Scottish Government what activity and initiatives it has planned to promote (a) trade, (b) business, (c) education and (d) other cultural links between Scotland and the United States.

S5W-23938 Dean Lockhart: To ask the Scottish Government what activity and initiatives it has planned to promote (a) trade, (b) business, (c) education and (d) other cultural links between Scotland and China.

S5W-23939 Dean Lockhart: To ask the Scottish Government what activity and initiatives it has planned to promote (a) trade, (b) business, (c) education and (d) other cultural links between Scotland and Japan.

S5W-23940 Monica Lennon: To ask the Scottish Government, in light of integration authority budgets now being agreed, how much funding has been allocated to each alcohol and drug partnership for 2019-20.

S5W-23941 Monica Lennon: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the answer to question S5W-22424 by Joe FitzPatrick on 23 April 2019, what 2017-18 Programme for Government funding will be allocated to alcohol and drug partnerships in 2019-20.

S5W-23942 Jackie Baillie: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the answer to question S5W-20906 by John Swinney on 17 January 2019, whether the reports and minutes of the Scottish Service Children Strategy Group are published and, if so, where.

S5W-23943 Jackie Baillie: To ask the Scottish Government whether it will provide a breakdown of how the £37 million that was allocated to it to deal with Brexit preparations in 2018-19 was spent.

S5W-23944 Jackie Baillie: To ask the Scottish Government whether it will provide a breakdown of how the £55 million that has been allocated to it to deal with Brexit preparations in 2019-20 will be spent.

S5W-23945 Jackie Baillie: To ask the Scottish Government what discussions it has had with Police Scotland and the Scottish Police Authority regarding Brexit-related risks and what funding it has allocated to deal with these.

S5W-23946 Jackie Baillie: To ask the Scottish Government whether it will provide an update on what preparations it has made to response to a no deal Brexit.

S5W-23947 Jackie Baillie: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the answer to question S5W-23062 by Roseanna Cunningham on 22 May 2019, whether it will engage with (a) Age Scotland, (b) Citizens Advice Scotland and (c) other third sector organisations to ensure that consumers are fully involved in the consultation.

S5W-23948 Jackie Baillie: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the answer to question S5W-23176 by Roseanna Cunningham on 22 May 2019, how it will make an assessment of the affordability of future water charges on water charge payers in the most economically-challenged communities if it does not keep data on how many charge payers in each local authority area will pay more than 3% of their income on water charges after housing costs.

S5W-23949 Jackie Baillie: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the answer to S5W-23182 by Roseanna Cunningham 22 May 2019, whether it has directed the Water Industry Commission for Scotland to increase water charges above the rate of inflation for an extended period of years from 2021 and, if so, (a) for how many years and (b) at what level of increase above the rate.

S5W-23950 Elaine Smith: To ask the Scottish Government how it will address the Poverty and Inequality Commission's concerns regarding poverty and transport policy.

S5W-23951 Elaine Smith: To ask the Scottish Government what steps it is taking to address the higher costs, known as a poverty premium, associated with accessing good-quality, affordable food locally.

S5W-23953 Colin Smyth: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the answer to question S5W-23516 by Mairi Gougeon on 7 June 2019, what account the review of electronic shock collars will take of there being no prosecutions for causing unnecessary suffering since 1 October 2018.

S5W-23954 Colin Smyth: To ask the Scottish Government by what date it will publish the responses to its consultation on proposed changes to the Animal Health and Welfare (Scotland) Act 2006.

S5W-23957 Tavish Scott: To ask the Scottish Government when it expects to meet its commitment for 435 additional graduates to be working in nurseries in the most deprived areas, which had an initial timescale of August 2018, and how many are currently in post.

S5W-23958 Tavish Scott: To ask the Scottish Government, in light of Save the Children's briefing, Thriving at two and beyond, what steps it is taking to improve (a) the uptake of funded early learning and childcare for, (b) awareness and understanding of the funded childcare offer for families with, and (c) the quality of funded early learning and childcare for eligible two-year-olds.

S5W-23960 Tavish Scott: To ask the Scottish Government what it is doing to ensure that early learning and childcare provision is promoted through a diverse range of sources, and whether it is exploring cross-promotion with other entitlements.

S5W-23961 Tavish Scott: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the statement by the Minister for Children and Early Years on 1 May 2018 (Official Report, c. 13), how it will meet the aim of a near doubling of the uptake of funded early learning and childcare for eligible two-year-olds, and by what date this will be achieved.

S5W-23962 Tavish Scott: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the statement by the Minister for Children and Early Years on 1 May 2018 (Official Report, c. 13), what data it will use to evidence the near doubling of the uptake of funded early learning and childcare for eligible two-year-olds; what its response is to reported concerns regarding how such data is collected, and by what date this data will be published.

