Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- *...* around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

*S5M-16102 Emma Harper: Dumfries and Galloway Council United in Support of EU Citizens—That the Parliament congratulates Dumfries and Galloway Council on agreeing, at a meeting of the full council and with cross party support, a motion that it considers states unequivocally to EU citizens that they are welcome in the local authority, and that the council wants them to stay; shares what it considers the council's concerns over the potential impact of Brexit on the cultural, social and economic wellbeing of the region; understands that the motion expresses particular concern regarding the UK Government's £30,000 cap on tier 2 visas, and the impact that such a cap could have on the recruitment of vital roles such as carers, teachers, agricultural and domestic workers, areas in which the region has challenges recruiting; emphasises what it sees as the concerns of people across Scotland regarding the Brexit date being only days away and, it considers, the UK Government being no closer to achieving a deal with the EU, and congratulates the Scottish Government for what it sees as its work to protect Scotland from the harmful impacts of Brexit to every sector of society and the economy.

*S5M-16101 Gail Ross: Stonewall School Survey—That the Parliament congratulates The Highland Council on being named one of the best councils in the UK for celebrating difference in its schools and for tackling anti-LGBT bullying; notes that the UK-wide education equality index, compiled by Stonewall, has ranked The Highland Council at number eight; further notes that the Stonewall 2017 school report found that 45% of LGBT pupils are bullied at school, including 64% of trans students, and commends the ongoing work of Stonewall and The Highland Council in tackling these issues.

*S5M-16100 Elaine Smith: St Patrick's Day Festival—That the Parliament welcomes the 2019 St Patrick's Day Festival in Coatbridge, which runs from 2 to 17 March; acknowledges the large Irish diaspora in the town; understands that a number of events will take place throughout the festival, including Gaelic football, a film night, quizzes, a dinner dance, lectures and Irish music; notes that the festival concludes with a Family Street Festival on 16 March; considers that the festival brings economic, social and cultural benefits to the town, with around 15,000 people visiting every year; congratulates the organising committee, which it considers does an excellent job each year in bringing all events together, and wishes everyone involved success with the celebrations.

*S5M-16099 Rona Mackay: Thanks to the Enterprise Club at Killermont Primary School in Bearsden—That the Parliament thanks the P5 and P6 Enterprise Club at Killermont Primary School in Bearsden for raising £330 to help give Glasgow children in need a hot meal; notes that the Enterprise Club created a school calendar and that proceeds were donated to the social enterprise company, Launch Foods, which works to take surplus food from manufacturers to provide children across Glasgow with hot meals; acknowledges that the Enterprise Club launched an art contest for the whole school and chose winning artwork for each month of the calendar, and commends the Enterprise Club for choosing to do something charitable with the profits.

Supported by: Richard Lyle*

*S5M-16098 John Mason: Food Allergies—That the Parliament notes the BBC article, Why the world is becoming more allergic to food, by Dr Santos of King's College London, which draws attention to the increasing prevalence of food allergies in the UK; further notes that the UK Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs is currently seeking views on changing the food allergen information laws for food pre-packed on the premises where it is sold; considers that option 4, “label food with name of food, full ingredients list and with allergens emphasised”, is the only viable option to ensure the safety of consumers; believes that it is misleading to state that all other pre-packed food currently contains “full ingredients lists”, while unspecified individual ingredients can be legally listed as flavourings, starch and dextrose, among other inaccessibly named ingredients; agrees that all members of society should be able to consume food at any location, without fear of an allergic reaction from unidentified ingredients, and calls on the Scottish Government to urge the UK Government to ensure that all individual ingredients are listed on all food items, as it considers that this is the only way to minimise the struggles that those with food allergies experience daily and prevent further unnecessary deaths.

