Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Members' Business motions that have not achieved cross party support

S5M-21245 John Mason: China Organ Harvesting—That the Parliament notes that the China Tribunal, chaired by Sir Geoffrey Nice QC, released its full judgment on 1 March 2020; recognises that the Tribunal's judgment is the first legal analysis of available information and evidence relating to forced organ harvesting of prisoners of conscience to determine the extent of criminality on the part of the state of the People's Republic of China; understands that the Tribunal has found, after reviewing available evidence such as extraordinarily short waiting times promised by doctors for organs to become available for transplant, that there was documented torture of Falun Gong and Uyghurs and the impossibility of there being anything close to the number of "eligible donors", and that it is certain beyond reasonable doubt that forced organ harvesting of prisoners of conscience has been practised for an extended period of time and has involved a "very substantial number of victims"; notes the belief that, in line with the Tribunal's judgment, there must be a strong international response to what it considers crimes against humanity and a possible genocide committed by China, and further notes the view that it is important that medical institutions and people, including those living within the Glasgow Shettleston constituency, are made aware of the findings of the Tribunal so that they do not unwittingly aid state sponsored organ harvesting.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S5M-21244 Christine Grahame: Glue Traps—That the Parliament notes the use of glue traps by members of the public and pest control practitioners to kill rodents; understands that these operate by trapping rats and mice with strong adhesive; notes that non-target animals, such as birds and bats, can also be caught in the traps and experience severe injuries as a result; believes that incidents have been documented of trapped animals breaking and dislocating bones, tearing skin and fur and even gnawing through their own limbs or ripping their feet off in their efforts to escape; considers there are more humane methods of addressing problems with rodents in domestic or commercial premises; is aware that the sale and use of these traps has been banned outright in Ireland since 2003 and in Victoria, Australia, since 2019, due to concerns over unacceptable pain caused to animals, and that they have been prohibited in New Zealand, except under specific ministerial approval; notes that over 200 UK retailers and wholesalers have voluntarily withdrawn glue traps from sale while other suppliers describe them as "unpleasant" and recommend that they should only be used as a last resort; acknowledges that a YouGov poll carried in June 2015 out on behalf of HSI UK recorded that 68% agreed they should be banned in the UK; understands however that the traps are still widely available in other outlets, including online sales; considers that voluntary trade association codes of practice, while welcome, do not address all the welfare concerns and do not cover all pest control practitioners, and notes the calls for the Scottish Government to consider the merits of banning the use of glue traps altogether, on ethical grounds.

S5M-21243 Annie Wells: Govanhill's The Well Marks 25th Anniversary—That the Parliament congratulates Govanhill's The Well on its 25th anniversary, which was marked by celebrating with clients, supporters, staff and volunteers, both past and present; understands that The Well Multi-Cultural Resource Centre serves the diverse ethnic minority communities in Govanhill and surrounding areas by providing information and advice in a culturally sensitive manner; considers that, through one-to-one relational support, it makes a long-term difference in people's lives; acknowledges that the volunteers come from churches in and around Glasgow, together with local community translator volunteers, to offer help in a variety of ways, including drop-in advice consultations, an activity programme to develop skills and confidence, opportunities to volunteer and training in cross-cultural work for other agencies and churches, and understands that, in the 25 years since it opened, it has expanded to include a mother and toddler group, ESOL classes for women and a "Chai and Chat" social group.

Supported by: Brian Whittle*, Miles Briggs*, Peter Chapman*, Bill Kidd*, Finlay Carson*, John Mason*, David Torrance*, Jackson Carlaw*

S5M-21242 Iain Gray: Macmerry Miners' Welfare Society & Social Club—That the Parliament welcomes the Coalfields Regeneration Trust award of £3,954 for the Macmerry Miners' Welfare Society & Social Club; understands that this funding will go towards its project to improve heating system controls; recognises that the Trust is continuing to work and invest in projects that improve the lives of people living in coalfield communities; notes that it is just over a year since the club started raising money to replace the heating system but, with the help and support of the community, it has raised over £36,000 in total; commends the community for raising money and applying for grants, and considers that the centre having a reliable heating system will play a part in reviving the Macmerry Miners' Welfare Society & Social Club.

S5M-21241 Liam McArthur: Orkney FC to Play Two Games Simultaneously—That the Parliament applauds Orkney FC on its commitment as its squad prepares to play two games simultaneously on opposite sides of the Pentland Firth; understands that, due to a series of weather-related postponements, the club is looking to catch up on its North Caledonian League commitments by one set of squad members taking on Bunillidh Thistle in Helmsdale at 12.30 pm on 14 March 2020 while another set will play Bonar Bridge in Kirkwall at 12.45 pm; understands that this is not unprecedented in Scottish football, with Celtic completing games against Raith Rovers and Motherwell on the same day in 1916; hopes that the Orkney players will emerge victorious in both fixtures thanks to the capacity of the squad to raise enough players to meet the demands of fulfilling the two fixtures; believes that this demonstrates the enthusiasm and commitment of all those involved with the club, but notes with regret that the exceptional demand for players was still insufficient to prompt a call up in goals for the local MSP; recognises that, while the side is currently fifth in the league, the opportunity to earn six points in one day presents an ideal opportunity to make up ground on the leaders, Invergordon, in the race for the title, and wishes the players the best of luck.

Supported by: Kate Forbes*

S5M-21239 Graeme Dey: Representation of the People (Annual Canvass) (Miscellaneous Amendments) (Scotland) Regulations 2020 [draft]—That the Standards, Procedures and Public Appointments Committee recommends that the Representation of the People (Annual Canvass) (Miscellaneous Amendments) (Scotland) Regulations 2020 [draft] be approved.

wage once public transport costs are taken into account; believes that interpreters are essential workers who provide a very important and valuable service and should be regarded as important partners in the delivery of public services and justice; understands that these workers are often not briefed before cases, leaving them unsure, vulnerable and put into tense and unpredictable situations, that they have to work across many agencies at the same time on flexible arrangements, with no guarantee of work, are without basic employment rights and often dismissed with minimal pay of one hour where cases have been cancelled by the client, leaving them living hand to mouth, and calls on the Scottish Government to launch an immediate investigation into the work of interpreters, the contracts they are employed under and the pay and conditions they work to.

<https://www.parliament.scot/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.