S5W-23963 Tavish Scott: To ask the Scottish Government what progress it has made with the UK Government on data sharing to help identify two-year-olds who are eligible for funded early learning and childcare, and whether difficulties on this issue relate to data protection laws preventing the DWP providing a list of just those parents who definitely are eligible.

S5W-23964 Tavish Scott: To ask the Scottish Government whether local authorities in Scotland (a) are entitled to access and (b) receive the lists that are produced by the DWP for local authorities in England, seven times per year, of parents who are potentially eligible for funded early learning and childcare for two-year-olds.

S5W-23965 Tavish Scott: To ask the Scottish Government on what date it expects uptake of funded early learning and childcare for eligible two-year-olds to exceed 70%, which is the figure in England.

S5W-23966 Tavish Scott: To ask the Scottish Government, in light of the recent Child Health 27-30 Month Review Statistics, what steps it is taking to close the child development gap between young children in poverty and their peers who are not in poverty.

S5W-23967 Tavish Scott: To ask the Scottish Government what steps it is taking to ensure that alternative models of early learning and childcare provision are promoted to eligible families.

S5W-23969 Jackie Baillie: To ask the Scottish Government what funding integrated joint boards have in reserve to mitigate the impact of a no deal Brexit on health services and medicines supply.

S5W-23970 Jackie Baillie: To ask the Scottish Government what contingencies are in place to ensure that people across the country will be able to access the medicines that they require if there is a no deal Brexit.

S5W-23971 Jackie Baillie: To ask the Scottish Government what discussions it has had with the Department of Health to ensure that the medicines supply to Scotland will not be disrupted by a no deal Brexit.

S5W-23973 Mark Griffin: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the answer to question S5W-21923 by Shirley-Anne Somerville on 13 March 2019, in light of the progress with the discussions with the DWP, how much it estimates the transition will cost each year, broken down by benefit, and what methodology it uses to calculate this.

Transport (Scotland) Bill – Stage 2

Section 66

Jamie Greene

<() After section 113 insert—

“113A Proposed delays to works

- (1) The Scottish Ministers must by regulations make provision for a proposed delay to certain road works to be subject to approval.
- (2) Without prejudice to that generality, regulations under subsection (1) must make provision such that—
 - (a) where an undertaker has given advance notice of works under section 113, and
 - (b) the undertaker proposes to delay the day on or time at which the works are to start, the proposed delay requires the approval of the Commissioner and the road works authority.
- (3) Regulations under subsection (1) may provide that the requirement for approval of any proposed delay does not apply where the undertaker satisfies the Commissioner and the road works authority that the reason for the proposed delay is one of public safety.
- (4) Regulations under subsection (1) may include provision—
 - (a) about the manner in which approval for a proposed delay is to be sought, considered and given,
 - (b) specifying how the proposed delay and any approval of it is to be—
 - (i) entered in the SRWR,
 - (ii) otherwise publicised.
- (5) Regulations under subsection (1) are subject to the affirmative procedure.”.>

Before section 69

Rachael Hamilton

326 Before section 69, insert—

<Health boards: duty to have regard to community benefit in non-emergency patient transport contracts

Health boards: duty to have regard to community benefit in non-emergency patient transport contracts

Before entering into a contract for the provision of non-emergency patient transport services, each health board (or, as the case may be, health and social care partnership) must have regard to the extent to which the contract will improve the economic, social or environmental wellbeing of the board’s area in a way additional to the main purpose of the contract in which the requirement is included.>

Rachael Hamilton

327 Before section 69, insert—

<Health boards: duty to work with community transport bodies

Health boards: duty to work with community transport bodies

- (1) In providing non-emergency patient transport services, each health board (or, as the case may be, health and social care partnership) must work with bodies which provide community transport services in its area.
- (2) But nothing in subsection (1) requires a body which provides community transport services in its area to undertake work for which it does not have the capacity.
- (3) As soon as reasonably practicable after the end of each financial year, each health board or partnership must publish a report setting out—
 - (a) the steps it has taken to comply with the duty in subsection (1),
 - (b) its position on the extent to which non-emergency patient transport services in its area have been—
 - (i) effective, and
 - (ii) cost effective,
 - (c) any further action it proposes to take to comply with the duty in subsection (1).
- (4) A report under subsection (3) may be published in such manner as the board or partnership considers appropriate.
- (5) In this section, “community transport services” is to be construed in accordance with section 22(1) of the Transport Act 1985, with such modifications as the Scottish Ministers may specify for community transport services that are not bus services.>

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