Supported by: Kenneth Gibson*, Stuart McMillan*, Richard Lyle*

*S5M-16097 Gil Paterson: Anniversary of the Clydebank Blitz—That the Parliament commemorates the 78th anniversary of the Clydebank Blitz; understands that the Luftwaffe onslaught of 13-14 March 1941 was of such ferocity that it was proportionately the most devastating bombing raid anywhere in the UK during the Second World War; notes that it involved the bombing of strategic military targets, including the John Brown shipyard and the Singer sewing machine factory, resulted in the death or serious injury of many hundreds of residents and left only seven houses out of 12,000 undamaged; acknowledges the significant role of members of the Polish Navy in defending the town by employing barrage balloons and anti-aircraft guns; remembers and pays respect to those killed and injured in the raids; commends the spirit and resilience of the people of Clydebank in their resolve to survive and rebuild their community, and recognises the strength of the town of Clydebank and its people, who annually show their gratitude by laying a wreath in Solidarity Square for the heroic action of the Polish crew of the good ship Piorun, who deliberately attracted and drew fire onto themselves in order to save the people of Clydebank.

Supported by: Kenneth Gibson*, Bill Kidd*, Rona Mackay*, Stuart McMillan*, Sandra White*, Liam McArthur*, Richard Lyle*

*S5M-16096 Alexander Burnett: Scottish Power £2 Billion Clean Energy Investment—That the Parliament congratulates Scottish Power on what it understands is its record £2 billion clean energy investment in the UK in 2019; recognises the impact that this will have on offering consumers access to reliable, affordable, clean energy; notes Scottish Power's plans for a new public electric charging service, a 50MW battery storage project at the UK's largest onshore wind farm and a 1GW pipeline of onshore wind projects, and applauds the company's commitment to renewable energy and finding cost-effective, low-carbon solutions to support the energy needs of UK consumers. R

\*S5M-16095 Margaret Mitchell: Scrapping the "Same Roof" Rule—That the Parliament welcomes the UK Government announcement that it is scrapping the "same roof" rule; understands that the Criminal Injuries Compensation Scheme awards taxpayer-funded payments to victims injured as a result of violent crime, paying out over £150 million to victims in 2017-18; acknowledges that the "same roof" rule was part of the original scheme introduced in 1964; understands that the rule was intended to ensure that perpetrators would not benefit from compensation paid to victims that they lived with under the same roof; notes that it was amended in October 1979 so that future victims could claim compensation if they no longer lived with their attacker and were unlikely to do so again; recognises that, as is common with many changes to the law, this was not made retrospective, which meant some victims may have missed out on compensation if they were a victim of a violent crime before the law change; appreciates that one of the impetuses for change was the recent success of a South Lanarkshire woman's appeal against the same roof rule at the Supreme Court; notes that the change will amend the Criminal Injuries Compensation Scheme so that all victims abused by someone that they lived with can reapply for compensation, regardless of when the attack took place; appreciates that this will mean that victims who may not have come forward because of the rule, or were previously denied awards under it, will be eligible to claim compensation with awards being made to those who meet the scheme's other criteria, and believes that the change will have a major positive impact on victims of historic child sexual abuse who will particularly benefit from this change.

Members' Bills Proposals

Proposals for Members' Bills

A member seeking to introduce a Member's Bill must first lodge a draft proposal, together with a consultation document (or a statement of reasons why consultation is not considered necessary). Subsequently, the member may lodge a final proposal, in broadly similar terms to the draft, accompanied by a summary of consultation responses (or the statement of reasons). The member secures the right to introduce a Bill to give effect to the proposal if the final proposal secures, within one month, the support of at least 18 other members from at least half the political parties or groups represented in the Parliamentary Bureau, and provided no indication is given that the Scottish Government or UK Government is planning equivalent legislation.

All current proposals (together with associated documents) are available on the Scottish Parliament website at Proposals for Members' Bills/Session 5 Proposals:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/12419.aspx>

Final Proposal for a Member's Bill

Christine Grahame: Proposed Responsible Breeding and Ownership of Dogs (Scotland) Bill—Proposal for a Bill to improve the health and wellbeing of dogs throughout their lives by strengthening the regulation of the activity of breeding, and of selling or transferring puppies, and by establishing a more responsible and informed approach to acquiring and owning a puppy or dog. (lodged 26 February 2019)

The proposal was accompanied by a summary of consultation responses, which is accessible online via the website page referred to above. The summary, and individual responses, may also be viewed in the Scottish Parliament Information Centre (SPICe).

Progress of Legislation

Bills

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
